- (2) Nothing in this section derogates from the operation of another provision of this Act.

PART 9 – FEDERAL JURISDICTION PROCEEDINGS

129. Interpretation

federal jurisdiction means jurisdiction of the kind referred to in section 75 or 76 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth;

rules of the Court means the rules of the Court made under the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) Act 1992; transferred proceedings – see section 131.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, a reference to the making of an application, or an application made, to the Tribunal is taken to include the referral of a matter to, or otherwise bringing of a matter before, the Tribunal.

130. Relationship of this Part to this Act and other laws

The provisions of this Part prevail to the extent of any inconsistency between those provisions and any other provisions of the relevant Act.

131. Transfer to Magistrates Court of applications involving federal jurisdiction

(1) If a person has standing to make an application to the Tribunal in the exercise of its original jurisdiction under section 72 or its review jurisdiction under section 74, the application

Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2020
Act No. 24 of 2020

s. 131

Part 9 – Federal Jurisdiction Proceedings

may, if the Tribunal orders under subsection (2) that proceedings on the application are to be transferred to the Magistrates Court, be determined by the Magistrates Court in accordance with this Part instead of the Tribunal.

- (2) If, following an application made to the Tribunal in the manner and form required under this Act for the kind of application concerned, the Tribunal considers that –
- (a) it does not have, or there is some doubt as to whether it has, jurisdiction to determine the application because its determination may involve the exercise of federal jurisdiction; and
 - (b) the Tribunal would otherwise have had jurisdiction enabling it to determine the application –

the Tribunal may order that proceedings on the application be transferred to the Magistrates Court.

- (3) Proceedings transferred to the Magistrates Court under subsection (2) are transferred proceedings.
- (4) If proceedings are transferred to the Magistrates Court under this Part –
- (a) the application made to the Tribunal will be taken to be duly made as an application to the Court; and

Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2020
Act No. 24 of 2020

- (b) the proceedings may be continued and completed as if steps taken in the proceedings prior to the transfer had been taken in the Court.
- (5) The fee payable in respect of the application is the prescribed fee (if any) payable to the Tribunal under this Act.
- (6) A party to the transferred proceedings is not required to pay any fees in relation to the transfer of the proceedings to the Magistrates Court unless the Court determines that additional fees are payable under the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) Act 1992 because of a substantial alteration in the nature of the claims in the proceedings.
- (7) An order made by the Tribunal under subsection (2) may not be the subject of review or appeal under Part 10.
- (8) The Magistrates Court may remit transferred proceedings to the Tribunal for determination if the Court is satisfied that the Tribunal has jurisdiction to determine the matter.
- (9) If the Magistrates Court remits transferred proceedings to the Tribunal, the Court may make the orders, if any, that it considers appropriate to facilitate the determination of the proceedings by the Tribunal.
- (10) The Tribunal must determine transferred proceedings that are remitted to it in accordance with any orders made by the Magistrates Court and must determine such proceedings in accordance with any such order.

132. Magistrates Court proceedings, jurisdiction, powers and functions, &c.

- (1) Transferred proceedings are taken to have been commenced in the Magistrates Court on the day on which the application to which the proceedings relate was first made to the Tribunal.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any limitation period under the Limitation Act 1974 or any relevant Act that applies to the application concerned, if the application was made to the Tribunal before the expiry of the period.
- (3) The Magistrates Court has, and may exercise, all of the jurisdiction, powers and functions in relation to the transferred proceedings that the Tribunal would have if it could exercise federal jurisdiction, including jurisdiction, powers and functions conferred or imposed on the Tribunal by or under this Act or a relevant Act.
- (4) The practices and procedures that apply to the Tribunal under this Act (including the Tribunal rules) or a relevant Act will apply to the Magistrates Court in respect of the transferred proceedings unless, and to such extent as, the Court determines otherwise.
- (5) The Magistrates Court may make the orders, including in relation to the Tribunal, that it considers appropriate to facilitate its determination of the transferred proceedings.

133. Modifications of certain functions, powers and procedures, &c.

- (1) Despite section 132, the following provisions apply in relation to transferred proceedings:

 - (b) subject to the provisions of a relevant Act and the rules of the Court, a party to the proceedings is entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner or, with leave of the Magistrates Court, by another person, but only in the circumstances that the Tribunal would be permitted to allow if the proceedings were before the Tribunal;
 - (c) the law applicable to reviews of, or appeals against, decisions of the Magistrates Court applies to decisions of the Court in the transferred proceedings instead of Part 10, but the Court may make an order staying the operation of the relevant decision, including the decision of a relevant decision-maker, until the proceedings are finally decided, on the conditions, if any, specified in the order;

 - (b) costs in transferred proceedings are to be assessed in the same way as they would be if the proceedings were before the Tribunal; and
 - (c) the Magistrates Court may direct the Tribunal to determine the costs to be awarded by the Magistrates Court in transferred proceedings and, if so directed, the Tribunal is to determine the costs accordingly and advise the Court of the costs.
- (3) The Magistrates Court –
- (a) must not make orders giving effect to any settlement if the settlement appears to the Magistrates Court to be inconsistent with this Act or a relevant Act; and
 - (b) may decline to make orders giving effect to any settlement –

- (i) on the basis that the settlement may materially prejudice any person who was not represented at a part of proceedings at which the settlement was reached but who has a direct or material interest in the matter; or
- (ii) if the Magistrates Court considers that the terms of the settlement are inappropriate.

134. Compulsory conferences and alternative dispute resolution

- (1) Subject to the provisions of a relevant Act, the Magistrates Court may, if the Court considers it is appropriate to do so, require the parties to transferred proceedings to –
 - (a) participate in an alternative dispute resolution process under section 102; or
 - (b) attend a compulsory conference conducted under sections 99 and 100.
- (2) The Magistrates Court may give to the Tribunal the directions that the Court considers appropriate in relation to the procedures and conduct of the alternative dispute resolution process or compulsory conference.

- (3) The extension by the Minister under subclause (2) of the period of 90 days referred to in subclause (1) is not necessary if all parties agree in writing to the extension of that period.
- (4) Subject to any determination by the Tribunal that evidence may be given in private, the Appeal Tribunal must ensure that every party to an appeal, or an application, before the Tribunal is given a reasonable opportunity to present the party's case and, in particular, to –

 - (b) make submissions in relation to the documents.
- (5) If a party to proceedings in relation to an appeal or an application who has had reasonable notice of the appeal or the application fails either to appear at a compulsory conference or an alternative dispute resolution process in relation to the appeal or at the hearing of the appeal or the application, the Tribunal may –

 - (b) it would not be unjust or inequitable to exercise the powers conferred by this subsection –

the Tribunal may excuse the failure by ordering that, subject to the conditions determined by the Tribunal, the requirement be dispensed with to the necessary extent.
- (7) If a person appeals, or makes an application, to the Tribunal and it appears to the Tribunal that –
 - (a) the appeal or application relates to an application (the relevant application) made, by one party to the proceedings in relation to the appeal or application, to another party to the proceedings; and

Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2020
Act No. 24 of 2020

sch. 2

- (b) the appeal or application could be resolved in a manner that is fair to all parties if certain modifications to the relevant application were made; and
- (c) it would be conducive to the expeditious administration of justice if the powers conferred by this subsection were exercised – the Tribunal may, by order, amend the relevant application accordingly.

- (5) If the Tribunal makes an order for costs under this clause before the end of any proceedings, it may require that the order be complied with before it continues with the proceedings.
- (6) An order for costs under this clause may be registered in a court having jurisdiction for the recovery of debts of the amount ordered to be paid by or under the order.
- (7) Proceedings for the enforcement of an order for costs under this clause may be taken as if the order were a judgment of the court in which the order is registered.

13. Refusal to answer question or produce document

- (2) If a person claims, before answering a question or producing a document in Resource and Planning stream proceedings, that the answer to the question or the production of the document might tend to incriminate the person, the answer or document is not admissible in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings other than proceedings under section 104(4)(e), or in other proceedings, in respect of the falsity of the answer or document.
- (3) A member, or a member of the staff of the Tribunal, is not required to give evidence to a court, tribunal or person having power to require the production of documents or the answering of questions, if the giving of the evidence was in relation to a hearing in Resource and Planning stream proceedings that were conducted in private in accordance with a direction under this Act or a relevant Act.
