Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

r. 10

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

- (5) The person issuing the declaration of life extinct is to, as soon as practicable –
- (a) hand the original copy of the declaration to the person who apparently has custody of the human remains; and
 - (b) forward the duplicate copy of the declaration to the medical practitioner named in the declaration as the medical practitioner who is to issue a medical certificate; and
 - (c) forward the triplicate copy of the declaration to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages.
- (6) A person must not complete any part of a declaration of life extinct if that person –
- (a) knows that he or she is related to the deceased person; or
 - (b) has, in the previous 5 years, had a fiduciary relationship with the deceased person; or
 - (c) has any pecuniary interest in the estate of the deceased person.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

Division 4 – Identification of human remains

11. Form of identification tag

An identification tag is to be in a form approved by the Director of Local Government.

12. Information to be recorded on identification tag

A medical practitioner or responsible person is to ensure that the following information is written on an identification tag, if the identity of the deceased person is known to the medical practitioner or responsible person, or the medical practitioner or responsible person is otherwise able to confirm the identity of the deceased person:

- (a) the full name of the deceased person;
- (b) the location of the deceased person at the time the information referred to in paragraph (a) is being written on the identification tag.

13. Attachment of identification tag

A person is to securely attach an identification tag to –

- (a) the left arm of the deceased person; or
- (b) if compliance with paragraph (a) is not practicable, the right arm of the deceased person; or

Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

r. 16

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

16. Movement of human remains within place or premises

A person must not move human remains within any place or premises before a medical certificate or a declaration of life extinct has been issued in respect of those human remains, unless –

- (a) the human remains are causing a risk to public health or public safety; or
- (b) the moving is to preserve the security or the dignity of the human remains.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

17. Transportation of human remains to regulated business

- (1) If a manager is informed that human remains are ready to be transported to a regulated business, the manager is to arrange that transportation –
 - (a) within 8 hours after receiving that information; or
 - (b) as soon as practicable.
- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply if human remains are being stored in accordance with regulation 20.

18. Transportation of human remains for cremation or interment

- (1) A person must not transport human remains to any place or premises to prepare those remains for cremation or interment unless a medical certificate or a declaration of life extinct has been issued in accordance with these regulations.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply if the death of a person is, or may be, the subject of an investigation under Part 5 of the Coroners Act 1995.

19. Vehicle used for transportation of human remains

- (1) A person who is transporting human remains to any place or premises must place the human remains in a coffin, container, or tray, that is capable of preventing the escape of any bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) A manager must ensure that any vehicle used to transport human remains is of a standard sufficient to maintain the dignity of the human remains and has either –
- (a) a compartment in which the coffin, container or tray is placed which –
- (i) is physically separate from the driving and passenger section of the vehicle; and

r. 20

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

- (ii) has sufficient facilities for securing the coffin, container or tray; and
 - (iii) is capable of being easily cleaned and disinfected; or
- (b) a coffin, container, or tray, in which the human remains are placed –
- (i) so as to not allow any bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials to escape into the vehicle; and
 - (ii) that is secured as far as practicable within that vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (3) A manager must ensure that any vehicle used to transport human remains is kept in a clean and disinfected state.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

20. Storage of human remains

- (1) If human remains are to be placed into storage, the person responsible for that storage must first place the human remains in a coffin, container, or tray, capable of –
- (a) ensuring that the escape of bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials is prevented or confined to that coffin, container or tray; and

Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

- (b) protecting any person who comes into contact with the coffin, container or tray from bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A person responsible for the storage of human remains must ensure that the human remains, or the storage facility in which the human remains are placed, is brought to, and maintained at, a temperature not exceeding 5°C, as soon as practicable after the custody of the human remains becomes that person's responsibility.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

Division 6 – Cleaning and disinfection of premises and vehicles

21. Manager to ensure premises, &c., are cleaned and disinfected

- (1) A manager must ensure that any place, premises, or equipment, contaminated with bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials is cleaned and disinfected as soon as practicable after the contamination occurs.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A manager must ensure that appropriate cleaning equipment and materials are –
- (a) readily available to clean and disinfect any spillage of bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials; and

r. 22

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

- (b) stored in a place made known to all employees.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

22. Manager to ensure protective clothing and cleaning equipment are made available in vehicles

A manager must ensure that the following are available in any vehicle used to transport human remains:

- (a) suitable quantities of protective clothing for employees;
- (b) adequate materials and equipment to clean and disinfect any spillage of bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

23. Manager to provide protective clothing to employees

A manager must ensure that all employees who may come into contact with human remains or who may work in close proximity to human remains are provided with suitable protective clothing to protect them from contamination by bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

24. Manager to provide information on infection hazards to employees

A manager must ensure that all employees are provided with –

- (a) information about all infection hazards that are reasonably foreseeable as arising from, or incidental to, the regulated business; and
- (b) full written details of procedures describing safe work practices.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Division 7 – Construction of coffins

25. Coffin construction

- (1) A person arranging for the interment or cremation of human remains must ensure that the coffin used for the interment or cremation is –
 - (a) impervious, so as to prevent the escape of bodily discharges, contaminants or infectious materials; and
 - (b) of sufficiently robust construction to enable the coffin and the human remains to be disposed of in accordance with the Act.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

r. 26

Part 2 – Handling of Human Remains

- (2) A manager may refuse to accept a coffin for cremation if, in his or her opinion, it is made from, or contains, any material which is likely to –
- (a) damage any equipment in the crematorium; or
 - (b) be injurious to public health or public safety.

26. Nameplate to be attached to coffin

A person who places human remains in a coffin to be used for an interment or cremation must ensure that the coffin bears an identifying nameplate, inscription, or marking, stating –

- (a) the family name; and
- (b) at least one given name of the deceased person – that correspond with the names shown on the identification tag for those human remains.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

PART 3 – CEMETERIES

Division 1 – Exclusive right of burial

27. Certificate of exclusive right of burial

- (1) Within 30 days after granting an exclusive right of burial under section 41 of the Act, the cemetery manager must issue, in accordance with subregulation (2), a certificate of exclusive right of burial to the holder of the right.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) A certificate of exclusive right of burial is to –
- (a) identify the holder of the exclusive right of burial; and
 - (b) identify the person, persons, or class of persons, entitled to be buried under that exclusive right of burial; and
 - (c) either –

Part 4 – Cremation

r. 58

- (a) has examined the deceased person to whom the cremation permit application relates; and
- (b) is satisfied as to the accuracy of the matters referred to in subregulation (2).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (4) If a medical practitioner refuses, in accordance with subregulation (3), to grant an application for a cremation permit, the medical practitioner must –
 - (a) report the death of the person, to whom the application for the cremation permit relates, to a coroner or a police officer in accordance with section 19 of the Coroners Act 1995; and
 - (b) notify the refusal to the senior next of kin referred to in the application for the cremation permit.
- (5) If a medical practitioner grants an application for a cremation permit in accordance with subregulation (2), the medical practitioner is to issue a cremation permit to the senior next of kin referred to in the application.
- (6) A cremation permit is to be in a form approved by the Director of Local Government.

Division 3 – Duties of crematorium managers and managers of regulated businesses

59. Approval of equipment

- (1) A crematorium manager must not operate a crematorium, or permit a crematorium to be operated, unless the crematorium equipment complies with any guidelines issued by the Director of Local Government under subregulation (2).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) The Director of Local Government may, by notice in the Gazette, issue guidelines in respect of equipment used in crematoriums.
- (3) A notice under subregulation (2) is not a statutory rule for the purposes of the Rules Publication Act 1953.

60. Identification of deceased persons

- (1) A crematorium manager must not cremate a deceased person unless the crematorium manager is satisfied, in accordance with subregulation (2), that the deceased person is correctly identified.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) For subregulation (1), a crematorium manager may be satisfied as to the correct identity of a deceased person if –

Burial and Cremation Regulations 2025
Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

Part 4 – Cremation

r. 61

- (a) there is no discrepancy between the identity of the deceased person –
 - (i) as shown on the cremation permit or coroner’s certificate issued in respect of the deceased person; and
 - (ii) as shown on the identifying nameplate, inscription or marking attached to the outside of the coffin containing the deceased person; and
 - (b) the coffin containing the deceased person has come from the premises of a regulated business; and
 - (c) the coffin containing the deceased person does not appear to have been opened after leaving the premises of a regulated business.
- (3) A crematorium manager must refuse to accept a deceased person for cremation if the documentation required under these regulations is incomplete or does not comply with these regulations.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

61. Security of deceased persons

- (1) A crematorium manager must ensure that no person opens a coffin containing a deceased person for cremation that has been received by the manager for cremation, unless the opening of the coffin is authorised by –

- (a) the crematorium manager; or
 - (b) the medical practitioner who issued the cremation permit in respect of the deceased person; or
 - (c) a person authorised to do so in accordance with an order of a coroner.
- (2) A crematorium manager may require a coffin, authorised to be opened under subregulation (1), to be –
- (a) removed from the crematorium for the purpose of the authorised opening; or
 - (b) taken to the premises of a regulated business for the purpose of the authorised opening.
- (3) A crematorium manager must ensure that any coffin containing a deceased person for cremation is –
- (a) stored in a secure place; and
 - (b) appropriately identified at all times.

62. Cremated remains to be kept separately

A crematorium manager is to ensure that the cremated remains of a deceased person, recovered from the cremator, are kept separately from the cremated remains of other deceased persons recovered from the cremator.

63. Storage of cremated remains

Until the cremated remains of a deceased person are dealt with under regulation 64(1) or (3), a crematorium manager must ensure that the cremated remains –

- (a) are stored in an appropriate container; and
- (b) are clearly identified; and
- (c) are stored in a secure place.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

64. Retention and disposal of cremated remains

- (1) A crematorium manager, or manager of a regulated business, who has custody of the cremated remains of a deceased person must deal with the cremated remains in accordance with any reasonable instructions given to the manager by the senior next of kin of the deceased person.
- (2) A crematorium manager or manager of a regulated business must retain the cremated remains of a deceased person if –
 - (a) no instructions, as to the collection or disposal of the cremated remains, are

- given to the manager by the senior next of kin of the deceased person; or
- (b) the instructions, as to the collection or disposal of the cremated remains, given to the manager by the senior next of kin of the deceased person are not reasonable; or
 - (c) the cremated remains are not collected by the senior next of kin of the deceased person.
- (3) A crematorium manager or manager of a regulated business may dispose of the cremated remains of a deceased person if –
- (a) the crematorium manager or manager of a regulated business has, despite all reasonable efforts, been unable to contact the senior next of kin of the deceased person; and
 - (b) a period of 2 years has elapsed from the date of the cremation of the deceased person.

65. Prescribed records

- (1) For section 76(2) of the Act, the prescribed records that a crematorium manager must keep for all cremations in a crematorium and for all monuments maintained on the premises are –

- (a) in the case of a cremation on the authority of a cremation permit, the cremation permit; and
 - (b) in the case of a cremation on the authority of a coroner's certificate, the coroner's certificate; and
 - (c) in all cases –
 - (i) the full name and address of the person who applied for the cremation to be conducted; and
 - (ii) the date of the cremation; and
 - (iii) the information recorded in the register in accordance with subregulation (2).
- (2) A crematorium manager must ensure that –
- (a) each cremation is recorded in a register as soon as practicable after the cremation has taken place; and
 - (b) the disposal or interment of cremated remains is recorded in a register as soon as practicable after the cremated remains have been interred or otherwise disposed of.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Part 5 – Powers of Authorised Officers to Collect Evidence

PART 5 – POWERS OF AUTHORISED OFFICERS TO COLLECT EVIDENCE

66. Collection of evidence

- (1) For determining if the Act (including these regulations) has been, or is being, contravened, an authorised officer who enters any crematorium, cemetery, place or premises, referred to in section 16(1) of the Act, may do any or all of the following:
- (a) search the crematorium, cemetery, place or premises;
 - (b) require any person to produce any records, documents or other things for inspection by the authorised officer;
 - (c) take extracts from, or make copies of, those records or documents;
 - (d) take samples of those things for analysis;
 - (e) take into the crematorium, cemetery, place or premises, referred to in section 16(1) of the Act, any equipment or material reasonably necessary for the purpose of the authorised officer exercising a power under the Act or these regulations;
 - (f) require any person to give the authorised officer any reasonable assistance that the authorised officer may require.

Burial and Cremation Regulations 2025
Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

- (2) If an authorised officer has a reasonable belief that the Act, including these regulations, has been, or is being, contravened, the authorised officer may seize any records, documents or other things relevant to the contravention.
- (3) An authorised officer in the exercise or performance of a power or function under the Act or these regulations, or another person assisting an authorised officer under these regulations, must not unnecessarily impede or obstruct the work carried out in a crematorium, cemetery, place or premises, referred to in section 16(1) of the Act.

67. Obstruction of authorised officers

- (1) A person must not impede or obstruct an authorised officer in the exercise or performance of a power or function under the Act or these regulations or another person assisting an authorised officer under these regulations.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not –
 - (a) fail to comply with a lawful request or requirement of an authorised officer or another person assisting an authorised officer; or
 - (b) fail to produce to an authorised officer, or another person assisting an authorised officer, any record, document or other thing in the person's possession or under the person's control, when the person has been required by the authorised officer or other person to produce it under these regulations; or

- (c) fail to give any reasonable assistance to an authorised officer, or another person assisting an authorised officer, when required to do so by the authorised officer.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

68. False or misleading statements

A person must not, in giving any information under these regulations –

- (a) make a statement knowing it to be false or misleading; or
- (b) omit any matter from a statement, knowing that without that matter the statement is false or misleading; or
- (c) provide a document that the person knows to be false or misleading without informing the person to whom the document is provided of that knowledge.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

Statutory Rules 2025, No. 16

69. Retention of records, &c., by authorised officers

- (1) An authorised officer may retain a record, document or other thing seized under these regulations –
 - (a) for the purpose of investigating if the Act or these regulations have been, or are being, contravened and, if required, for the purposes of any subsequent prosecution; or
 - (b) for the purpose of an investigation under Part 5 of the Coroners Act 1995.
- (2) A person otherwise entitled to possession of a record or document retained by an authorised officer under these regulations is entitled to be provided at his or her request with a copy of that record, or document, certified by the authorised officer to be a true copy.
- (3) A certified copy of a record or document referred to in subregulation (2) is to be received in all courts and elsewhere as if it were the original record or document.

Part 6 – Miscellaneous

PART 6 – MISCELLANEOUS

70. Prescribed person may enter cemeteries and crematoria

- (1) The following persons may enter, at any reasonable time, a cemetery or crematorium, for the purpose of determining if the Act (including these regulations) has been, or is being, complied with:
 - (a) the Director of Local Government;
 - (b) an authorised officer.
- (2) In addition to subregulation (1), the regulator may enter a cemetery, at any time, for the purpose of determining if the Act (including these regulations) has been, or is being, complied with.
- (3) A person who enters a cemetery or crematorium under this regulation, for the purpose of determining if the Act (including these regulations) has been, or is being, complied with, may do any one or more of the following measures:
 - (a) search the crematorium or cemetery;
 - (b) require a person to produce any records, documents or other things for inspection;
 - (c) take extracts from, or make copies of, those records or documents;

- (d) take into the crematorium or cemetery any equipment or material reasonably necessary for the purpose of undertaking a measure specified in this regulation;
- (e) require a person to give the person entering the cemetery or crematorium under this regulation any assistance that the person so entering requires;
- (f) if the person has a reasonable belief that the Act (including these regulations) has been, or is being, contravened, seize any records, documents, samples or other things relevant to the contravention.

71. Medical practitioner fees

A medical practitioner who attends a place of death of a deceased person in accordance with these regulations is entitled to claim from the estate of the deceased person a fee for that attendance as if a medical certificate or a declaration of life extinct had not been issued in respect of that deceased person.

72. Fees generally

For the purposes of the Act, the fees specified in Schedule 1 are prescribed for the matters to which they respectively relate.

73. Infringement offences

For the purposes of section 94 of the Act –
