reliably established whether the period of gestation is more or less than 20 weeks, with a body mass of at least 400 grams at birth, that exhibits no sign of respiration or heartbeat or other sign of life after birth.

3A. Meaning of, and designation of, gender

(1) In this Act –

gender means –

- (a) male; or
  - (b) female; or
  - (c) indeterminate gender; or
  - (d) non-binary; or
  - (e) a word, or a phrase, that is used to indicate a person's perception of the person's self as being neither entirely male nor entirely female and that is prescribed; or
  - (f) a word or phrase that is used to indicate a person's perception of the person's self as being neither entirely male nor entirely female.
- (2) For the purposes of the definition of gender in subsection (1) –

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 3A

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (a) a reference, in paragraph (a) of the definition, to “male” is to be taken to be a reference to the male gender; and
  - (b) a reference, in paragraph (b) of that definition, to “female” is to be taken to be a reference to the female gender.
- (3) Without limiting the grounds on which the Registrar may refuse to register a gender in relation to a person, the Registrar may refuse to register, as a gender in relation to a person, a word or phrase (other than a word or phrase specified in or under paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e)) if the Registrar is of the opinion that the word or phrase is not within paragraph (f) of the definition of gender in subsection (1).

PART 2 – ADMINISTRATION

Division 1 – The Registrar

4. Registrar

- (1) Subject to and in accordance with the State Service Act 2000, the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages is to be appointed or employed for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Registrar is responsible, subject to the Minister's control and direction, for the administration of this Act.

5. Registrar's general functions

The Registrar's general functions are to –

- (a) establish and maintain the registers necessary for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) administer the registration system established by this Act and ensure that it operates efficiently, effectively and economically.

6. Registrar's staff

- (1) The Registrar's staff consists of any staff necessary for the proper administration of this Act.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 7

Part 2 – Administration

---

- (2) The Registrar's staff are to be appointed or employed subject to and in accordance with the State Service Act 2000.

7. Delegation

The Registrar may delegate to any person any of the Registrar's powers or functions other than this power of delegation.

Division 2 – Execution of documents

8. The Registrar's seal

The Registrar has a seal.

9. Execution of documents

- (1) The Registrar may issue a certificate or other document under the Registrar's signature and seal or a facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced by stamp, machine imprint or some other method authorised by regulation.
- (2) If a document produced before a court or an administrative authority or official is apparently under –
- (a) the Registrar's signature and seal; or
  - (b) a facsimile of the Registrar's signature and seal produced by stamp, machine imprint or some other method authorised by regulation –

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999

Part 2 – Administration

the court, authority or official must presume, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the document was properly issued under the Registrar's authority.

- (3) Judicial notice is to be taken of the seal.

Division 3 – Reciprocal administrative arrangements

10. Reciprocal administrative arrangements

- (1) The Minister may enter into an arrangement with the Minister responsible for the administration of a corresponding law providing for –
- (a) the exercise by the Registrar of powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
  - (b) the exercise by the registering authority under the corresponding law of powers and functions of the Registrar under this Act.
- (2) When an arrangement is in force under this section –
- (a) the Registrar may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement, but subject to the conditions of the arrangement, the powers and functions of the registering authority under the corresponding law; and
  - (b) the registering authority under the corresponding law may exercise, to the extent authorised by the arrangement, but

Part 3 – Registration of births

PART 3 – REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS

Division 1 – Notification of births

11. Notification of births

- (1) When a child is born in the State, the responsible person must give notice of the birth to the Registrar.
- (2) Notice is to –
  - (a) be in writing or in any other manner or form approved by the Registrar; and
  - (b) include any particulars the Registrar requires.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (3) The notice must be given –
  - (a) in the case of a live birth, within 21 days after birth; or
  - (b) in the case of a stillbirth, within 48 hours after birth.
- (4) When notice of a stillbirth is given, the responsible person must also give the Registrar a medical practitioner's certificate in a form approved by the Registrar, certifying the cause of foetal death.
- (5) The certificate must be completed by the medical practitioner responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth or a medical practitioner who examined the body of the stillborn child after the birth.

(6) In this section,

responsible person means –

- (a) in the case of a child born in a hospital or brought to a hospital within 24 hours after birth, the chief executive officer of the hospital; or
- (b) in any other case –
  - (i) the medical practitioner or midwife responsible for the professional care of the mother at the birth; or
  - (ii) if no medical practitioner or midwife was in attendance at the birth, any other person in attendance at the birth.

Division 2 – Registration of births

12. Cases in which registration of birth is required or authorised

- (1) When a child is born in the State, the birth must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court, whether of this or any other State or the Commonwealth, directs the registration of a birth, the birth must be registered under this Act.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 3 – Registration of births

- (3) If a child is born in an aircraft during a flight or on a vessel during a voyage to a place of disembarkation in the State, the birth may be registered under this Act.
- (4) If a child is born outside the Commonwealth, but the child is to become a resident of the State, the birth may be registered under this Act.
- (5) The Registrar must not register a birth under subsection (3) or (4) if the birth is registered under a corresponding law.

13. How to have the birth of a child registered

A person has the birth of a child registered under this Act by lodging a birth registration statement in a manner and form approved by the Registrar.

14. Responsibility to have birth registered

- (1) The parents of a child are jointly responsible for having the child's birth registered under this Act (and must both sign the birth registration statement) but the Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from one of the parents if satisfied that it is not practicable to obtain the signatures of both parents on the birth registration statement.
- (2) If a child is a foundling, the person who has custody of the child is responsible for having the child's birth registered.
- (3) The Registrar may accept a birth registration statement from a person who is not responsible for having the child's birth registered if satisfied that –

- (a) the person lodging the statement has knowledge of the relevant facts; and
- (b) the child's parents are unable or unlikely to lodge a birth registration statement.

15. Obligation to have birth registered

- (1) A person responsible for having the birth of a child registered must ensure that a birth registration statement is lodged with the Registrar –
  - (a) within 60 days after the date of the birth; or
  - (b) in the case of a live birth where variations of sex characteristics do not allow for an easy assignment of sex, within 120 days of birth.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) The Registrar must accept a birth registration statement even though it is lodged after the period of 60 days.
- (3) The Registrar, at any time before registering a birth, may request that further information be provided to support the birth registration statement.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 3 – Registration of births

s. 16

16. Registration

- (1) The Registrar registers a birth by making an entry about the birth in the Register.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete, the Registrar may register a birth on the basis of those incomplete particulars.
- (3) The Registrar, in registering the birth of a person, is to register the sex of the person as being either male or female.
- (4) The Registrar may not change from male to female, or from female to male, the registered sex in relation to a person, except if it is necessary to correct an error made before or at the time the person's sex was first registered in relation to the person.
- (5) The Registrar may only register the sex of a person under subsection (3) or (4) and must not register the sex of a person as any sex other than male or female.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (3), (4) or (5) is to be taken –
  - (a) to prevent a gender being registered under section 28C(1) in relation to a person; or
  - (b) to prevent a registered sex in relation to a person ceasing, in accordance with section 28C(7), to be the registered sex in relation to the person; or

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 17

Part 3 – Registration of births

---

- (c) to invalidate the registration of a previous registered sex that occurred before the gender amendments day.

17. Registration of parentage details

- (1) The Registrar must not include information about the identity of any of a child's parents in the Register unless –
  - (a) the parents of the child make a joint application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity; or
  - (b) one parent of the child makes an application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity and the other parent cannot join in the application –
    - (i) because he or she is dead; or
    - (ii) because he or she cannot be found; or
    - (iii) for some other reason; or
  - (c) one parent of the child makes an application for the inclusion of registrable information about that identity and the Registrar is satisfied that the other parent does not dispute the correctness of that information; or

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 3 – Registration of births

s. 17

---

- (d) any court having jurisdiction orders the inclusion of registrable information about that identity in the Register; or
  - (e) any court having jurisdiction makes a finding that a particular person is a parent of a child; or
  - (f) the Registrar is entitled under any law, including a law of another State or the Commonwealth, to make a presumption as to the identity of the child's parent.
- (2) The Registrar may include information about the identity of a child's parent in the Register if –
- (a) the Registrar is not prohibited by subsection (1) from doing so; or
  - (b) despite subsection (1), both the parents are unable to give registrable information about the identity of a child's parent or parents or are unavailable and another person can provide information to the Registrar's satisfaction as to the identity of the child's parent or parents; or
  - (c) despite subsection (1), one parent has provided the birth registration statement and the registrable information relates only to the identity of that parent.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 18

Part 3 – Registration of births

---

18. Addition of details after registration of birth

- (1) A person may apply to the Registrar for the inclusion in the Register of additional registrable information about a child's birth.
- (2) An application to the Registrar for the inclusion of registrable information in the Register –
  - (a) must be made in writing; and
  - (b) must include the information required by the Registrar; and
  - (c) must, if the Registrar requires verification of the information contained in the application, be accompanied by a statutory declaration verifying the information contained in the application and other evidence the Registrar may require.

Division 3 – Court order for registration of birth

19. Court may order registration of birth

- (1) A magistrate, on application by an interested person or on his or her own initiative, may order –
  - (a) the registration of a birth; or
  - (b) the inclusion of registrable information about a birth or a child's parents in the Register.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 3 – Registration of births

- (2) If a court, including a court of another State or the Commonwealth, finds that –
- (a) a birth is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or
  - (b) the registrable information contained in an entry about a birth in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect –

the court may direct registration of the birth or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law.

Division 4 – Child's name

20. Name of child

- (1) Subject to this section, the birth registration statement must state the name of the child.
- (2) The name is a matter of choice for the person or persons lodging the statement, but the Registrar may assign a name to a child if –
  - (a) the name stated in the birth registration statement is a prohibited name; or
  - (b) the birth registration statement is lodged by both parents of the child and they satisfy the Registrar that they are unable to agree on the child's name.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 21

Part 3 – Registration of births

---

21. Dispute about child's name

- (1) If there is a dispute between parents about a child's name, either parent may apply to a magistrate for a resolution of the dispute.
- (2) On an application under subsection (1), the magistrate may –
  - (a) resolve the dispute about the child's name as the magistrate considers appropriate; and
  - (b) order the Registrar to register the child's name in a form specified in the order.

PART 4 – CHANGE OF NAME

22. Change of name by registration

A person's name may be changed by registration of the change under this Part.

23. Application to register change of adult's name

A person who has attained the age of 16 years –

- (a) who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State; or
- (b) whose birth is registered in the State –

may apply to the Registrar, in a form approved by the Registrar, for registration of a change of the person's name.

24. Application to register change of child's name

- (1) The parents of a child who has not attained the age of 16 years –

- (a) who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State; or
- (b) whose birth is registered in the State –

may apply to the Registrar, in a form approved by the Registrar, for registration of a change of the child's name.

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

s. 25

Part 4 – Change of name

---

- (2) An application for registration of a change of a child's name may be made by one parent under subsection (1) if –
- (a) the applicant is the sole parent named in the registration of the child's birth under this Act or any other law; or
  - (b) there is no other surviving parent of the child; or
  - (c) a magistrate approves the proposed change of name.
- (3) A magistrate may, on application by a child's parent, approve a proposed change of name for the child under subsection (1) if satisfied that the change is consistent with the child's will and preferences.
- (4) If the parents of a child are dead, cannot be found, or for some other reason cannot exercise their parental responsibilities in respect of the child, the child's guardian may apply for registration of a change of the child's name.

25. Child's consent to change of name

A change of a name of a child of more than 12 years of age must not be registered unless –

- (a) the child consents to the change of name; or
- (b) the child is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.

26. Registration of change of name

- (1) Before registering a change of name under this Part, the Registrar may require the applicant to provide evidence to establish to the Registrar's satisfaction –
  - (a) the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed; and
  - (b) that the change of name is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose; and
  - (c) if the person whose name is to be changed is a child aged 12 years or more, that the child consents to the change of name or is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the change of name.
- (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the name of a person whose birth is registered in the State has been changed under another law or by order of a court, the change of name may be registered under this Act.
- (3) The Registrar may refuse to register a change of name if, as a result of the change, the name would become a prohibited name.

27. Entries to be made in Register

- (1) The Registrar registers a change of name by making an entry about the change of name in the Register.

application, registered in relation to the person, if –

- (a) the applicant is the sole parent named in the registration under this Act of the person's birth; or
  - (b) the guardian is the sole guardian of the person; or
  - (c) there is no other surviving parent of the person; or
  - (d) the registration of the gender in relation to the person is approved by a magistrate under section 28B(2)(a).
- (5) An application under subsection (3) or (4) to have a gender registered in relation to a person is to be –
- (a) in the approved form; and
  - (b) accompanied by –
    - (i) if the person is able to make a statutory declaration – a gender declaration made by the person; or
    - (ii) if the person is not able to make a statutory declaration but is able to express the person's will and preference – a statement from each of the applicants stating that the applicant believes on reasonable grounds that the registration of the gender in relation to the person is consistent with the will and preference of the person; and

- (c) accompanied by any other document or information that the Registrar reasonably requires, other than a medical certificate, or other medical document, in relation to the sex, sexual characteristics or gender of the person.
- (6) An application under subsection (1), (3) or (4) to have a gender registered in relation to a person who has not attained the age of 18 years may be accompanied by evidence that –
- (a) the person has undertaken counselling as to –
    - (i) whether or not the application ought to be made; and
    - (ii) the implications of the registration of the gender in relation to the person; and
  - (b) the counselling was provided by a person, chosen by the applicant, who the applicant considers has suitable qualifications, training or experience to provide such counselling.
- (7) An application must not be made under this section in relation to a person within 12 months after a gender has been registered in relation to the person.

28B. Approval by magistrate of registration of gender

- (1) A parent, or guardian, of a person who has not attained the age of 16 years may apply to a magistrate to approve the registration of a gender, specified in the application, in relation to the person.
- (2) A magistrate to whom an application is made under subsection (1) to approve the registration of a gender, specified in the application, in relation to a person may –
  - (a) approve the registration of the gender in relation to the person; or
  - (b) refuse to approve the registration of the gender in relation to the person.
- (3) A magistrate may only approve the registration of a gender in relation to a person if the magistrate –
  - (a) is satisfied that the registration of the gender in relation to the person is consistent with the will and preference of the person; or
  - (b) is satisfied that the person is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the registration of the gender in relation to the person.

28C. Registration of gender

- (1) The Registrar, after receiving an application made under section 28A(1), (3) or (4) for a gender to be registered in relation to a person –
  - (a) must –
    - (i) register the gender as the registered gender in relation to the person by making an entry in the Register specifying the gender to be the registered gender in relation to the person; and
    - (ii) make any other changes to the Register that are necessary to indicate that each previous registered sex, and each previous registered gender, of the person is no longer the registered sex or registered gender in relation to the person; or
  - (b) must refuse to register the gender as the registered gender in relation to the person.
- (2) The Registrar may only register under subsection (1) a gender as the registered gender in relation to a person in accordance with an application made under section 28A(3) or (4) if the Registrar is satisfied that –
  - (a) the gender to be registered in relation to the person is consistent with the will and preference of the person; or

- (b) the person is unable to understand the meaning and implications of the registration of the gender in relation to the person.
- (3) The Registrar may, before determining under subsection (1) an application made under section 28A(1), (3) or (4), require a person who made the application to provide to the Registrar the further documents or information that the Registrar reasonably requires, other than a medical certificate, or other medical document, that relates to the sex, sexual characteristics or gender of the person to whom the application relates.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), the Registrar may, before determining under subsection (1) an application made under section 28A(1), (3) or (4) in relation to a person, require the applicant to provide to the Registrar appropriate evidence of counselling of the person, if –
  - (a) the person has not attained the age of 18 years; and
  - (b) the application is not accompanied by evidence under section 28A(6) of counselling being provided by a person who the Registrar considers is a person with suitable qualifications, training or experience to provide such counselling.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), appropriate evidence of counselling of the person is evidence that –

- (a) the person has undertaken counselling as to –
    - (i) whether or not the application to register a gender ought to be made; and
    - (ii) the implications of the registration of the gender in relation to the person; and
  - (b) the counselling was provided by a person, agreed to by the Registrar and the applicant, who the Registrar considers has suitable qualifications, training or experience to provide such counselling.
- (6) If the Registrar determines under subsection (1) an application made under section 28A(1), (3) or (4) by refusing to register a gender as the registered gender in relation to a person –
- (a) the Registrar must record the Registrar's reasons for the refusal; and
  - (b) the Registrar must provide, to the person who made the application, the Registrar's reasons for the refusal; and
  - (c) the person who made the application may make an application under section 53 in relation to the decision.
- (7) If a gender is registered as the registered gender in relation to a person under subsection (1) –

- (a) any registered sex that was previously registered in relation to the person ceases to be the registered sex in relation to the person; and
- (b) any registered gender that was previously registered in relation to the person ceases to be the registered gender in relation to the person.

28D. References to sex and gender

- (1) If there is a registered gender in relation to a person, the person is, for the purposes of, but subject to, any law in force in this State, a person of that gender.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), a reference to a person's sex in any law in force in this State is taken to be, in relation to a person whose birth is registered in this State, a reference to –
  - (a) the registered sex, if any, in relation to the person; or
  - (b) the registered gender, if any, in relation to the person.
- (3) In any law in force in this State –
  - (a) a reference to the pregnancy of a female, female person or woman includes a reference to the pregnancy of a person of another gender; and
  - (b) a reference to the termination, or attempted termination, of a pregnancy of

- a female, female person or woman includes a reference to the termination, or attempted termination, of a pregnancy of a person of another gender; and
- (c) a reference to the fertilisation of a human egg outside of the body of a woman does not include the fertilisation of a human egg inside of the body of a person of another gender who has a female reproductive tract; and
- (d) a reference to the mother of a child, or a child of a female or a woman, includes a reference to a person of another gender who carried the child in the person's female reproductive tract, or who gave birth to a child, except –
- (i) if the person is to be taken by the operation of the Surrogacy Act 2012 or another law to have ceased to be such a mother; or
  - (ii) if the person is to be taken by the operation of the Surrogacy Act 2012 or another law to have ceased to be the child of such a mother; and
- (e) an assumption as to the ability of a person to procreate as a female or male is to be determined irrespective of the registered gender of the person.
- (4) Despite any other provision of an Act –

Part 4A – Gender Identity

- (a) if a person in respect of whom there is a registered gender requests that a search of the person, that is to be conducted, be conducted by a male or female, a search of the person is not to be taken to be invalid, unauthorised or unlawful by reason only that the search was, in accordance with the request, conducted by a male or female; and
  - (b) if a police officer asks a person in respect of whom a search is to be conducted whether the person wishes to have the search be conducted by a male or female, a search of the person is not to be taken to be invalid, unauthorised or unlawful by reason only that the search was, in accordance with the request, conducted by a male or female.
- (5) The registration of the registered gender in relation to a person under section 28C(1) does not affect any relationship of that person arising by consanguinity or by operation of law.
- (6) A person who is entitled as a beneficiary –
- (a) under a will; or
  - (b) under a trust; or
  - (c) otherwise by operation of law –

does not, except as otherwise provided under the will or trust or by the law conferring the entitlement, forfeit any right or entitlement by reason only of the fact that a registered gender in

PART 6 – REGISTRATION OF DEATHS

Division 1 – Cases where registration of death is required or authorised

32. Deaths to be registered under this Act

- (1) If a person dies in the State, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (2) If a court or coroner, whether of this or any other State or the Commonwealth, directs the registration of a death, the death must be registered under this Act.
- (3) If a person dies in an aircraft during a flight or on a vessel during a voyage to a place of disembarkation in the State, the death may be registered under this Act.
- (4) If a person who is domiciled or ordinarily resident in the State dies outside the Commonwealth, or a person dies outside the Commonwealth leaving property in the State, the death may be registered under this Act.
- (5) The Registrar is not obliged to register a death under subsections (3) and (4) if the death is registered under a corresponding law.
- (6) If a child is stillborn, the child's death is not to be registered under this Part.

s. 33

Part 6 – Registration of deaths

---

33. Court may order registration of death

- (1) A magistrate, on application by an interested person or on his or her own initiative, may order –
  - (a) the registration of a death; or
  - (b) the inclusion of registrable information about a death in the Register.
- (2) If a court, including a court of another State or the Commonwealth, finds that –
  - (a) the death of a person is not registered as required under this Act or a corresponding law; or
  - (b) the registrable information contained in an entry about a death in the Register under this Act or a corresponding law is incomplete or incorrect –

the court may direct registration of the death or the inclusion or correction of registrable information in the Register under this Act or the corresponding law.

34. Circumstances in which death not to be registered

- (1) The Registrar must not register a death unless the Registrar –
  - (a) has been given notice by a medical practitioner under section 35(1) in relation to the death of the person; or

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1999
Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 6 – Registration of deaths

---

- (b) has been given notice of the death in the form of a certificate issued by a coroner under section 32 of the Coroners Act 1995 that authorises the disposal of the remains of the deceased person; or
  - (c) has received a notice under section 28 of the Coroners Act 1995 containing the particulars needed to effect or complete registration of the death; or
  - (d) has been given notice in the form of a document issued, made or given in relation to the death under a corresponding law, being a document which the Registrar is satisfied is equivalent to a notice or certificate referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Registrar must register the death if –
- (a) registration of the death is ordered by a court; or
  - (b) the Registrar is of the opinion that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, it is proper that the death should be registered without any notice, certificate or order referred to in this section.

Division 2 – Notification of death

35. Notification of death by doctor

- (1) A medical practitioner who was responsible for a person's medical care immediately before death, or who examines the body of a deceased person after death, must, within 48 hours after the death, notify the Registrar of the death and of the cause of death in a form approved by the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A medical practitioner need not give notice under this section if –
- (a) another medical practitioner has given the required notice; or
  - (b) a coroner or a police officer is required to be notified of the death under the Coroners Act 1995.
- (3) When notice of a death is given, the medical practitioner must also give a certificate in a form approved by the Registrar, certifying the cause of death, to –
- (a) the Registrar; and
  - (b) the funeral director or other person who will be arranging for the disposal of the human remains.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Part 6 – Registration of deaths

---

- (4) Notice provided to the Registrar under this section is to be provided free of charge.

36. Notification by coroner

- (1) If a coroner is notified of a death under the Coroners Act 1995, the coroner must inform the Registrar as soon as practicable after receiving the notification.
- (2) If a coroner authorises the disposal of human remains, or makes a finding about the cause of a death, the coroner must give a copy of the disposal authorisation or the finding to the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar may register a death even though the death is subject to an inquest or other coronial inquiry and a finding has not been made about the cause of death.
- (4) A death certificate issued before a coronial inquiry into the cause of death is completed must be endorsed with the words: “Incomplete registration – Cause of death subject to coronial inquiry”.

37. Notification by funeral director

- (1) A funeral director or other person who arranges for the disposal of human remains must, within 7 days after disposal of the remains, give the Registrar a written statement of –
  - (a) the name and last residential address of the deceased; and

Part 6 – Registration of deaths

- (b) if the death was reported to a coroner, a statement of that fact; and
- (c) the place and manner of disposal; and
- (d) any other information required by the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) If human remains, other than cremated remains, are removed from the State, the funeral director or other person who arranges for the removal of the remains from the State must, within 28 days after the remains are disposed of outside the State, give the Registrar a written statement of where and how the remains were disposed of, and any other information required by the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (3) If human remains have not been disposed of within 30 days after the date of death, the funeral director or other person who has custody of the remains must give the Registrar a written statement of –
  - (a) the name and last residential address of the deceased; and
  - (b) if the death was reported to a coroner, a statement of that fact; and
  - (c) any other information required by the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Part 6 – Registration of deaths

s. 38

---

Division 3 – Registration of death

38. Registration of death

- (1) The Registrar registers a death by making an entry about the death in the Register.
- (2) However, if the particulars available to the Registrar are incomplete the Registrar may register a death on the basis of those incomplete particulars.

39. Registration of death on war service

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a person is taken to be on war service if the person is engaged on service outside this State –
  - (a) in the naval, military or air services of the Commonwealth, or of the Sovereign, during any period when a state of war exists between the Commonwealth and any other country; or
  - (b) in any work in connection with such war.
- (2) On the application of any person and on production of a certificate in the form approved by the Registrar purporting to be signed by the officer in charge of the base records of the relevant branch of the Defence Forces, certifying that any person named in the certificate has died while on war service, the Registrar may register the death of that person, even though the death may have occurred more than 12 months before the registration.

PART 7 – THE REGISTER

Division 1 – Keeping the Register

40. The Register

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a register or registers of registrable events.
- (2) The Register –
  - (a) must contain the particulars of each registrable event required under this Act, or another law, to be included in the Register; and
  - (b) may contain further information if the Registrar considers its inclusion appropriate.
- (3) The Register may be wholly or partly in the form of a computer database, in documentary form, or in another form the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (4) The Registrar must maintain the indexes to the Register that are necessary to make the information contained in the Register reasonably accessible.

Division 2 – Registrar’s powers of inquiry

41. Registrar’s powers of inquiry

- (1) The Registrar may conduct an inquiry to find out –

Act No. 58 of 1999

Part 7 – The Register

s. 42

- (a) whether a registrable event has happened; or
  - (b) particulars of a registrable event; or
  - (c) whether particulars of a particular registrable event have been correctly recorded in the Register.
- (2) The Registrar may, by notice given to a person who may be able to provide information relevant to an inquiry under this section, require the person to answer specified questions or to provide other information within a time and in a way specified in the notice.
- (3) A person must not fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice under subsection (2).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Division 3 – Correction of Register

42. Registrar may correct Register

- (1) The Registrar may correct the Register –
- (a) to reflect a finding made on inquiry under Division 2; or
  - (b) to bring the particulars contained in an entry about a registrable event into conformity with the most reliable information available to the Registrar of the registrable event.

Part 7 – The Register

---

- (2) The Registrar must, if required by a court, correct the Register.
- (3) The Registrar corrects the Register by adding or cancelling an entry in the Register or by adding, altering or deleting particulars contained in an entry.

Division 4 – Access to, and certification of, Register entries

43. Access to Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on any conditions the Registrar considers appropriate –
  - (a) allow a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, access to the Register; or
  - (b) provide a person or organisation that has an adequate reason for wanting information from the Register, with information extracted from the Register.
- (2) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must have regard to –
  - (a) the nature of the applicant’s interest; and
  - (b) the sensitivity of the information; and
  - (c) the use to be made of the information; and
  - (d) other relevant factors.

Part 7 – The Register

---

- (3) In deciding the conditions on which access to the Register, or information extracted from the Register, is to be given under this section, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

44. Search of Register

- (1) The Registrar may, on application, search the Register for an entry about a particular registrable event.
- (2) The applicant must state the reason for the applicant's interest in the subject matter of the search.
- (3) The Registrar may reject the application if the applicant does not have an adequate reason for wanting the information to which the application relates.
- (4) In deciding whether an applicant has an adequate reason for wanting information, the Registrar must have regard to –
  - (a) the relationship, if any, between the applicant and the person to whom the information relates; and
  - (b) the age of the entry; and
  - (c) the contents of the entry; and
  - (d) any other relevant factors.

45. Protection of privacy

In providing information extracted from the Register, the Registrar must, as far as practicable, protect the persons to whom the entries in the Register relate from unjustified intrusion on their privacy.

46. Issue of certificate

- (1) On completing a search of the Register, the Registrar may issue a certificate –
  - (a) certifying particulars contained in an entry; or
  - (b) certifying that no entry was located in the Register about the relevant registrable event.
- (2) A certificate under subsection (1)(a) is admissible in legal proceedings as evidence of –
  - (a) the entry to which the certificate relates; and
  - (b) the facts recorded in the entry.
- (3) Subject to subsection (7), information about the sex, or gender, of a person may only be included on a birth certificate if –
  - (a) the information is requested by a person who has attained the age of 16 years and who is the person to whom the certificate relates; or

Part 7 – The Register

- (b) if the person to whom the certificate relates has not attained the age of 16 years – if the information is requested by a parent or guardian of the person; or
  - (c) if the information is requested by an applicant who is the child of the person to whom the certificate relates, or a member of a class of prescribed persons, and if the Registrar is satisfied that –
    - (i) there is a valid reason for the child or person, respectively, to have access to the information; and
    - (ii) the person to whom the birth certificate relates is unable to consent to the disclosure of the information due to death or incapacity; and
    - (iii) there are unlikely to be negative consequences to the person to whom the certificate relates.
- (4) An applicant for a birth certificate in relation to a person must, if there is a registered sex in relation to the person –
- (a) request the Registrar not to include on the birth certificate any reference to sex or gender; or
  - (b) request the Registrar to include on the birth certificate the registered sex in relation to the person, without a notation

- as to each previous registered sex in relation to the person; or
- (c) request the Registrar to include on the birth certificate the registered sex in relation to the person, with a notation as to each previous registered sex in relation to the person.
- (5) An applicant for a birth certificate in relation to a person must, if there is a registered gender in relation to the person –
- (a) request the Registrar not to include on the birth certificate any reference to the sex or gender of the person; or
- (b) request the Registrar to include on the birth certificate the registered gender in relation to the person, without a notation as to any other sex or gender in relation to the person; or
- (c) request the Registrar to include on the birth certificate the registered gender in relation to the person, with a notation as to each previous registered sex, and each previous registered gender, in relation to the person.
- (6) If an application is made to the Registrar for a birth certificate in relation to a person and the applicant –
- (a) has made a request under subsection (4)(a) or (5)(a), the Registrar is not to denotation that the word or phrase relates to the previous registered gender of the person.

- (8) If a change of name is registered under Part 4 in relation to a person, a birth certificate issued in relation to the person is to –
- (a) show the name so registered without any notation or indication that there was another name previously registered in relation to the person; or
  - (b) if a request is made to the Registrar under subsection (9) in relation to the person and the Registrar is not prevented under subsection (10) from complying with the request, show the name so registered with a notation or indication as to each other name that was registered in relation to the person before the change of name was registered.
- (9) An applicant for a birth certificate in relation to a person whose change of name is registered under Part 4 may request the Registrar to issue a birth certificate in relation to the person with a notation or indication as to each other name that was registered in relation to the person before the change of name was registered.
- (10) If the person making a request under subsection (9) in relation to an application for a birth certificate in relation to a person is not the person to whom the birth certificate relates, the Registrar must not comply with the request unless the applicant is the child of the person to whom the certificate relates, or a member of a class of prescribed persons, and the Registrar is satisfied that –

- (a) there is a valid reason for the child or person, respectively, to have access to the information; and
- (b) the person to whom the birth certificate relates is unable to consent to the disclosure of the information due to death or incapacity; and
- (c) there are unlikely to be negative consequences to the person to whom the certificate relates.

47. Access policies

- (1) The Registrar must maintain a written statement of the policies on which access to information contained in the Register is to be given or denied under this Division.
- (2) The Registrar must give a copy of the statement, on request, to any person.

48. Fees

- (1) The regulations may prescribe fees, or a basis for calculating fees, for –
  - (a) access to the Register; or
  - (b) a search of the Register; or

- (c) the issue of a certificate following a search of the Register; or
  - (d) other services provided by the Registrar.
- (2) The regulations may allow for fees to be fixed by negotiation between the Registrar and the person who asks for the relevant services.

49. Power to remit fees

The Registrar may, in appropriate cases, remit the whole or part of a fee under this Act.

Division 5 – Additional information and services

50. Registrar may collect other information

- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the Registrar may maintain records of information, other than registrable information relating to registrable events.
- (2) Records maintained under this section must be kept separately from the Register.
- (3) The Registrar may include information in the records maintained under this section at the request of a person interested in the registrable event to which it relates or on the Registrar's own motion.
- (4) Section 43(3) and section 45 apply to records maintained under this section as if they were part of the Register.

51. Additional services

- (1) The Registrar may enter into an arrangement for the provision of additional services in connection with the provision of services relating to a registrable event, including, but not limited to –
  - (a) the provision of information in the form of a decorative certificate or other document; and
  - (b) the provision of information from records maintained under section 50 relating to the registrable event.
- (1A) Despite anything contrary in the Act, the Registrar may provide information about the sex or gender registered in relation to a person –
  - (a) in respect of a living person, to a person eligible to make an application under section 44; or
  - (b) in respect of a deceased person born at least 100 years earlier.
- (2) The Registrar may enter into an arrangement for the provision of information from records maintained under section 50 or the Register, including historical or genealogical information.
- (3) If the Registrar provides a service or an additional service under this section, the Registrar may make a charge for the service determined by the Registrar, in his or her absolute discretion, which does not necessarily

PART 8 – GENERAL POWER OF REVIEW

53. Review

- (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Registrar made in the performance or purported performance of functions under this Act may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of the decision.
- (2) . . . . .

PART 9 – MISCELLANEOUS

54. False representation

- (1) A person must not make a false or misleading representation in an application or document under this Act, knowing it to be false or misleading.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not, with intention to deceive, produce to another person a birth certificate, a copy of a birth certificate, or a copy of an extract from the Register, issued for the person, that –
- (a) if there is a registered gender in relation to the person –
    - (i) shows a previous registered sex, or previous registered gender, in relation to the person; and
    - (ii) does not also show the registered gender in relation to the person; or
  - (b) if a change of name of the person has been registered –
    - (i) shows a previous registered name in relation to the person; and
    - (ii) does not also show the last registered name in relation to the person.

Part 9 – Miscellaneous

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or both.

- (3) The Registrar may impound –
- (a) a document which the Registrar has reason to believe bears a forged impression of the Registrar's signature or seal; or
  - (b) a certificate or other document purporting to be a certificate or other document under this Act which the Registrar has reason to believe has been forged or falsified; or
  - (c) a certificate under this Act about a registrable event if the entry in the Register about the event has been cancelled or corrected since the issue of the certificate.

57. Immunity from liability

- (1) No liability attaches to the Registrar for an honest act or omission in the performance or purported performance of functions under this Act.
- (2) A liability that would, but for subsection (1), attach to the Registrar attaches instead to the Crown.

58. Registrar to retain control over records

Despite the Archives Act 1983, the Registrar is to retain control over access to any information supplied or records maintained under this Act.

59. Return of records

A person who, by virtue of section 4(1A) of the Registration of Births and Deaths Act 1895 was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, a registrar of births and deaths for a district, must forward to the Registrar all registers, register books and associated documents in his or her possession within 3 months of that commencement.

60. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The regulations may –
  - (a) provide that a contravention of, or a failure to comply with, any of the regulations is an offence; and
  - (b) in respect of such an offence, provide for the imposition of a fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

61. Savings provisions

- (1) A certificate or other document issued under the Marriages Registration Act 1962 or the Registration of Births and Deaths Act 1895 is taken to have been issued under this Act.
- (2) The Register of Marriages kept under the Marriages Registration Act 1962 and the registers kept under the Registration of Births and Deaths Act 1895 form part of the Register under this Act.
- (3) The person holding office as Registrar-General immediately before the commencement of this Act continues as the Registrar under this Act.

61A. Transitional provisions

- (1) If an application under section 23 –
  - (a) has been, before the gender amendments day, made in relation to a change of name of a person; and
  - (b) has not been determined before that day –

this Act, as in force after that day, applies in relation to the application and the Registrar is to advise the person that the person may make to the Registrar an application under section 46(9) as in force after that day.

- (2) If an application –

- (a) has been made under section 28A before the gender amendments day; and
- (b) has not been determined before that day –

the application lapses, but the Registrar must return to the applicant any fee paid by the applicant in relation to the application.

- (3) Subsection (4) applies in relation to an application under this Act if –
  - (a) the application is an application for the issue of a birth certificate or of an extract from the Register in relation to the registration of the birth of a person; and
  - (b) the application was made before the gender amendments day; and
  - (c) the application has not been, before that day, determined under this Act by issuing, or refusing to issue, a birth certificate or extract.
- (4) If this subsection applies in relation to an application –
  - (a) the application is to be taken to be an application under section 46 as in force immediately after the gender amendments day; and
  - (b) this Act, including section 46, as in force immediately after the gender
