transport costs includes the cost of fuel, tolls, parking, entry fees and, if applicable, vehicle hire or leasing costs.

- (2) In this Act, a reference to a passenger service, passenger transport service, hire and drive passenger service or regular passenger service is taken to include a reference to a part of the service.

4. Timing of administrative actions of Commission

Where a provision of this Act requires the Commission to take an action consequent on making a decision or another occurrence, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the provision is to be taken as requiring the Commission to take the action as soon as practicable after making the decision or as soon as practicable after the other occurrence.

5. Determination of seating capacity

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a motor vehicle is taken always to have the number of seats it had when originally manufactured, regardless of whether any of those seats has been –
- (a) permanently or temporarily removed from the motor vehicle; or
 - (b) permanently or temporarily converted to or adapted to another use.

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (2) However, if, as a result of a modification, a motor vehicle has more seats than it had when originally manufactured as determined under subsection (1), then, for the purposes of this Act, the motor vehicle is taken to have, after the modification, that higher number of seats.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act –
- seat*, of a motor vehicle, includes –
- (a) the driver’s seat; and
 - (b) an individual seating position on a bench seat; and
 - (c) a demountable seat (being a seat that is so designed and constructed as to be capable of being readily removed from the motor vehicle without the need to structurally alter the motor vehicle); and
 - (d) a modifiable seat (being a seat that is so designed and constructed as to be capable of being readily retracted, collapsed or folded away when not in use or of being readily converted or adapted to another use such as a sofa, bed or storage); and
 - (e) a seat that, to be used, requires the temporary retraction, collapsing or folding-away of a moveable console or armrest; and

Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 6

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (f) a position or space on the floor of the vehicle that is purposely designed or adapted to accommodate, or is dedicated or reserved for the use of, a wheelchair.

6. Act does not apply to personal private use of motor vehicles

- (1) Nothing in this Act restricts, governs or otherwise applies to the personal private use of a motor vehicle.
- (2) In this section –

personal private use, of a motor vehicle, means its use by an individual to carry members of the individual's family, or friends of the individual's family (even if any such passenger makes, or offers or is asked to make, some contribution towards the transport costs or does, or offers, or is asked, to do, some of the driving).

7. Act does not apply to private passenger services

- (1) Nothing in this Act restricts, governs or otherwise applies to a private passenger service.
- (2) Any question or dispute as to whether a particular passenger service is a private passenger service is to be determined by the Commission, and the determination is binding.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 1 – Preliminary

s. 8

(3) In determining whether a particular passenger service is a private passenger service, the Commission may have regard to –

- (a) guidelines, if any, it approves for the purpose; and
- (b) such other factors as the Commission reasonably considers relevant.

(4) In this section –

passenger service includes a group of such services;

private passenger service means a passenger service that is –

- (a) provided by means of a small passenger vehicle; and
- (b) operated exclusively by persons having a common affiliation; and
- (c) not available to the general public.

8. Act does not apply to incidental passenger services

(1) Nothing in this Act restricts, governs or otherwise applies to –

- (a) the carriage of persons under a private car-pooling arrangement; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 8

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (b) the carriage of persons in or on a motorised buggy or similar specialised vehicle within the precincts of –
 - (i) a golf course, sports ground or other sporting venue; or
 - (ii) a tourist attraction; or
 - (iii) an hotel; or
 - (iv) an industrial complex; or
 - (v) an aerodrome; or
- (c) the carriage of passengers in or on a motor vehicle that is configured as, and being used solely as, a novelty vehicle such as a “toy train” in a public park or a float in a Christmas parade or other community pageant; or
- (d) the carriage of persons in prescribed motor vehicles or by prescribed persons or prescribed passenger services or in prescribed circumstances.

(2) In this section –

private car-pooling arrangement means –

- (a) an arrangement whereby several individuals travel together in one small passenger vehicle on a journey, on the basis that they will share the transport costs or driving duties, or both; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 1 – Preliminary

s. 8A

- (b) an arrangement whereby several individuals agree to transport one another in each other's small passenger vehicle, turn and turn about over a given period, correspondingly apportioning transport costs, for the purpose of commuting to work or to a regular sporting, recreational or other activity of common interest; or
- (c) an arrangement analogous to an arrangement referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

8A. Meaning of booking service provider

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is a booking service provider if the person carries on the business of –
 - (a) receiving requests for persons to be transported for financial consideration by a small passenger vehicle (other than a luxury hire car, or a restricted hire vehicle, each within the meaning of the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act 2008) that is being operated as part of a passenger transport service; and
 - (b) arranging or facilitating the acceptance of those requests by or on behalf of drivers of small passenger vehicles.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 8A

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (2) In determining whether a person (the service provider) is a booking service provider, it does not matter –
- (a) whether or not the transport of a person by a small passenger vehicle is provided by a driver as an agent, bailee or employee of the service provider; or
 - (b) whether the agreement or arrangement in accordance with which the transport of a person by a small passenger vehicle is provided is between –
 - (i) the driver and passenger; or
 - (ii) the service provider and either the driver or passenger; or
 - (iii) any other persons; or
 - (c) whether the fare or other consideration for the transport of a person by a small passenger vehicle is paid to the driver by –
 - (i) the service provider; or
 - (ii) the passenger; or
 - (iii) any other person; or
 - (d) whether or not an act referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) involves the use of a wholly or partly automated electronic system, including ride-sourcing software; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 1 – Preliminary

s. 9

- (e) whether or not the service provider is located outside the State; or
 - (f) whether or not the service provider also receives requests for persons to be carried as passengers outside the State.
- (3) A person who owns, operates or controls a wholly or partly automated electronic system, which may include ride-sourcing software, that performs the acts referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) is taken to be a booking service provider.
- (4) A person prescribed for the purposes of this subsection is taken to be a booking service provider.
- (5) A person prescribed for the purposes of this subsection is taken to not be a booking service provider, despite anything to the contrary in the other provisions of this section.

9. Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of Tasmania and, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, in all its other capacities.

PART 2 – ACCREDITATION

Division 1 – Accreditation policy

10. Operator of passenger transport service must be accredited

- (1) A person must not operate a passenger transport service unless the person is accredited in respect of that service and that accreditation is not suspended.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 200 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 100 penalty units for an individual.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the operation, for the purposes of a passenger transport service, by a ride-sourcing driver of a ride-sourcing vehicle under an arrangement with a booking service provider.

11. What is a passenger transport service operator?

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is taken to operate a passenger transport service if –
- (a) the person operates a manned small passenger vehicle on a public street for the purpose of carrying passengers, where –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 11

- (i) the passengers, or any of them, have to pay a fare; and
 - (ii) the passenger service so provided is available to any member of the general public and a transport concern; or
 - (b) the person operates a manned large passenger vehicle on a public street for the purpose of carrying passengers, regardless of whether –
 - (i) the passengers, or any of them, have to pay a fare; or
 - (ii) the passenger service so provided is available to any member of the general public or a transport concern; or
 - (c) the person is a booking service provider.
- (2) To avoid doubt, it is immaterial for the purposes of subsection (1) whether –
- (a) the driver of the small passenger vehicle or large passenger vehicle is the service operator or an employee or agent of the service operator; or
 - (b) at any particular stage of the journey, the small passenger vehicle or large passenger vehicle is actually carrying any passengers.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 11

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a passenger service is taken to be a transport concern if it is operated by a business or undertaking –
- (a) as its sole activity; or
 - (b) as one of its main activities; or
 - (c) as an integral and indispensable component of its sole activity or one of its main activities, not merely as an incidental, occasional or dispensable adjunct to that activity.
- (4) Any question or dispute as to whether a particular passenger service is a transport concern is to be determined by the Commission, and the determination is binding.
- (5) In determining whether a particular passenger service is primarily a transport concern, the Commission may have regard to –
- (a) whether passenger transport is the primary purpose or main focus of the service operator; and
 - (b) whether the service has more of a commercial focus (being operated for profit in its own right) or a goodwill focus (being provided as a courtesy for the patrons or guests of the service operator, and where no charge is made for the service itself); and
 - (c) whether the service operator advertises or presents itself as, or in any other way

Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 11

purports to be, a passenger transport entity; and

- (d) whether the service operator advertises or presents the service as a dedicated passenger transport service or as a service that is ancillary to another activity; and
- (e) whether the service operator could still engage in its main or primary activities without operating the service, directly or at all; and
- (f) the scale and value of the resources used for the service relative to those used for other activities, if any, of the service operator; and
- (g) the scale, frequency and nature of the service and the scale and nature of associated materiel, equipment and facilities; and
- (h) relevant motor vehicle ownership and leasing arrangements; and
- (i) the antecedents of the service operator and, if applicable, the nature of any relevant business, or corporate, relationships; and
- (j) such other factors as the Commission reasonably considers relevant.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 12

Part 2 – Accreditation

12. Operator of hire and drive passenger service must be accredited

A person must not operate a hire and drive passenger service unless the person is accredited in respect of that service.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 200 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 100 penalty units for an individual.

13. What is a hire and drive passenger service operator?

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person is taken to operate a hire and drive passenger service if the person –
 - (a) hires out an unmanned motor vehicle; and
 - (b) the primary purpose of the hiring is the carriage of passengers rather than the carriage of goods or some other purpose.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), it is immaterial whether the hirer of the motor vehicle intends to –
 - (a) drive the motor vehicle personally (with or without other passengers) or have another person drive the motor vehicle, (with or without other passengers); or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 14

- (b) use the motor vehicle as a fixed or mobile dwelling to any extent; or
 - (c) put the motor vehicle to a use to which, by virtue of section 6, 7 or 8, this Act does not apply.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, where a person who owns or is in charge of a motor vehicle (“owner”) contracts for another person (“hiring agent”) to hire it out on the owner’s behalf, the hiring agent, not the owner, is taken to operate the hire and drive passenger service.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where an accredited operator in respect of any service hires an unmanned motor vehicle for the purposes of operating that service, the person who does the hiring out is not, on that account, taken to be operating a hire and drive passenger service for the purposes of this Act.

14. Voluntary accreditation

A person who, by means of a small passenger vehicle, operates a passenger service that is not required to be accredited may nonetheless voluntarily apply for accreditation in respect of that service.

15. Purpose of accreditation

- (1) The purpose of mandatory accreditation is to ensure that the operator of a passenger transport service or hire and drive passenger service –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 15

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (a) is a fit and proper person to operate the service; and
 - (b) implements, as far as reasonably practicable, appropriate safety, security and related systems for the service; and
 - (c) has the requisite competence and capacity to manage the safety, security and related risks associated with operating the service; and
 - (d) is held accountable for any deficiencies in the safety, security or related performance of the service.
- (2) The purpose of voluntary accreditation is to encourage and assist the operator of the relevant passenger service to –
- (a) implement, as far as reasonably practicable, appropriate safety, security and related systems for the service; and
 - (b) develop and maintain the competence and capacity to manage the safety, security and related risks associated with operating the service; and
 - (c) take responsibility for, and address, any deficiencies in the safety, security or related performance of the service.

16. Safety, security and related operational standards of accredited services

- (1) For accreditation purposes, the Commission may approve safety, security and related standards for –
 - (a) passenger transport services or hire and drive passenger services generally; or
 - (b) different kinds of passenger transport services or hire and drive passenger services; or
 - (c) specific passenger transport services or hire and drive passenger services.
- (2) In approving the standards, the Commission may liaise with such industry bodies, standards bodies, regulatory authorities and other interested parties as it considers necessary or expedient.
- (3) The Commission may publish an approval as it considers necessary or expedient.

17. Who may be accredited?

- (1) Any of the following may be accredited under this Part:
 - (a) a person;
 - (b) a partnership;
 - (c) an incorporated body;

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 18

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (d) an unincorporated body.
- (2) If a partnership is accredited, the members of the partnership are jointly and severally liable under this Part in relation to the accreditation.

Division 2 – Application and accreditation procedure

18. Application for accreditation

- (1) An application for accreditation is to be made to the Commission.
- (2) The application is to be in accordance with section 66.
- (3) If the applicant is a body politic, a partnership or an incorporated or unincorporated body it must, by the application, nominate a natural person to be the responsible person for the accreditation.
- (4) The person nominated is to be –
 - (a) in the case of a body politic – a member or senior employee of the body politic; and
 - (b) in the case of a partnership – one of the partners; and
 - (c) in the case of an incorporated body – one of its officers or employees; and
 - (d) in the case of an unincorporated body – one of its members.
- (5) The role of the responsible person is to –

- (a) act as the Commission’s primary contact regarding the safety, security and related performance of the relevant service; and
- (b) oversee the day-to-day safety, security and related performance of the relevant service; and
- (c) be responsible for ensuring that the relevant service meets applicable regulatory safety, security and related standards.

19. Determination of application for accreditation

- (1) On receiving an application for accreditation, the Commission is to –
 - (a) consider the application; and
 - (b) approve or refuse to approve the application.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission –
 - (a) is to take into account the criteria or other matters, if any, prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) may take into account any other matters it considers relevant in the circumstances having regard to section 15.
- (3) The Commission must refuse to approve the application if it reasonably determines that –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 19

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (a) the applicant is not a fit and proper person to be accredited; or
 - (b) if applicable, the nominated responsible person is not a fit and proper person to be so nominated; or
 - (c) the applicant will not be able (or is unlikely to be able) to meet the safety, security and related standards, if any, approved under section 16 for the service that the applicant is proposing to operate.
- (4) Without limiting the matters that may be relevant for subsection (3)(a) and (b), the Commission may determine that a natural person is not a fit and proper person to be accredited, or nominated as a responsible person, if the person –
- (a) has a conviction for a serious offence; or
 - (b) has, in another jurisdiction, a conviction for an offence of a kind that would constitute a serious offence if committed in Tasmania; or
 - (c) has a history of non-compliance regarding any previous accreditation or any external accreditation; or
 - (d) has a history of non-compliance regarding the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act 2008; or
 - (e) is subject to a driving disqualification order under –

- (i) section 55 of the Sentencing Act 1997; or
- (ii) section 37F of the Police Offences Act 1935.

20. Refusal of application for accreditation

- (1) This section applies if the Commission refuses to approve an application for accreditation.
- (2) The Commission is to notify the applicant of –
 - (a) the refusal; and
 - (b) the reasons for the refusal; and
 - (c) the applicant’s rights of review.

21. Approval of application for accreditation

- (1) This section applies if the Commission approves an application for accreditation.
- (2) The Commission may place such conditions on the accreditation as it considers necessary or expedient to uphold the purpose of accreditation in respect of the relevant service.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commission may place on the accreditation conditions requiring any or all of the following:
 - (a) that the accredited operator develop and maintain an approved safety and security management plan for the service;

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 22

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (b) that the service undergo approved safety, security and related audits at approved times or intervals;
 - (c) that the vehicles used for the service undergo approved safety, mechanical or other inspections at approved times or intervals;
 - (d) record-keeping and the provision of approved returns or reports on any matter relevant to the safety, security and related performance of the service;
 - (e) that the accredited operator develop and maintain a system for managing risks to safety and security relating to the performance of the service.
- (4) The Commission is to –
- (a) notify the applicant of the approval; and
 - (b) if applicable, notify the applicant of the conditions of the accreditation and the applicant’s rights of review in respect of those conditions; and
 - (c) issue the applicant with an accreditation certificate.

22. Accreditation certificate

- (1) An accreditation certificate is to be in an approved form and specify –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 23

- (a) particulars of the accredited operator and, if applicable, the relevant responsible person; and
 - (b) particulars of the relevant service; and
 - (c) the conditions, if any, of the accreditation; and
 - (d) any other matters the Commission considers necessary or expedient.
- (2) The Commission is to issue an accredited operator with a revised accreditation certificate if there is a change in –
- (a) the conditions, if any, of the accreditation; or
 - (b) the name or business address of, or some other significant particular concerning, the accredited operator; or
 - (c) if applicable, the relevant responsible person.
- (3) The revised certificate may be issued on the Commission’s own initiative or at the request of the accredited operator.

23. Accreditation Register

- (1) The Commission is to keep a register (“Accreditation Register”) for the purposes of this Part.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 23

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (2) The Accreditation Register is to be in an approved form and contain –
 - (a) such particulars in respect of each accredited operator as the regulations may prescribe; and
 - (b) such other information the Commission considers necessary or expedient.
- (3) In any proceedings, a document purporting to be a copy of or extract from the Accreditation Register in relation to a particular matter at a particular date, and purporting to be signed by the Commission or a delegate of the Commission, is admissible as evidence of the contents of the Accreditation Register relating to that matter at that date.
- (4) The Commission may publish the Accreditation Register or any part or extract thereof as it considers necessary or expedient.
- (5) If there are reasonable grounds for believing that the information kept in the Accreditation Register is inaccurate, misleading or incomplete, the Commission may, by written notice to an accredited operator, or, if there is a relevant responsible person in relation to an accredited operator, to the relevant responsible person, require the accredited operator or relevant responsible person, respectively, to do one or more of the following:
 - (a) to provide information that the Commission considers necessary to

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 23

- correct or complete the relevant entry in the Accreditation Register;
- (b) to provide, in a form specified by the Commission in the notice, evidence of the correctness of the information provided under paragraph (a);
 - (c) to provide, for inspection by the Commission, documents specified in the notice;
 - (d) to attend, at a time and place specified in the notice, for identification.
- (6) If a natural person is required by a notice under subsection (5) to attend for identification, the Commission may, at the request of the person, change the time or place, or both, specified in the notice as the time or place at which the person is to attend and if the Commission makes such a change, the notice is taken to have been amended so as to reflect that change.
- (7) An accredited operator or a relevant responsible person must comply with a requirement specified in a notice given to the operator or person under subsection (5).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.

Division 3 – Nature of accreditation

24. Duration of accreditation

- (1) Except as provided by this Part, accreditation is ongoing subject to the payment of the continuity fees, if any, prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) If the holder of an accreditation fails to pay a continuity fee by the day on which it falls due to be paid –
 - (a) the Commission, by notice, may demand that the holder of the accreditation pay the continuity fee by a specified day; and
 - (b) the accreditation expires at the end of that specified day if, at that time, the continuity fee remains unpaid.

25. Accreditation not transferable

Accreditation is not transferable.

26. Surrender of accreditation

- (1) An accredited operator may, by notice to the Commission or other approved means, surrender an accreditation at any time.
- (2) The surrender applies to the whole of the accreditation.
- (3) Accreditation has no surrender value.

27. Death of individual accredited operator

- (1) If a natural person holding accreditation in respect of a passenger transport service or a hire and drive passenger service dies, the person's personal representative may continue it in operation for a period not exceeding 3 months.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –
 - (a) the accreditation is taken to continue in force under and subject to this Act for the period during which the personal representative continues to operate the service; and
 - (b) the personal representative is taken to be, and to have all the rights, obligations and liabilities of, the accredited operator in respect of the service.

28. External accreditation

- (1) This section applies if a person ("interstate passenger transport services operator") –
 - (a) operates a passenger transport service in another State; and
 - (b) has valid external accreditation (in that other State) in respect of that passenger transport service; and
 - (c) operates, by means of vehicles that are registered under the vehicle registration laws of that other State and are authorised to be used for the purposes of

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 28

Part 2 – Accreditation

that external accreditation, occasional passenger transport services originating in that other State and extending to Tasmania (“interstate passenger transport services”).

- (2) For the purposes of section 10, the external accreditation has, in respect of the interstate passenger transport services, the same force and effect in Tasmania, according to its terms, as accreditation under this Part.
- (3) However, the Commission may determine that subsection (2) does not apply to the external accreditation in respect of the interstate passenger transport services if, in its absolute discretion, it is satisfied that –
 - (a) the interstate passenger transport operator has moved its base of operations to Tasmania or is conducting operations from Tasmania; or
 - (b) the interstate passenger transport operator is operating interstate passenger transport services on more than an occasional basis; or
 - (c) the interstate passenger transport operator is operating, in Tasmania, regular passenger services; or
 - (d) the external accreditation is not substantially similar to Tasmanian accreditation in respect of a comparable passenger transport service; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 28

- (e) the requirements for obtaining the external accreditation do not substantially match the corresponding Tasmanian requirements; or
 - (f) the external accreditation has become invalid or inactive; or
 - (g) relevant vehicles or operations have not undergone or passed safety inspections or safety audits required under the external accreditation; or
 - (h) there are other reasonable grounds, not amounting to trade restrictions, for making such a determination.
- (4) If the Commission makes a determination under subsection (3) –
- (a) it is to notify the interstate passenger transport operator of the determination; and
 - (b) the determination takes effect 7 days after the service of that notification.
- (5) A determination under subsection (3) is not –
- (a) an administrative decision for the purposes of Part 4; or
 - (b) a reviewable decision for the purposes of subsection (1) of section 59.
- (6) In this section –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 29

Part 2 – Accreditation

valid external accreditation means external accreditation that is not probationary or suspended or subject to a notice of cancellation.

Division 4 – Management of accreditation

29. Contravention of conditions of accreditation

(1) A person holding accreditation must not –

- (a) contravene the conditions of the accreditation; or
- (b) cause or allow another person to contravene the conditions of the accreditation.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 100 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 50 penalty units for an individual.
- (2) Where a body politic, a partnership or an incorporated or unincorporated body holds accreditation, the relevant responsible person must not –
- (a) contravene the conditions of the accreditation; or
 - (b) cause or allow another person to contravene the conditions of the accreditation.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

30. Variation of conditions of accreditation, &c.

- (1) The Commission may, at any time –
 - (a) place an additional condition on an accreditation; or
 - (b) vary or revoke a condition of an accreditation.
- (2) The Commission may exercise its power under subsection (1) –
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on the application of the accredited operator in accordance with section 66.
- (3) Unless it reasonably apprehends that it needs to act speedily because of a threat to public safety, the Commission is not to exercise its power under subsection (2)(a) so as to make the conditions of the accreditation more costly or onerous for the accredited operator without giving the accredited operator notice of its intention, together with reasons, and a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (4) If, in response to an application pursuant to subsection (2), the Commission decides to take an action different from that sought by the applicant, the Commission is to notify the applicant of the reasons for taking the different action.

Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 31

Part 2 – Accreditation

(5) In this section –

action includes omission.

31. Cancellation and suspension, &c., of accreditation

(1) The Commission may cancel or suspend or impose probationary status on an accreditation if –

(a) the Commission is satisfied on reasonable grounds that –

(i) the accredited operator or, if applicable, relevant responsible person has contravened the conditions of the accreditation in a material way (or caused or allowed other persons to do so); or

(ii) the accredited operator or, if applicable, relevant responsible person has contravened relevant safety, security or related standards approved under section 16 (or caused or allowed other persons to do so); or

(iii) the accredited operator or, if applicable, relevant responsible person has contravened vehicle safety inspection requirements, if any, prescribed by the regulations (or caused or allowed other persons to do so); or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 31

- (iv) in the case of accreditation in respect of a passenger transport service, the accredited operator has operated a passenger transport service of a kind not permitted under the accreditation; or
- (v) the accredited operator, being required to have a responsible person for the purposes of the accreditation, does not have such responsible person; or
- (vi) the accredited operator has failed to pay prescribed fees relevant to the accreditation after due demand has been made for their payment; or
- (via) the accredited operator, or the relevant responsible person, has failed to comply with an improvement notice issued to the accredited operator or relevant responsible person, respectively; or
- (vii) the accredited operator or, if applicable, relevant responsible person has failed to furnish the Commission with information it reasonably requires in relation to the accreditation after due demand has been made for that information; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 31

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (b) the Commission, having regard to the same matters as are relevant under section 19(2) and (4), is satisfied that –
 - (i) the accredited operator is no longer a fit and proper person to hold the accreditation or, if applicable, the relevant responsible person is no longer a fit and proper person to fill that role; or
 - (ii) the accredited operator is employing drivers who are not fit and proper persons to fill that role; or
 - (c) the Commission, having regard to section 15, is satisfied that there are other compelling reasons for effecting the cancellation or suspension or, as the case may be, imposing the probationary status.
- (2) Unless it reasonably apprehends that it needs to act speedily because of a threat to public safety, the Commission is not to exercise its power under subsection (1) without giving the accredited operator notice of its intention, together with reasons, and a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
 - (3) In determining whether cancellation or suspension or the imposition of probationary status is the most appropriate course of action in the circumstances, the Commission is, except

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2 – Accreditation

s. 31

where the cancellation or suspension relates to a failure to pay prescribed fees, to regard public safety as the paramount consideration rather than the impact on the accredited operator.

- (4) If the Commission cancels or suspends or imposes probationary status on an accreditation, it is to notify the accredited operator of the cancellation or suspension or imposition of probationary status and of the accredited operator's rights of review.
- (5) Apart from the requirement to pay any fees imposed under this Act, an accreditation is not in force while it is suspended.
- (6) While an accreditation has probationary status, it remains in force but the Commission, in its absolute discretion, may impose special restrictions on the accreditation.
- (7) If the Commission cancels or suspends or imposes probationary status on an accreditation, it is to record particulars of the cancellation or suspension or probation in the Accreditation Register.
- (8) The Commission may at any time revoke the suspension of an accreditation if it is satisfied that the suspension is no longer merited.
- (9) The Commission may at any time revoke the imposition of probationary status on an accreditation if it is satisfied that it no longer merits that status and, on the revocation, may remove or ameliorate any special restrictions imposed on the accreditation under subsection (6).

32. Information requirements

- (1) The Commission, by notice, may require the accredited operator or, if applicable, relevant responsible person to provide it with such information concerning an accredited service, within such period of not less than 14 days, as the Commission specifies in the notice.
- (2) An accredited operator must comply with a requirement made of the accredited operator under subsection (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.
- (3) The responsible person for an accredited operator must comply with a requirement made of the responsible person under subsection (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 25 penalty units.

33. Notification requirements, &c.

- (1) An accredited operator who is a natural person must notify the Commission within 14 days if the accredited operator is charged with a serious offence.

s. 33A

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 25 penalty units.

- (2) The responsible person for an accreditation must notify the Commission within 14 days if the responsible person is charged with a serious offence.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 25 penalty units.

- (3) If a person ceases for any reason to be the responsible person for an accreditation –
- (a) the accredited operator must notify the Commission of that fact within 14 days; and
 - (b) by the same notice, nominate a new responsible person for the accreditation.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

Division 5 – Booking service providers

33A. Duty of booking service providers in relation to ride-sourcing drivers

- (1) A booking service provider who permits a ride-sourcing driver to operate a passenger transport service by means of ride-sourcing software must notify the Commission as soon as practicable after the booking service provider becomes aware that the person is operating a passenger transport service –
- (a) other than by means of the ride-sourcing software, a taxi, a luxury hire vehicle or a restricted hire vehicle; and

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 33A

Part 2 – Accreditation

- (b) without being accredited to operate a passenger transport service.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.
- (2) The Commission may, by notice to a booking service provider who permits a ride-sourcing driver to operate a passenger transport service by means of ride-sourcing software, require the booking service provider to cease to permit the ride-sourcing driver to use the ride-sourcing software to operate a passenger transport service.
 - (3) The Commission may only issue a notice under subsection (2) in relation to a ride-sourcing driver if the Commission believes, on reasonable grounds, that the driver has been operating a passenger transport service –
 - (a) other than by means of the ride-sourcing software, a taxi, a luxury hire vehicle or a restricted hire vehicle; and
 - (b) without being accredited to operate a passenger transport service.
 - (4) A person to whom a notice is issued under subsection (2) must not fail to comply with a requirement of the notice.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

33B. Notification of Commission when vehicle first used for on-demand passenger transport service

- (1) An accredited operator who is accredited in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service must notify the Commission within 14 days after a vehicle begins to be used for the provision of the on-demand passenger transport service.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an accredited operator who is accredited in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service if there is a relevant responsible person in relation to the accreditation.
 - (3) A relevant responsible person in relation to the accreditation of an accredited operator who is accredited in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service must notify the Commission within 14 days after a vehicle begins to be used for the provision of the on-demand passenger transport service.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.

PART 2A – SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

33C. Interpretation of Part 2A

In this Part –

party in the chain of responsibility, for an on-demand passenger transport service, means each of the following persons:

- (a) an accredited operator of the service;
- (b) a relevant responsible person for an accredited operator of the service;
- (c) an affiliated operator in relation to a booking service provider who is an accredited operator in relation to the service;
- (d) a driver of a vehicle used for the provision of the service;
- (e) a registered operator of a vehicle used in the provision of the service;

safety duty means a duty specified in section 33G, section 33H, section 33I or section 33J.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 33D

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

33D. Reasonably practicable

In this Part, reasonably practicable, in relation to a safety duty of a person, is a reference to what is, or what was at a particular time, reasonably able to be done by the person in relation to ensuring safety, taking into account and weighing up all relevant matters including –

- (a) the likelihood of the hazard or the risk concerned occurring; and
- (b) the degree of harm that might result from the hazard or risk; and
- (c) what the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, about –
 - (i) the hazard or risk; and
 - (ii) ways of eliminating or minimising the hazard or risk; and
- (d) the availability and suitability of ways to eliminate or minimise the risk; and
- (e) after assessing the extent of the risk and the available ways of eliminating or minimising the risk – the cost associated with the available ways of eliminating or minimising the risk, including whether the cost is grossly disproportionate to the risk.

33E. Principles of shared responsibility

- (1) The safety of the operations of an on-demand transport service is the shared responsibility of each person who is a party in the chain of responsibility in relation to the on-demand transport service.
- (2) The level and nature of a person’s responsibility for an activity depends on –
 - (a) the functions that the person performs or is required to perform, whether exclusively or occasionally; and
 - (b) the nature of the safety risks created by the carrying out of the activity; and
 - (c) the person’s capacity to control, eliminate or minimise the risks.

33F. Principles applying to safety duties

- (1) A safety duty of a person may not be transferred to another person.
- (2) A person may have more than one safety duty by virtue of being a person to whom more than one provision of this Part applies.
- (3) More than one person may concurrently have the same safety duty and each person must comply with the safety duty even if another person has the same safety duty.
- (4) If more than one person has a safety duty for the same matter, each person –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 33G

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

- (a) retains responsibility for the person's safety duty in relation to the matter; and
- (b) must discharge the person's safety duty to the extent to which the person –
 - (i) has the capacity to influence and control the matter; or
 - (ii) would have had that capacity but for an agreement or arrangement purporting to limit or remove that capacity.

33G. Safety duties of accredited operators and relevant responsible persons

- (1) In this section, a reference to an accredited operator does not include a reference to an affiliated operator.
- (2) It is a safety duty of an accredited operator in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service, and of a relevant responsible person in relation to an accredited operator of an on-demand passenger transport service –
 - (a) to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of the drivers of vehicles while the drivers are providing the on-demand passenger transport service; and
 - (b) to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of other road users while vehicles are being used for the

Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

- purposes of the on-demand passenger transport service; and
- (c) to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety of passengers of vehicles while the vehicles are being used to provide the on-demand passenger transport service.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), an accredited operator of an on-demand passenger transport service, and a relevant responsible person in relation to an accredited operator of an on-demand passenger transport service, must –
- (a) eliminate risks to safety, so far as is reasonably practicable; and
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate risks to safety, minimise those risks so far as is reasonably practicable.
- (4) It is a safety duty of a person who is an accredited operator in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service, and of a relevant responsible person in relation to an accredited operator of an on-demand passenger transport service, to ensure that the person's conduct does not directly or indirectly cause or encourage another person to fail to comply, in relation to the on-demand passenger transport service, with a safety duty imposed on that other person.
- (5) It is a safety duty of an accredited operator in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service, and of a relevant responsible person in relation to an accredited operator of an on-demand passenger transport service, to ensure that –

- (a) the provisions of this Act, or of any other law, that relate to the safe use of a vehicle; and
- (b) any safety, security and related standards approved by the Commission under section 16 – are complied with by the accredited operator or relevant responsible person, respectively, and to ensure, to the relevant extent, that each other person involved in the provision of the on-demand passenger transport service complies with such provisions or standards.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the relevant extent to which an accredited operator or relevant responsible person is to ensure that each other person involved in the provision of the on-demand passenger transport service complies with such provisions or standards is the extent to which the accredited operator or relevant responsible person is able to control or influence compliance with those provisions or standards by the other person.

33H. Safety duty of affiliated operators and relevant responsible persons

- (1) It is a safety duty of an affiliated operator in relation to a booking service provider, and of a relevant responsible person in relation to an affiliated operator –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

s. 33H

- (a) to take reasonable care that the acts or omissions, of both the affiliated operator and the relevant responsible person, in the course of providing an on-demand passenger transport service, do not adversely affect the safety of other persons; and
 - (b) to comply, so far as the affiliated operator or relevant responsible person is reasonably able, with any reasonable instruction that is given by the booking service provider to ensure that –
 - (i) the provisions of this Act, or of any other law, that relate to the safe use of a vehicle; or
 - (ii) any safety, security and related standards approved by the Commission under section 16 –are complied with; and
 - (c) to co-operate with any reasonable policy or procedure, of the booking service provider, in connection with the safe and secure provision of the on-demand passenger service.
- (2) It is a safety duty of a person who is an affiliated operator, or a relevant responsible person in relation to an affiliated operator, to ensure that the operator or person's conduct does not directly or indirectly cause or encourage another person to fail to comply, in relation to an on-demand passenger transport service, with a safety duty imposed on that other person.

33I. Safety duty of driver

- (1) It is a safety duty of a driver of a vehicle used to provide an on-demand passenger transport service –
- (a) to take reasonable care for his or her own safety while providing the on-demand passenger transport service; and
 - (b) to take reasonable care that his or her own acts or omissions, while providing the on-demand passenger transport service, do not adversely affect the safety of other persons; and
 - (c) to comply, so far as the driver is reasonably able, with any reasonable instruction that is given by the accredited operator providing the on-demand passenger transport service to ensure that –
 - (i) the provisions of this Act, or of any other law, that relate to the safe use of a vehicle; or
 - (ii) any safety, security and related standards approved by the Commission under section 16 –are complied with; and

s. 33J

- (d) to co-operate with any reasonable policy or procedure, of the accredited operator providing the on-demand passenger transport service, in connection with the safe and secure provision of the on-demand passenger service.
- (2) It is a safety duty of a person who is a driver of a vehicle used to provide an on-demand passenger transport service to ensure that the person's conduct does not directly or indirectly cause or encourage another person to fail to comply, in relation to the on-demand passenger transport service, with a safety duty imposed on that other person.

33J. Safety duty of registered operator of vehicle

- (1) It is a safety duty of a registered operator of a vehicle used in the provision of an on-demand passenger transport service –
- (a) to take reasonable care that his or her own acts or omissions in relation to the vehicle do not adversely affect the safety of other persons; and
 - (b) to comply, so far as the registered operator is reasonably able, with any reasonable instruction that is given by the accredited operator of the on-demand passenger transport service to ensure that –

 - are complied with; and
 - (c) to co-operate with any reasonable policy or procedure, of the accredited operator providing the on-demand passenger transport service, in connection with the provision of the on-demand passenger service.
- (2) It is a safety duty of each person who is a registered operator of a vehicle used to provide an on-demand passenger transport service to ensure that the person's conduct does not directly or indirectly cause or encourage another person to fail to comply, in relation to the on-demand passenger transport service, with a safety duty imposed on that other person.

33K. Offences

- (1) A person on whom a safety duty is imposed must not, without reasonable excuse, engage in conduct, or fail to engage in conduct, in relation to the operation of on-demand passenger transport services, if –
 - (a) the conduct, or failure to engage in the conduct, exposes a person to a risk of death, serious injury or serious illness;

and

- (b) the person is reckless as to the risk that the conduct, or failure to engage in the conduct, poses of the death, serious injury or serious illness of a person.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) $3 000 000 for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) $300 000 for an individual or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both.
- (2) A person on whom a safety duty is imposed must not, by failing to comply with the duty, expose a person to a risk of death, serious injury or serious illness.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) $1 500 000 for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) $150 000 for an individual.
- (3) A person on whom a safety duty is imposed must not fail to comply with the duty.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) $500 000 for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) $50 000 for an individual.

Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 33L

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

33L. Relationship with certain safety legislation

- (1) If a provision of this Act and a provision of the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 deal with the same matter and it is possible to comply with both provisions, a person must comply with both provisions.
- (2) However, to the extent it is not possible to comply with both provisions, a person must comply with the provision of the Work Health and Safety Act 2012.
- (3) Evidence of a relevant contravention of this Act is admissible in any proceeding for an offence under the Work Health and Safety Act 2012.
- (4) If an act, omission or circumstance constitutes an offence under this Act and the Work Health and Safety Act 2012, the offender is not liable to be punished twice for the same offence.
- (5) Compliance with this Act or the regulations, or any requirement imposed under this Act or the regulations, is not, in itself, evidence that a person has complied with the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 or with a common law duty of care.

33M. Duty to advise Commission of accidents, incidents and notifiable findings

- (1) An accredited operator must notify the Commission of –

Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 2A – Safety Requirements

s. 33M

- (a) an accident or incident, of a type of accident or incident that is prescribed, in relation to the passenger transport service operated by the accredited operator; and
- (b) any steps taken to prevent the recurrence of such an accident or incident.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.
- (2) An accredited operator must notify the Commission of –
- (a) a finding, made by a person or body, that –
 - (i) relates to an accident or incident in relation to the passenger transport service that is operated by the accredited operator; and
 - (ii) is of a kind of finding that is prescribed; and
 - (b) if the finding relates to a failure to comply with –
 - (i) a provision of this Act, the regulations, or another Act, that relates to the safe use of motor vehicles; or

- (ii) a provision of any safety, security and related standards approved by the Commission under section 16 –

the steps taken to prevent a recurrence of the failure to comply with the provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.

PART 3 – REGULAR PASSENGER SERVICES

Division 1 – Authorisation

34. Regular passenger service must be authorised

A person must not operate a regular passenger service unless it is authorised by the Commission.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 200 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 100 penalty units for an individual.

35. What is a regular passenger service?

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a regular passenger service is a passenger service that –
 - (a) carries fare-paying passengers by means of a large passenger vehicle; and
 - (b) operates at regular or substantially regular intervals according to a publicised route and publicised timetable.
- (2) However, a passenger service that might otherwise fit the description in subsection (1) is taken not to be a regular passenger service for the purposes of this Act if –

Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 35

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (a) the passenger service forms the whole or part of a tourist activity that –
 - (i) is completed in a single day; and
 - (ii) terminates where it began; and
 - (iii) does not charge any passengers who embark or disembark en route lower fares than passengers who take the entire journey; and
 - (iv) charges, if the passenger service is just a part of the tourist activity, passenger fares that cannot be unbundled from any charges relating to that tourist activity; or

- (b) the passenger service forms the whole or part of a tourist activity that –
 - (i) extends over 2 or more consecutive days; and
 - (ii) does not charge any passengers who embark or disembark en route lower fares than passengers who take the entire journey; and
 - (iii) charges, if the passenger service is just a part of the tourist activity, passenger fares that cannot be unbundled from any charges relating to that tourist activity; or

- (c) the regulations so provide.
- (3) Any question or dispute concerning a passenger service's status in terms of subsection (1) or (2) is to be determined by the Commission, and the determination is binding.

- (4) In this section –

paying passengers, of a regular passenger service, includes –

- (a) passengers who pay an on-the-spot fare to use the service; and
- (b) passengers who purchase a pre-paid ticket or voucher that entitles them to use the service over a certain period or for multiple trips; and
- (c) passengers who make a pre-paid or post-paid booking to use the service; and
- (d) passengers (such as schoolchildren or the clients of a charitable body) who do not individually pay to use the service but for whom a collective contractual payment is made by a third party;

publicised means publicly advertised or readily ascertainable by members of the general public.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 36

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

36. Application for authorisation

An application for the authorisation of a regular passenger service is to be in accordance with section 66.

37. Determination of application for authorisation

- (1) After considering an application for the authorisation of a regular passenger service (“proposed service”), the Commission may approve or refuse to approve the application.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission –
 - (a) is to have regard to any matters prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) may have regard to any other matters it reasonably considers relevant in the circumstances.
- (3) Without limiting its generality, the matters that the Commission could have regard to under subsection (2)(b) include –
 - (a) the likely impact of the authorisation on the obligations of the State Crown under existing passenger service contracts; and
 - (b) whether any person is already operating the same or substantially the same service as the proposed service; and
 - (c) whether any person is already operating in the same or substantially the same passenger transport market as the applicant, as regards the proposed service; and

(d) whether any person has an impending commitment, under a service development plan, to begin operating the same or substantially the same service as the proposed service and, if so –

(i) whether the commitment is conditional on a government subsidy; and

(ii) the likely impact of the authorisation on the commitment.

(4) The Commission is not required to consider the application at all if it reasonably determines that the proposed service is not a regular passenger service.

38. Refusal of application for authorisation

(1) This section applies if the Commission refuses to approve an application for the authorisation of a regular passenger service.

(2) The Commission is to notify the applicant of –

(a) the refusal; and

(b) the reasons for the refusal; and

(c) the applicant's rights of review.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 39

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (3) Subsection (2) also applies if, pursuant to section 37(4), the Commission did not consider the application.

39. Approval of application for authorisation

- (1) This section applies if the Commission approves an application for the authorisation of a regular passenger service.
- (2) The Commission may place such conditions on the authorisation as it considers necessary or expedient having regard to the nature of the service.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commission may place on the authorisation conditions about any or all of the following:
- (a) the kinds of passenger vehicles that may be used;
 - (b) the route to be followed;
 - (c) the timetable, including the frequency of service;
 - (d) passenger stops;
 - (e) fares and fare waivers, rebates and discounts;
 - (f) a minimum period of operation.
- (4) In a case to which this section applies, the Commission is to notify the applicant of –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 40

- (a) the approval; and
- (b) if applicable, the conditions placed on the authorisation and the applicant's rights of review in respect of those conditions.

40. Nature of authorisation

- (1) Except as provided by this Part, an authorisation is ongoing subject to the payment of the continuity fees, if any, prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) If a service operator fails to pay a continuity fee for an authorisation by the day on which it falls due to be paid –
 - (a) the Commission, by notice, may demand that the service operator pay the continuity fee by a specified day; and
 - (b) the authorisation expires at the end of that specified day if, at that time, the continuity fee remains unpaid.
- (3) The authorisation of a regular passenger service runs with the service and is unaffected by a related business transaction.
- (4) A related business transaction does not, in itself, constitute grounds for cancelling or suspending the authorisation of a regular passenger service, but may constitute proper grounds to vary the conditions, if any, of the authorisation.
- (5) In this section –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 41

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

related business transaction, for a regular passenger service, includes –

- (a) the sale or transfer of the service to another person; and
- (b) a restructuring or rearrangement of the business arrangements of the service operator (not involving bankruptcy or external administration under the Corporations Act); and
- (c) a transformation of the legal personality of the service operator (whether by incorporation, the formation of a partnership or otherwise); and
- (d) a change of name or business name; and
- (e) the purchase, sale, leasing or mortgaging of any office, garage, workshop or other premises used by the service.

41. Contravention of conditions of authorisation

The service operator of an authorised regular passenger service must not –

- (a) contravene the conditions of the authorisation; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 42

- (b) cause or allow another person to contravene the conditions of the authorisation.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 100 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 50 penalty units for an individual.

42. Variation of conditions of authorisation, &c.

- (1) The Commission may, at any time –
 - (a) place an additional condition on an authorisation; or
 - (b) vary or revoke a condition of an authorisation.
- (2) The Commission may exercise the power under subsection (1) –
 - (a) on its initiative; or
 - (b) on the application of the service operator in accordance with section 66.
- (3) Unless the Commission reasonably apprehends that it needs to act speedily because of a threat to public safety, it is not to exercise its power under subsection (2)(a) without giving the service operator notice of its intention, together with reasons, and a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 43

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (4) If, in response to an application pursuant to subsection (2)(b), the Commission decides to take an action different from that sought by the applicant, it is to notify the applicant of the reasons for taking the different action.
- (5) In this section –
- action* includes omission.

43. Cancellation and suspension of authorisation

- (1) The Commission may cancel or suspend the authorisation of a regular passenger service if it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that –
- (a) the service is not being operated in accordance with the authorisation; or
 - (b) the service operator has contravened the conditions of the authorisation, if any, in a material way (or caused or allowed other persons to do so); or
 - (c) the service is being discontinued or has not operated for 3 months; or
 - (d) the service operator has failed to pay prescribed fees relevant to the authorisation after due demand has been made for their payment; or
 - (e) the service operator has failed to furnish the Commission with information it reasonably requires in relation to the authorisation after due demand has been made for that information; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 44

- (f) there are other compelling reasons for the cancellation or suspension.
- (2) Unless the Commission reasonably apprehends that it needs to act speedily because of a threat to public safety, it is not to exercise its power under subsection (1) without giving the service operator notice of its intention, together with reasons, and a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (3) If the Commission cancels or suspends an authorisation, it is to notify the service operator of the cancellation or suspension and, in a case to which subsection (1) applies, the service operator's rights of review.
- (4) Apart from the requirement to pay continuity fees, an authorisation is not in force while it is suspended.
- (5) The Commission may revoke the suspension of an authorisation at any time if it is satisfied that the suspension is no longer merited.

Division 2 – Operation of regular passenger services

44. Emergency operation, &c., of regular passenger services

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that –
- (a) a regular passenger service for which there is a pressing need is not being operated; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 44

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (b) a regular passenger service for which there is a continuing and pressing need is in imminent danger of being permanently, temporarily or intermittently withdrawn; or
 - (c) there is a pressing need for a regular passenger service to be operated as an interim measure, pending the execution of a suitable passenger service contract under section 46.
- (2) The Secretary may enter into one or more passenger service contracts to ensure the operation of the service.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Secretary may adopt whichever of the following procedures the Secretary considers more expedient in the circumstances:
 - (a) invite any bus operators to contract;
 - (b) call for expressions of interest from bus operators and select the most suitable expression of interest.
- (4) In contracting under this section, the Secretary is not obliged to –
 - (a) make determinations as to the sustainability of the relevant service; or
 - (b) consult any industry bodies or other persons.

45. Trial operation of regular passenger services

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that there might be a need for a regular passenger service.
- (2) The Secretary may enter into one or more passenger service contracts providing for the service to be operated on a trial basis.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the Secretary may adopt whichever of the following procedures the Secretary considers most expedient in the circumstances:
 - (a) invite any bus operators to contract;
 - (b) call for expressions of interest from bus operators and select the most suitable expression of interest;
 - (c) call for tenders from bus operators and select the most suitable tender.
- (4) In deciding on the most expedient procedure to adopt under subsection (3) the Secretary may have regard to the nature of the service, the urgency of the community need, the likely level of interest in conducting the trial, the capacity of the passenger transport industry and such other matters as the Secretary reasonably considers relevant to the conduct of the trial.
- (5) A passenger service contract under this section may confer on the service operator an exclusive right to operate the service during the term of the contract.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 46

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

46. Operation of unprovided regular passenger services

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that –
 - (a) there is a need for a regular passenger service; and
 - (b) the service is not being operated by any person; and
 - (c) there is no prospect of any person operating the service without a government subsidy; and
 - (d) there is no proper basis for intervention under section 44 in respect of the service.
- (2) The Secretary may enter into one or more passenger service contracts to ensure the operation of the service.
- (3) A passenger service contract under this section may confer on the service operator an exclusive right to operate the service during the term of the contract.

47. Variation of independently operated regular passenger services

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that an independently operated regular passenger service needs to be varied, whether as to the route, the frequency or reliability of service, passenger stops, the vehicles used or in other respects.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 47

- (2) The Secretary is to –
- (a) notify the service operator of the necessary operational variations; and
 - (b) allow the service operator a reasonable period, of not less than 60 days, in which to implement them.
- (3) If, by the end of the reasonable period under subsection (2)(b), the service operator has not implemented the necessary operational variations to the Secretary’s satisfaction, or entered into an arrangement with the Secretary to do so –
- (a) the Secretary may enter into one or more passenger service contracts to ensure that the service is operated to a standard that is consistent with the necessary operational variations; and
 - (b) in so contracting, the Secretary is not obliged to consult, or consider the impact on, the service operator.
- (4) In this section –
- independently operated regular passenger service means a regular passenger service being operated without a passenger service contract or any form of government subsidy.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 48

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

48. Variation of contractually operated regular passenger services

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that –
 - (a) the operation of a contractual regular passenger service needs to be varied, whether as to the route, the frequency or reliability of service, passenger stops, the vehicles used or in other material respects; and
 - (b) the necessary operational variations are, or might be, capable of being implemented under one or more existing passenger service contracts.
- (2) The Secretary may invite the relevant service operator or, if applicable, each relevant service operator to submit –
 - (a) an offer to operate the service to a standard that is consistent with the necessary operational variations; or
 - (b) an expression of interest in operating the service to a standard that is consistent with the necessary operational variations.
- (3) Where, pursuant to subsection (2), one or more offers or expressions of interest are submitted, the Secretary may –
 - (a) select the most satisfactory offer or expression of interest by reference to criteria developed by the Secretary for

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 49

the purpose, either generally or in the instant case; and

- (b) as the circumstances require, negotiate and execute a variation to an existing passenger service contract or enter into a new passenger service contract.
- (4) Where, pursuant to subsection (2), no offer or expression of interest is submitted, or no offer or expression of interest is satisfactory to the Secretary, the Secretary may proceed under section 46 or, if changing circumstances so require, section 44.
- (5) In this section –

contractual regular passenger service means a regular passenger service being operated under a passenger service contract or with any form of government subsidy; criteria means criteria that take into account the service development plans of relevant service operators.

49. Term of passenger service contracts, &c.

- (1) A passenger service contract under section 44 or 45 is to be for one non-renewable term not exceeding 24 months.
- (2) A passenger service contract under section 46 or 47 –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 50

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (a) is to be for a term not exceeding 10 years; and
 - (b) may, in the discretion of the parties, provide for the term of the contract to be split into an initial period of any length and one or more further periods of any length (provided those periods do not, in aggregate, exceed 10 years); and
 - (c) may, if the term of the contract is split as mentioned in paragraph (b), provide that the continuation of the contract from one period to the next is conditional on the operator meeting set performance standards.
- (3) A passenger service contract under this Division –
- (a) may set performance standards and provide for sanctions (which may include early termination) if these are not met; and
 - (b) is, in other respects, to be on such conditions as the Secretary considers necessary or expedient in the circumstances.

50. Qualification of Secretary’s contracting power

- (1) The Secretary’s power to enter into passenger service contracts under this Division is, in every case, subject to –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

s. 51

- (a) the availability of funding; and
 - (b) the service eligibility guidelines; and
 - (c) applicable Treasurer’s Instructions issued under section 51 of the Financial Management Act 2016.
- (2) Nothing in this Division is to be taken as obliging the Secretary to –
- (a) enter into any passenger service contract; or
 - (b) accept, in respect of any prospective passenger service contract, any offer, expression of interest or tender that the Secretary adjudges unsatisfactory.
- (3) In this section –
- contract includes a contractual variation.

51. Service eligibility guidelines

- (1) In exercising power under this Division, the Secretary –
- (a) is to have regard to service eligibility guidelines developed by the Secretary and approved by the Minister for the purpose; and
 - (b) may have regard to such other matters as the Secretary considers necessary or expedient.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 52

Part 3 – Regular Passenger Services

- (2) In developing the service eligibility guidelines, the Secretary is to liaise with such industry bodies, standards bodies, regulatory authorities and other interested parties as the Secretary considers necessary or expedient.
- (3) The Secretary is to publish the service eligibility guidelines as the Secretary considers necessary or expedient or as the Minister may from time to time direct.

Division 3 – Compensation

52. Compensation not payable

Except to extent that the conditions of a passenger service contract may otherwise provide, no compensation is payable to any person in respect of or as a consequence of –

- (a) any decision of the Commission under this Part to authorise, or not authorise, a regular passenger service; or
- (b) any decision of the Secretary under this Part to –
 - (i) enter, or not enter, into a passenger service contract; or
 - (ii) extend or renew, or not extend or renew, a passenger service contract; or
 - (iii) rescind a passenger service contract.

PART 4 – REVIEW OF DECISIONS

53. Interpretation of Part

In this Part –

administrative decision means –

- (a) a decision of the Commission under Part 2 or Division 1 of Part 3; or
- (b) a decision that the regulations declare to be an administrative decision;

application for internal review means an application under section 54.

54. Right of internal review

A person who is aggrieved by an administrative decision made in respect of that person may apply to the Commission for an internal review of the decision.

55. Nature of internal review

An internal review under this Part is to be one in which the decision under review is remade entirely afresh and, in so doing, the reviewer is entitled, in the reviewer's discretion, to have regard to any matters that were not known, not available or not taken into account in the making of the decision under review.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 56

Part 4 – Review of Decisions

56. Application for internal review

- (1) An application for internal review is to –
 - (a) be in accordance with section 66; and
 - (b) be lodged with the Commission within 30 days after the day on which the Commission notifies the applicant of the relevant administrative decision.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Commission may consider an application for internal review that is defective in form or lodged out of time if it is satisfied in the circumstances of a particular case that –
 - (a) it would be fair to do so; and
 - (b) the review would not, on account of practical developments or the passage of time, be futile.

57. Effect of application for internal review

An application for the internal review of an administrative decision does not set aside or stay the operation of the decision.

58. Consideration of application for internal review

- (1) The Commission must consider each application for internal review that is made to it and, in so doing –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 4 – Review of Decisions

s. 58

- (a) is to observe the rules of natural justice; and
 - (b) is to ensure that any employee of the Commission engaged in the review process –
 - (i) was not involved in the making of the administrative decision under review; and
 - (ii) is not under the direct control of a person who was involved in the making of the administrative decision under review; and
 - (c) may engage an independent mediator to assist in the review process; and
 - (d) may, if the administrative decision under review relates to matters that are of general importance to a sector of the passenger transport industry or hire and drive passenger service industry and it is possible to do so without prejudice to the applicant, consult with any representatives of that industry sector.
- (2) If an application for internal review is found to be frivolous or vexatious, or factually mistaken in a material way, the Commission is to notify the applicant of that finding immediately but is not required to take any further action on the application.
- (3) Once the Commission has completed its internal review, it is to make a fresh decision (“review”

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 58

Part 4 – Review of Decisions

determination”) in place of the decision under review.

- (4) A review determination is to be made within 21 days after the day on which the relevant application for internal review is lodged.
- (5) The 21-day period for making a review determination may, on the Commission giving notice to the applicant before the end of that period, be extended, once, by a period not exceeding 28 days.
- (6) If a review determination is not made within the period provided by subsection (4) or, if applicable, the extended period provided by subsection (5), the Commission is taken to have made a review determination to affirm the administrative decision under review.
- (7) The Commission is to notify an applicant of a review determination as soon as practicable after it has been made or, in a case to which subsection (6) applies, taken to have been made.
- (8) A notice under subsection (2) or (7) is to –
 - (a) give reasons for the finding or determination; and
 - (b) if applicable, inform the applicant of the applicant’s right to have the decision externally reviewed and the procedure for applying for external review.

Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 4 – Review of Decisions

s. 59

59. External review of decisions

- (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision made in respect of that person under this Act may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of that decision.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a person's entitlement under subsection (1) may be exercised regardless of whether the person has made an application for internal review in respect of the decision.
- (3) However, if a person has made an application for internal review in respect of the decision, the person's entitlement under subsection (1) is not exercisable until after the internal review is completed.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a decision if another provision of this Act specifies that it is not a reviewable decision for the purposes of that subsection.

- (2) The Commission, by notice to an affiliated operator or a booking service provider in relation to which there is an affiliated operator, may require the affiliated operator or booking service provider to keep records of the kind, and in the manner, that is specified in the notice.
- (3) An affiliated operator or booking service provider to which a notice is given under subsection (2) must comply with the requirements specified in the notice.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 50 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
 - (b) 25 penalty units for an individual.
- (4) The Commission may –
- (a) provide to a person who is an affiliated operator in relation to a booking service provider –
 - (i) any information provided to the Commission, in accordance with a requirement specified in a notice given under subsection (2), by the booking service provider; or
 - (ii) any other information available to the Commission in relation to the booking service provider; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 61

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

- (b) provide to a booking service provider –
 - (i) any information provided to the Commission, in accordance with a requirement specified in a notice given under subsection (2), by an affiliated operator in relation to the booking service provider; or
 - (ii) any other information available to the Commission in relation to an affiliated operator in relation to the booking provider.

61. Administration and enforcement

This Act is to be administered by the same persons and in the same manner as section 9 of the Traffic Act 1925 provides for that Act to be administered, and that section of that Act applies to the administration of this Act in all respects as if a reference in that section to the Traffic Act 1925 were a reference to this Act.

61A. Improvement notices

- (1) If the Commission is of the opinion that a person has contravened, is contravening, or is likely to contravene, a provision of this Act or the regulations, the Commission may –
 - (a) if the person is not an accredited operator – serve on the person an

- improvement notice in relation to the person; or
- (b) if the person is an accredited operator and there is not a relevant responsible person in relation to the accredited operator – serve on the accredited operator an improvement notice in relation to the person; or
 - (c) if the person is an accredited operator and there is a relevant responsible person in relation to the accredited operator – serve on the relevant responsible person an improvement notice in relation to the person who is an accredited operator.
- (2) An improvement notice in relation to a person must specify –
- (a) that the Commission is of the opinion that the person has contravened, is contravening, or is likely to contravene, a provision of this Act or the regulations; and
 - (b) the contravention, or likely contravention, to which the notice relates and the provision to which the contravention, or likely contravention, relates; and
 - (c) that the person on whom the improvement notice is served is required to remedy, before a date specified in the notice, the contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 61A

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

occasioning the contravention or likely contravention; and

- (d) the reason why the Commission is of the opinion referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - (e) information about the right of the person on whom it is served to have the decision to serve the notice reviewed; and
 - (f) that the notice is issued under this section.
- (3) An improvement notice may, but is not required to, specify the method by which the alleged contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities occasioning the alleged contravention or likely contravention, are to be remedied.
- (4) The date specified, in accordance with subsection (2)(c), in an improvement notice, is to be a date that the Commission considers is reasonable having regard to the severity of any relevant risks and the nature of the contravention or likely contravention.
- (5) A person on whom an improvement notice is served under this section must comply with the notice.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 100 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

s. 61A

- (b) 50 penalty units for an individual.
- (6) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (5) committed in relation to an improvement notice if the person charged establishes –
- (a) that the person had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the improvement notice; or
 - (b) the alleged contravention or likely contravention, or the matters or activities occasioning the alleged contravention or likely contravention, that were specified in the notice were remedied within the period specified in the notice, but by a different method from the method specified in the notice.
- (7) The Commission may, by notice served on a person, amend or cancel an improvement notice served on a person by the Commission.
- (8) An amendment of an improvement notice –
- (a) must not amend the improvement notice by referring to a contravention of a different provision from that already specified in the improvement notice; and
 - (b) must state the reason why the amendment is being made; and
 - (c) must include information about the right of the person on whom it is served to have the decision to serve the amendment reviewed.

61B. Infringement notices

(1) In this section –

infringement offence means an offence against this Act or the regulations that is prescribed by the regulations to be an infringement offence.

(2) The Commission or an authorised officer may issue and serve an infringement notice on a person if the Commission, or an authorised officer, respectively, reasonably believes that the person has committed an infringement offence.

(3) An infringement notice may not be served on an individual who has not attained the age of 16 years.

(4) An infringement notice –

(a) is to be in accordance with section 14 of the Monetary Penalties Enforcement Act
2005; and

(b) is not to relate to more than 4 offences.

(5) The regulations –

(a) may prescribe the penalty applicable to each infringement offence that is payable under an infringement notice; and

- (b) may prescribe different penalties for bodies corporate and individuals.

61C. Formal warnings

- (1) The Commission may, instead of taking proceedings against a person for a contravention of a provision of this Act, give a formal warning to the person if the Commission believes that –
 - (a) the person had taken reasonable steps to prevent the contravention and was unaware of the contravention; and
 - (b) it is appropriate for the contravention to be dealt with by way of a formal warning under this section.
- (2) A formal warning must be in writing.
- (3) A formal warning given to a person may be withdrawn by the Commission by serving on the person a notice of withdrawal within 21 days after the formal warning was given to the person.
- (4) If a formal warning in relation to a contravention has been given to a person, proceedings may not be taken by the Commission in relation to the contravention to which the warning relates unless and until the formal warning has been withdrawn.
- (5) In this section –
 - proceedings* includes action by way of an infringement notice.

61D. Powers of police officers and authorised officers

- (1) A police officer or an authorised officer may require a driver of a vehicle, which the police officer or authorised officer believes is being used to provide a passenger transport service, to do any one or more of the following:
 - (a) stop the vehicle;
 - (b) park the vehicle;
 - (c) permit the officer to inspect the vehicle;
 - (d) provide proof that the person holds a driver licence, or any other document, authorising the person to perform the service of the kind that the person is performing;
 - (e) operate in accordance with the instructions of the officer, or permit the officer to operate, any mobile phone, or electronic equipment, that is in the vehicle or in the possession of the person;
 - (f) answer questions related to compliance with this Act.
- (2) A person to whom a requirement is given under subsection (1) must not fail to comply with the requirement.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 25 penalty units.

- (3) A police officer, an authorised officer, the Commission or a person authorised under

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

s. 61D

subsection (7) may enter and remain on premises –

- (a) to inspect any vehicles at the premises; and
 - (b) to inspect any documents issued by the Commission under this Act or any documents or records required to be kept at the premises for the purposes of this Act or that may be relevant to the enforcement of this Act; and
 - (c) to inspect any mobile phone or electronic device kept at the premises that the police officer, authorised officer, the Commission or the person authorised under subsection (7) believes to contain information, documents or records relevant to the enforcement of this Act; and
 - (d) to inspect a business, related to the provision of passenger transport services, conducted at the premises.
- (4) In the course of carrying out an inspection under subsection (3), the police officer, authorised officer, Commission or person authorised under subsection (7) may –
- (a) direct a person to answer reasonable questions relating to the inspection; and
 - (b) make copies of, or take extracts from, documents or records referred to in subsection (3)(b) or any information,

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 61D

documents or records contained on a mobile phone or electronic device referred to in subsection (3)(c).

- (5) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a direction under subsection (4) of a police officer, an authorised officer, the Commission or a person authorised under subsection (7).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a first offence – a fine not exceeding 25 penalty units; and
 - (b) a second or subsequent offence – a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.
- (6) A power of entry conferred by this section may only be exercised at a reasonable time and, if the premises are residential premises, if –
- (a) the occupier consents; or
 - (b) the entry is authorised by a warrant under the Search Warrants Act 1997.
- (7) The Commission may, by instrument in writing, authorise a person specified in the instrument, or members of a class of persons specified in the instrument, to enter all premises for the purposes of this section.

61E. Hindering

A person must not hinder or obstruct a police officer, an authorised officer, the Commission, or a person authorised under section 61D(7), who is performing or exercising a function or power under this Act.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

- (a) 100 penalty units for a body corporate or body politic; or
- (b) 50 penalty units for an individual.

62. Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence against this Act, each person concerned in the management of the body corporate is taken to have also committed the offence and may be convicted of the offence unless the person establishes that –
 - (a) the act or omission constituting the offence took place without the person's knowledge or consent; or
 - (b) the person used all due diligence to prevent that act or omission by the body corporate.
- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) may be convicted of an offence against this Act whether or not the body corporate is charged with or convicted of the offence.

63. False or misleading information

A person must not, in giving any information under this Act –

- (a) make a statement knowing it to be false or misleading; or
- (b) omit any matter from a statement knowing that, without that matter, the statement is false or misleading.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.

63A. Provision or omission of information with intention to mislead

- (1) A person (the information provider) must not provide to a person under this Act information –
 - (a) that is prepared by another person; and
 - (b) that the information provider knows to contain statements that are false or misleading.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate or body politic –
 - (i) for a first offence – a fine not exceeding 200 penalty units; and

 - (ii) for a second offence – a fine not exceeding 80 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

64. Exemptions

- (1) The Commission, by instrument in writing, may exempt from the operation of a relevant provision of this Act –
 - (a) a person or class of persons; or
 - (b) a motor vehicle or class of motor vehicles; or
 - (c) a passenger service or class of passenger services.
- (2) Without limiting its generality, under subsection (1) –

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

s. 64

- (a) a person operating a passenger transport service or hire and drive passenger service may be exempted from the requirement to be accredited in respect of that service; or
 - (b) a person operating a regular passenger service may be exempted from the requirement to have the service authorised.
- (3) An exemption may be granted only if the Commission is satisfied that –
- (a) compliance with the relevant provision of this Act in relation to the exempted person, motor vehicle or passenger service (or class thereof) is unnecessary, impracticable or unreasonable; and
 - (b) the exemption will not compromise public safety.
- (4) An exemption may be granted unconditionally or on such conditions as the Commission determines.
- (5) The Commission, by instrument in writing, may vary or revoke an exemption.
- (6) A person who has the benefit of an exemption, either as an individual or a member of a class of persons, must comply with the conditions of the exemption, if any.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 64

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

- (7) An exemption remains in force, subject to any notified variation, until –
- (a) the day specified in the instrument of exemption as the day on which it expires; or
 - (b) the Commission notifies the person or persons having the benefit of the exemption that it has been revoked.
- (8) The granting of an exemption or its revocation may be publicly notified if the exemption is for a class of persons, class of motor vehicles or class of passenger services and such public notification is to be taken to be as valid and effectual as if given to the persons concerned individually.
- (9) In this section –

publicly notified means notified in the Gazette or in 2 or more daily newspapers in general circulation in Tasmania, or by both of those means; relevant provision, of this Act, means –

- (a) Part 2 or any Division or section thereof; and
- (b) Division 1 of Part 3 or any section thereof.

65. Service of notices

A notice or other document is effectively served or lodged under this Act if –

- (a) in the case of a natural person, it is –
 - (i) given to the person; or
 - (ii) left at, or sent by post to, the person’s postal or residential address or place or address of business or employment last known to the server of the notice or other document; or
 - (iii) faxed to the person’s fax number; or
 - (iv) emailed to the person’s email address; and
- (b) in the case of any other person, it is –
 - (i) left at, or sent by post to, the person’s principal or registered office or principal place of business; or
 - (ii) faxed to the person’s fax number; or
 - (iii) emailed to the person’s email address.

66. Application procedure

- (1) An application to the Commission in respect of any matter under this Act is to –
 - (a) be in a form provided or approved by the Commission; and
 - (b) be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any; and
 - (c) be supported by such evidence or information as the Commission requires, either at the time of lodgement or subsequently; and
 - (d) comply with such additional requirements, as relate, under the relevant section of this Act, to the specific application.
- (2) The Commission is not obliged to consider or determine an application in respect of any matter under this Act if it –
 - (a) fails to comply with subsection (1) in a material way; or
 - (b) seeks the same or substantially the same outcome as a rejected application made by the same applicant within the preceding 90 days and, on its face, discloses nothing new.
- (3) The Commission may waive an application fee, wholly or in part, if the Commission considers that it would be unreasonable, unfair or cause hardship to impose the fee or full fee in the circumstances.

67. Status and promulgation of administrative determinations, &c.

- (1) This section applies to determinations under section 7(2), section 11(4), section 28(3) and section 35(3) (“administrative determinations”).
- (2) Administrative determinations –
 - (a) are not statutory rules; and
 - (b) are not subordinate legislation for the purposes of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1992.
- (3) The Commission may –
 - (a) publish administrative determinations as it considers necessary or expedient; and
 - (b) by instrument in writing, rescind or revise any administrative determinations if it reasonably considers that the rescission or revision is justified by changed circumstance.

68. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 68

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may –
- (a) require the payment of fees in respect of any matter under or relating to this Act and prescribe those fees; and
 - (b) provide for the waiver, refund or rebate of any prescribed fees; and
 - (c) provide for the safety inspection of motor vehicles used in connection with accreditations or authorisations including, without limiting this, mandatory safety inspection programs; and
 - (d) provide for safety, security and related audits of any services; and
 - (e) provide for the issue and use of distinctive items of identification (such as certificates, labels and plates) for motor vehicles, services or persons in relation to accreditations and authorisations; and
 - (f) provide for the conduct, obligations and rights of service operators, responsible persons and personnel (including drivers); and
 - (g) provide for the conduct, obligations and rights of service passengers; and
 - (h) prescribe standards and requirements, additional to those prescribed by or under

- the Traffic Act 1925 or Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999, for service motor vehicles (including their equipment, fittings and amenities); and
- (i) provide for the regulation and control of service motor vehicles generally; and
 - (j) provide for the regulation and control of services generally; and
 - (k) provide for the keeping, production and inspection of records in respect of any matter under this Act; and
 - (l) provide for the provision of returns in respect of any matter under this Act.
- (3) The regulations may be made so as to apply differently according to matters, limitations or restrictions, whether as to time, circumstance or otherwise, specified in the regulations.
- (4) The regulations may –
- (a) confer powers on the Minister, Commission or Secretary; and
 - (b) authorise any matter to be from time to time determined, applied, approved or regulated by the Minister, Commission or Secretary.
- (5) The regulations may –
- (a) provide that a contravention of any of the regulations is an offence; and

Passenger Transport Services Act 2011
Act No. 59 of 2011

s. 69

Part 5 – Miscellaneous

- (b) in respect of such an offence, provide for the imposition of a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.
- (6) The regulations may contain notes and examples and stipulate whether such notes and examples, or any of them, form part of the law (which stipulation is to be taken to be decisive as to their status in that regard).
- (7) The regulations may –
 - (a) provide for savings or transitional matters necessary or expedient for bringing this Act into operation; and
 - (b) provide for any of those savings or transitional matters to take effect on the day proclaimed under section 2(2) or on a later day specified in the regulations, whether the day so specified is before, on or after the day on which the regulations are made.

69. Administration of Act

Until provision is made in relation to this Act by order under section 4 of the Administrative Arrangements Act 1990 –

- (a) the administration of this Act is assigned to the Minister for Sustainable Transport; and
