Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (6) An Australian legal practitioner is not eligible to be appointed under this section unless the practitioner holds an unrestricted practising certificate.
- (7) The appointment under this section of a person to perform or exercise functions or powers of a legal practitioner director does not, for any other purpose, impose or confer on the person any of the other functions or powers of a director of the incorporated legal practice.
- (8) An incorporated legal practice does not contravene subsection (1) during any period during which a person holds an appointment under this section in relation to the practice.
- (9) A reference in this section to a legal practitioner director does not include a reference to a person who is not validly appointed as a director, but this subsection does not affect the meaning of the expression “legal practitioner director” in other provisions of this Act.

121. Obligations and privileges of practitioners who are officers or employees

- (1) An Australian legal practitioner who provides legal services on behalf of an incorporated legal practice in the capacity of an officer or employee of the practice –

- (2) Legal profession rules may be made for or with respect to additional duties and obligations in connection with conflicts of interest arising out of the conduct of an incorporated legal practice.

- (2) Each legal practitioner director of the incorporated legal practice, and any employee who is an Australian legal practitioner and who provides the services on behalf of the practice, must ensure that a disclosure, complying with the requirements of this section and the regulations made for the purposes of this section, is made to the person in connection with the provision of the services.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (3) The disclosure must be made by giving the person a notice in writing –

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

s. 123 Part 2.5 – Incorporated Legal Practices and Multi-disciplinary Partnerships

 - (b) a disclosure has not been made under that section in relation to the service.
- (2) The standard of care owed by the incorporated legal practice in respect of the service is the standard that would be applicable if the service had been provided by an Australian legal practitioner.

- (2) If a restriction referred to in subsection (1) is limited to a particular branch of the legal profession or to persons who practise in a particular style of legal practice, the restriction applies only to the extent that the incorporated legal practice carries on the business in that branch of the legal profession or in that style of legal practice.
- (3) Any advertisement of the kind referred to in this section is, for the purposes of disciplinary proceedings taken against an Australian legal practitioner, taken to have been authorised by each legal practitioner director of the incorporated legal practice.

- (b) civil proceedings for any other debt owed, or damages payable, to a client as a result of a dishonest act or omission by an Australian legal practitioner who is an employee of the practice in connection with the provision of legal services to the client.
- (2) If the incorporated legal practice would not (but for this section) be vicariously liable for any acts or omissions of its officers and employees in those proceedings, but would be liable for those acts or omissions if the practice and those officers and employees were carrying on business in partnership, the practice is taken to be vicariously liable for those acts or omissions.

153. Effect of non-disclosure of provision of certain services

- (1) This section applies if –

- (2) If a restriction referred to in subsection (1) is limited to a particular branch of the legal profession or to persons who practise in a particular style of legal practice, the restriction applies only to the extent that the multi-disciplinary partnership carries on the business of the relevant class of Australian legal practitioners.
- (3) An advertisement of the kind referred to in this section is, for the purposes of disciplinary proceedings taken against an Australian legal practitioner, taken to have been authorised by each legal practitioner partner of the multi-disciplinary partnership.
- (4) This section does not apply if the provision by which the restriction is imposed expressly excludes its application to multi-disciplinary partnerships.

156. Sharing of receipts, revenue or other income

- (1) Nothing in this Act, the regulations or the legal profession rules prevents a legal practitioner partner, or an Australian legal practitioner who is an employee of a multi-disciplinary partnership, from sharing receipts, revenue or other income arising from the provision of legal services by the partner or practitioner with a partner or partners who are not Australian legal practitioners.

 - (b) the Court is satisfied that the person has been guilty of conduct that, if the person were an Australian legal practitioner, would have constituted unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct; or
 - (c) in the case of a corporation, if the Court is satisfied that the corporation has been disqualified from providing legal services in this jurisdiction or there are grounds for disqualifying the corporation from providing legal services in this jurisdiction.
- (3) An order made under this section may be revoked by the Supreme Court on application by the prescribed authority or by the person against whom the order was made.
- (4) The death of an Australian legal practitioner does not prevent an application being made for, or the making of, an order under this section in relation to a person who was a partner of the practitioner.

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (5) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the publication and notification of orders made under this section.

 - (b) notify the law practice in writing that the client requires this Part to apply to the matter.
- (3) An offer referred to in subsection (2)(a) must clearly state –
 - (a) that it is an offer to enter into an agreement that this Part is to apply to the matter; and
 - (b) that the client may accept it in writing or by other conduct; and
 - (c) the type of conduct that will constitute acceptance.

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

s. 287

Part 3.3 – Costs Disclosure and Assessment

- (4) A notification has no effect for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) if it is given after the period of 28 days after the law practice discloses to the client (under a corresponding law) information about the client’s right to make a notification of that kind, but nothing in this subsection prevents an agreement referred to in subsection (2)(a) from coming into effect at any time.

287. Displacement of Part

- (1) This section applies if this Part applies to a matter by the operation of section 285 or 286.
- (2) This Part ceases to apply to the matter if –
- (a) either –
- (i) the legal services are or will be provided wholly or primarily in another jurisdiction; or
- (ii) the matter has a substantial connection with another jurisdiction –
- or both; and
- (b) either –
- (i) the client enters under the corresponding law of the other jurisdiction into an agreement with the law practice that the corresponding provisions of the corresponding law apply to the matter; or

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (ii) the client notifies under the corresponding law of the other jurisdiction (and within the time allowed by the corresponding law) the law practice in writing that the client requires the corresponding provisions of the corresponding law to apply to the matter.
- (3) Nothing in this section prevents the application of this Part to the matter by means of a later agreement or notification under section 286.

288. How and where does a client first instruct a law practice?

A client first instructs a law practice in relation to a matter in a particular jurisdiction if the law practice first receives instructions from or on behalf of the client in relation to the matter in that jurisdiction, whether in person or by post, telephone, fax, email or other form of communication.

289. How and when does a matter have a substantial connection with this jurisdiction?

The regulations may prescribe the circumstances in which, or the rules to be used to determine whether, a matter has or does not have a substantial connection with this jurisdiction for the purposes of this Part.

s. 290

Part 3.3 – Costs Disclosure and Assessment

290. What happens when different laws apply to a matter?

- (1) This section applies if this Part applies to a matter for a period and a corresponding law applies for another period.
- (2) If this Part applied to a matter for a period and a corresponding law applies to the matter afterwards, this Part continues to apply in respect of legal costs (if any) incurred while this Part applied to the matter.
- (3) If a corresponding law applied to a matter for a period and this Part applies to the matter afterwards, this Part does not apply in respect of legal costs (if any) incurred while the corresponding law applied to the matter, so long as the corresponding law continues to apply in respect of those costs.
- (4) However –
 - (a) the client may enter into a written agreement with the law practice that the cost assessment provisions of this Part are to apply in respect of all legal costs incurred in relation to the matter, and Division 7 (Costs assessment) accordingly applies in respect of those legal costs; or
 - (b) if the client enters into a written agreement with the law practice that the cost assessment provisions of a corresponding law are to apply in respect of all legal costs incurred in relation to the matter, Division 7 accordingly does not apply in respect of those legal costs.

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (5) A written agreement referred to in subsection (4) need not be signed by the client but in that case the client's acceptance must be communicated to the law practice by fax, email or some other written form.
- (6) If a corresponding law applied to a matter for a period and this Part applies to the matter afterwards, this Part does not require disclosure of any matters to the extent that they have already been disclosed under a corresponding law.
- (7) This section has effect despite any other provisions of this Part.

Division 3 – Costs disclosure practice that the corresponding provisions of the corresponding law apply to the matter; or

- (ii) to notify under a corresponding law (and within the time allowed by the corresponding law) the law practice in writing that the client requires the corresponding provisions of the corresponding law to apply to the matter.

Note. The client's right to enter into an agreement or give a notification as mentioned in paragraph (1) will be under provisions of the law of the other jurisdiction that correspond to section 286 (Part also applies by agreement or at client's election).

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (5) A law practice is taken to have complied with the requirement to disclose the details referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (g), (i), (j) and (l) if it provides a written statement in or to the effect of a form prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection at the same time as the other details are disclosed as required by this section.

292. Disclosure of other information to clients

In addition to disclosure under section 291, a law practice must disclose to the client in writing –

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

Note. An example of the operation of this section is where a barrister is retained by a firm of solicitors on behalf of a client of the firm. The barrister must disclose to the firm details of the barrister's legal costs and billing arrangements, and the firm must disclose those details to the client. The barrister is not required to make a disclosure directly to the client.

294. How and when must disclosure be made?

- (1) Disclosure under section 291 must be made in writing before, or as soon as practicable after, the law practice is retained in the matter.
- (2) Disclosure under section 293(1) must be made in writing before, or as soon as practicable after, the other law practice is retained.
- (3) Disclosure made to a person before the law practice is retained in a matter is taken to be disclosure to the person as a client for the purposes of sections 291 and 293.

295. Exceptions to requirement for disclosure

- (1) Disclosure under section 291 or section 293(1) is not required to be made in any of the following circumstances:

- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a), if a law practice becomes aware that the total legal costs are likely to exceed $1 500 (exclusive of GST) or the prescribed amount (whichever is higher), the law practice must disclose the matters in section 291 or 293 (as the case requires) to the client as soon as practicable.

298. Form of disclosure

299. Ongoing obligation to disclose

A law practice must, in writing, disclose to a client any substantial change to anything included in a disclosure already made under this Division as soon as is reasonably practicable after the law practice becomes aware of that change.

300. Effect of failure to disclose

- (1) If a law practice does not disclose to a client or an associated third party payer anything required by this Division to be disclosed, the client or associated third party payer (as the case may be) need not pay the legal costs unless they have been assessed under Division 7.
- (2) A law practice that does not disclose to a client or an associated third party payer anything required by this Division to be disclosed may not maintain proceedings against the client or associated third party payer (as the case may be)

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

s. 300

Part 3.3 – Costs Disclosure and Assessment

for the recovery of legal costs unless the costs have been assessed under Division 7.

- (3) If a law practice does not disclose to a client or an associated third party payer anything required by this Division to be disclosed and the client or associated third party payer has entered into a costs agreement with the law practice, the client or associated third party payer may also apply under section 312 for the costs agreement to be set aside.
- (4) If a law practice does not disclose to a client or an associated third party payer anything required by this Division to be disclosed, then, on an assessment of the relevant legal costs, the amount of the costs may be reduced by an amount considered by the costs assessor to be proportionate to the seriousness of the failure to disclose.
- (5) If a law practice retains another law practice on behalf of a client and the first law practice fails to disclose something to the client solely because the retained law practice failed to disclose relevant information to the first law practice as required by section 293(2), then subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) –
 - (a) do not apply to the legal costs owing to the first law practice on account of legal services provided by it, to the extent that the non-disclosure by the first law practice was caused by the failure of the retained law practice to disclose the relevant information; and

Act No. 24 of 2007

- (b) do apply to the legal costs owing to the retained law practice.
- (6) In a matter involving both a client and an associated third party payer where disclosure has been made to one of them but not the other –
- (a) subsection (1) does not affect the liability of the one to whom disclosure was made to pay the legal costs; and
 - (b) subsection (2) does not prevent proceedings being maintained against the one to whom the disclosure was made for the recovery of those legal costs.
- (7) Failure by a law practice to comply with this Division is capable of constituting unsatisfactory professional conduct or professional misconduct on the part of any Australian legal practitioner or Australian-registered foreign lawyer involved in the failure.

- (1) A law practice must give a client, on reasonable request –
- (a) a written report of the progress of the matter in which the law practice is retained; and

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the other law practice ceases to act for the client in the matter when the law practice is retained.

302. Disclosure to associated third party payers

- (1) If a law practice is required to make a disclosure to a client of the practice under this Division, the practice must, in accordance with subsections (2) and (3), also make the same disclosure to any associated third party payer for the client, but only to the extent that the details or matters disclosed are relevant to the associated third party payer and relate to costs that are payable by the associated third party payer in respect of legal services provided to the client.
- (2) A disclosure under subsection (1) must be made in writing –
 - (a) at the time the disclosure to the client is required under this Division; or

- (b) if the law practice only afterwards becomes aware of the legal obligation of the associated third party payer to pay legal costs of the client, as soon as practicable after the practice became aware of the obligation.
- (3) Section 298 (Form of disclosure) applies to a disclosure to an associated third party payer under subsection (1) in the same way as it applies to a client.
- (4) An associated third party payer for a client of a law practice has the same right as the client to obtain reports under section 301(1)(b) (Progress reports) of legal costs incurred by the client, but only to the extent that the costs are payable by the associated third party payer in respect of legal services provided to the client, and the law practice must comply with that section accordingly.

- (4) A law practice that has entered into a costs agreement in contravention of section 308 (Conditional costs agreements involving uplift fees) is not entitled to recover the whole or any part of the uplift fee and must repay the amount received in respect of the uplift fee to the person from whom it was received.

375. Vesting of rights in Trust

If a default order has been made in respect of a law practice, the rights and interests of any person arising from any loss incurred in respect of which the default order was made are assigned to the Trust when an amount is paid out of the Guarantee Fund to that person but only to the extent of that amount.

Division 7 – Determination of claims

378. Determination of claims

- (1) The Trust must determine a claim by wholly or partly allowing or disallowing it.
- (2) The Trust may disallow a claim to the extent that the claim does not relate to a default for which the Guarantee Fund is liable.
- (3) The Trust may wholly or partly disallow a claim, or reduce a claim, to the extent that –
 - (a) the claimant knowingly assisted in or contributed towards, or was a party or accessory to, the act or omission giving rise to the claim; or
 - (b) the negligence of the claimant contributed to the loss; or
 - (c) the conduct of the transaction with the law practice in relation to which the claim is made was illegal, and the claimant knew or ought reasonably to have known of that illegality; or
 - (d) proper and usual records were not brought into existence during the conduct of the transaction, or were destroyed, and the claimant knew or ought reasonably to have known that records of that kind

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

would not be kept or would be destroyed;
or

(e) the claimant has unreasonably refused to disclose information or documents to or co-operate with –

(i) the Trust; or

(ii) any other authority (including, for example, an investigative or prosecuting authority) – in the investigation of the claim.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not limit the Trust’s power to disallow a claim on any other ground.

(5) Without limiting subsection (2) or (3), the Trust may reduce the amount otherwise payable on a claim to the extent the Trust considers appropriate if satisfied that the claimant –

(a) assisted in or contributed towards, or was a party or accessory to, the act or omission giving rise to the claim; or

(b) unreasonably failed to mitigate losses arising from the act or omission giving rise to the claim; or

(c) has unreasonably hindered the investigation of the claim.

(6) If the amount of a claim does not exceed $2 500 or such other amount as may be prescribed, the Trust may allow the claim after waiving

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

s. 379

Part 3.5 – Solicitors’ Guarantee Fund

compliance with such of the provisions of this Part as it thinks fit.

- (7) The Trust must, in allowing a claim, specify the amount payable, including if appropriate any amounts payable under sections 381 and 382.

379. Claimant required to pursue claims, &c.

- (1) The Trust may give a claimant not less than 21 days’ written notice requiring the claimant to do such of the following as are specified in the notice:
- (a) take specified steps for the purpose of pursuing the claim;

380. Maximum amount allowable

- (1) The amount payable in respect of a default must not exceed the pecuniary loss resulting from the default.
- (2) This section does not apply to costs payable under section 381 or to interest payable under section 382.

381. Costs

- (1) If the Trust wholly or partly allows a claim, the Trust must order payment of the claimant’s reasonable legal costs involved in making and proving the claim, unless the Trust considers that special circumstances exist warranting a reduction in the amount of costs or warranting a determination that no amount should be paid for costs.
- (2) If the Trust wholly disallows a claim, the Trust may order payment of the whole or part of the claimant’s reasonable legal costs involved in making and attempting to prove the claim, where the Trust considers it is appropriate to make the order.
- (3) The costs are payable from the Guarantee Fund.

382. Interest

- (1) In determining the amount of pecuniary loss resulting from a default, the Trust is to add interest on the amount payable (excluding interest), unless the Trust considers that special circumstances exist warranting a reduction in the amount of interest or warranting a determination that no amount should be paid by way of interest.

- (2) The interest is to be calculated from the date on which the claim was made, to the date the Trust notifies the claimant that the claim has been allowed, at the rate specified in or determined under the regulations.
- (3) To the extent that regulations are not in force for the purposes of subsection (2), interest is to be calculated at the rate of 5% per annum.
- (4) The interest is payable from the Guarantee Fund.

 - (b) that have already been determined and are payable to or receivable by the person; or
 - (c) that (in the opinion of the Trust) are likely to be paid to or received by the person; or from other sources in respect of the pecuniary loss to which a claim relates.

- (2) The Trust may, at its absolute discretion, pay to a person the whole or part of an amount referred to in subsection (1)(c) if satisfied that payment is warranted to alleviate hardship, but nothing in this subsection affects section 385 (Repayment of certain amounts).

384. Subrogation

- (1) On payment of a claim from the Guarantee Fund, the Trust is subrogated to the rights and remedies of the claimant against any person in relation to the default to which the claim relates to the extent of the amount paid.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), that subsection extends to a right or remedy against –
 - (a) the associate in respect of whom the claim is made; or
 - (b) the person authorised to administer the estate of the associate in respect of whom the claim is made and who is deceased or an insolvent under administration.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a right or remedy against an associate if, had the associate been a claimant in respect of the default, the claim would not be disallowed on any of the

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

s. 385

Part 3.5 – Solicitors’ Guarantee Fund

grounds set out in section 378(3) (Determination of claims).

- (4) The Trust may exercise its rights and remedies under this section in its own name or in the name of the claimant.
- (5) If the Trust brings proceedings under this section in the name of the claimant, it must indemnify the claimant against any costs awarded against the claimant in the proceedings.
- (6) The Trust may exercise its rights and remedies under this section even though any limitation periods under this Part have expired.
- (7) The Trust must pay into the Guarantee Fund any money recovered in exercising its rights and remedies under this section.

385. Repayment of certain amounts

- (1) If –
 - (a) a claimant receives a payment from the Guarantee Fund in respect of the claim; and
 - (b) the claimant receives or recovers from another source or sources a payment on account of the pecuniary loss; and

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

Part 3.5 – Solicitors’ Guarantee Fund

s. 386

the amount of the surplus is a debt payable by the claimant to the Fund.

- (2) However, the amount payable by the claimant cannot exceed the amount the claimant received from the Guarantee Fund in respect of the claim.
- (3) A claimant must notify the Trust of the receipt or recovery of a payment referred to in subsection (1)(b) within 60 days after the receipt or recovery.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (2) The notification must contain a brief statement of reasons for the delay.

387. Notification of decision

 - (b) a decision of the Trust to reduce the amount allowed in respect of the claim.

388. Appeal against decision on claim

- (1) A claimant may appeal to the Supreme Court against –
 - (a) a decision of the Trust to wholly or partly disallow a claim; or
 - (b) a decision of the Trust to reduce the amount allowed in respect of a claim – but an appeal does not lie against a decision of the Trust to limit the amount payable, or to decline to pay an amount, under the capping and sufficiency provisions of this jurisdiction.

- (2) An appeal against a decision must be lodged within 30 days of receiving the information notice about the decision.
- (3) On an appeal under this section –
 - (a) the appellant must establish that the whole or part of the amount sought to be recovered from the Guarantee Fund is not reasonably available from other sources, unless the Trust waives that requirement; and

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

- (b) the Supreme Court may, on application by the Trust, stay the appeal pending further action being taken to seek recovery of the whole or part of that amount from other sources.
 - (4) The Supreme Court may review the merits of the Trust’s decision.
 - (5) The Supreme Court may –
 - (a) affirm the decision; or
 - (b) if satisfied that the reasons for varying or setting aside the Trust’s decision are sufficiently cogent to warrant doing so –
 - (i) vary the decision; or
 - (ii) set aside the decision and make a decision in substitution for the decision set aside; or
 - (iii) set aside the decision and remit the matter for reconsideration by the Trust in accordance with any directions or recommendations of the Court –
- and may make other orders as it thinks fit.
- (6) No order for costs is to be made on an appeal under this section unless the Supreme Court is satisfied that an order for costs should be made in the interests of justice.

- (1) A claimant may appeal to the Supreme Court against a failure of the Trust to determine a claim within the period of 12 months after the claim was made.
- (2) An appeal against a failure to determine a claim may be made at any time after the period of 12 months has elapsed after the claim was made and while the failure continues.
- (3) On an appeal under this section –
 - (a) the appellant must establish that the whole or part of the amount sought to be recovered from the Guarantee Fund is not reasonably available from other sources, unless the Trust waives that requirement; and
 - (b) the Supreme Court may, on application by the Trust, stay the appeal pending further action being taken to seek recovery of the whole or part of that amount from other sources.
- (4) The Supreme Court may determine the appeal –
 - (a) by –
 - (i) giving directions to the Trust for the expeditious determination of the matter; and
 - (ii) if the Court is satisfied that there has been unreasonable delay,

Legal Profession Act 2007
Act No. 24 of 2007

ordering that interest be paid at a specified rate that is higher than the rate applicable under section 382 (Interest), until further order or the determination of the claim; and

- (iii) if the Court is satisfied that there has not been unreasonable delay, ordering that, if delay continues in circumstances of a specified kind, interest be paid for a specified period at a specified rate that is higher than the rate applicable under section 382, until further order or the determination of the claim; or

- (b) by deciding not to give directions or make orders under paragraph (a).

- (5) No order for costs is to be made on an appeal under this section unless the Supreme Court is satisfied that an order for costs should be made in the interests of justice.

- (3) Payments from the Guarantee Fund in accordance with the requirements of subsection (2) are made in full and final settlement of the claims concerned.

- (5) No proceedings can be brought, by way of appeal or otherwise, to require the payment of a larger amount or to require the Trust to consider payment of a larger amount.

393. Sufficiency of Guarantee Fund
