Part II – General Police Provisions

13C. Possession of prohibited visual recording

- (1) A person who has in his or her possession a prohibited visual recording having reason to believe it to be a prohibited visual recording is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

- (1A) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is contravening subsection (1), the police officer may, without warrant and using such force, means and assistance as is reasonably necessary –
- (a) detain and search that person; and
 - (b) seize any prohibited visual recording found on that person or any item or instrument found on that person that the police officer considers could be used for storing a prohibited visual recording.
- (1B) The court may, if it considers any prohibited visual recording that was seized under subsection (1A)(b) may have been used during the commission of an offence against subsection (1), order that the prohibited visual recording be forfeited to the Crown.
- (1C) The court may make an order under subsection (1B) whether or not the person is convicted of an offence against subsection (1).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 13D

(1D) On conviction of a person of an offence against subsection (1), any prohibited visual recording seized under subsection (1A)(b) is forfeited to the Crown.

(2) In this section – prohibited visual recording has the same meaning as in section 13B.

13D. Persons who are not criminally responsible for an offence under section 13A or 13B

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence under section 13A or 13B if –

(a) the person is, at the time of the offence, a law enforcement officer acting in the course of the person's duties as such an officer; and

(b) the person's conduct is reasonable in the circumstances for the performance of those duties.

(2) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence under section 13A or 13B in relation to an observation or visual recording of another person who is in lawful custody if –

(a) the person is, at the time of the offence, acting in the course of the person's duties in relation to the other person's lawful custody; and vessel is taken, while remaining so attached, to be remaining in or on that land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

(2) A person who is convicted of an offence under this section is liable to a penalty of–

(a) a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, in respect of entering into or onto, moving into or onto, or remaining in or on, a dwelling-house; or

(b) 25 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, in respect of entering into or onto, moving into or onto, or remaining in or on, any other land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

(2AA) Despite subsections (2) and (2A), if the court that convicts a natural person of an offence under this section is satisfied that –

(a) the person, by or while committing the offence, substantially impeded, or prevented, another person from carrying out lawful work; and

(b) the person, by or while committing the offence, intended to substantially impede, or prevent, a person from carrying out lawful work – the person is liable to a penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 14B

(2ABA) Subsection (2AA) does not apply in relation to an offence committed by a natural person if the court that convicts the person of the offence is satisfied that –

(a) the offence was committed in the course of the person being engaged in an industrial dispute or an industrial campaign; and

(b) the person did not, by or while committing the offence –

(i) cause, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person; or

(ii) take an action that caused, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person.

(2AB) Despite subsections (2), (2AA) and (2A), if the court that convicts a natural person of an offence under this section is satisfied that the person, by or while committing the offence –

(a) caused, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person; or

(b) took an action that caused, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person –

the person is –

s. 14B

Part II – General Police Provisions

- (c) liable to a penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 18 months; or
 - (d) if the person has previously been convicted of an offence to which this subsection applies, liable to a penalty not exceeding 75 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 24 months.
- (2AC) Despite subsections (2) and (2A), if the court that convicts a person that is a body corporate of an offence under this section is satisfied that –
- (a) the person, by or while committing the offence, substantially impeded, or prevented, another person from carrying out lawful work; and
 - (b) the person, by or while committing the offence, intended to substantially impede, or prevent, a person from carrying out lawful work –
- the person is liable to a penalty not exceeding 250 penalty units.
- (2AD) Subsection (2AC) does not apply in relation to an offence committed by a person that is a body corporate if the court that convicts the body corporate of the offence is satisfied that –
- (a) the offence was committed in the course of the person being engaged in an industrial dispute or an industrial campaign; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 14B

(b) the person did not, by or while committing the offence –

(i) cause, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person; or

(ii) take an action that caused, directly or indirectly, a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person.

(2A) Despite subsection (2), if the court that convicts a person of an offence under this section is satisfied that the person –

(a) was in possession of a firearm during the actual commission of the offence; or

(b) made any use of an aircraft, vehicle or vessel during the actual commission of the offence –

the person is liable to a penalty not exceeding twice that provided for by subsection (2).

(2B) If subsection (2A)(a) applies to the convicted person, the court may, in addition to any other penalty it may impose, do either or both of the following:

(a) order that the firearm is forfeited to the Crown;

(b) cancel all or any of the licences or permits that the convicted person may hold under the Firearms Act 1996.

Police Offences Act 1935

s. 14B

Part II – General Police Provisions

- (2C) A firearm forfeited to the Crown pursuant to subsection (2B) is to be disposed of as the Commissioner determines.
- (3) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this section in respect of entering or remaining in or on the dwelling-house of another person, the court or one of the justices may issue a warrant addressed to all police officers commanding them to enter the premises and give the possession thereof to the complainant.
- (4) For the purpose of executing a warrant under subsection (3), every police officer may, if necessary, break and enter the premises to which the warrant relates and eject the person convicted and any other person therefrom.
- (5) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is contravening subsection (1), the police officer may, without warrant and using such force, means and assistance as is reasonably necessary –
 - (a) detain and search that person; and
 - (b) seize any firearm found in the possession of that person.
- (6) Section 68 applies if a firearm is seized under subsection (5).
- (7) For the purposes of this section, if a police officer –
 - (a) finds a person on part of an area of land to which a mineral tenement, within the meaning of the Mineral Resources Development Act 1995, relates; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (b) believes on reasonable grounds that the person is committing, in relation to that mineral tenement, an offence against section 23(3), 58(3), 67N(3) or 84(2) of that Act –

the holder of the mineral tenement is taken to be the person in charge of the part of the area of land while the person remains on the part of the area of land.

- (8) Nothing in subsection (7) is to be taken to limit the circumstances in which a person, including the holder of a mineral tenement in relation to an area of land, may be, for the purposes of this Act, the person in charge of an area of land.

14C. Names and addresses of offenders may be required

- (1) Where the owner or occupier of any land, his agent, or any person authorized in writing in that behalf by the owner or occupier of any land or his agent finds on that land another person in circumstances in which he believes on reasonable grounds that that other person is committing or has committed an offence under section 14B(1), he may require that other person to state his name and the address of his place of abode.
- (2) A person who fails or refuses to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or, in response to such a requirement, gives a name or address

(d) has committed or is likely to commit a breach of the peace.

(2) A person must comply with a direction under subsection (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 2 penalty units.

15C. Dangerous articles

(1) A person, without lawful excuse (proof of which lies on the person), must not have possession of, or carry or use, a dangerous article in a public place.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 2 years, or both.

(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to –

(a) a police officer acting in the performance of his or her duties; or

(b) a person, or group of persons, excluded in writing by the Commissioner from the application of that subsection.

(2) A police officer may stop, detain and search, without a warrant, any person in a public place whom the police officer reasonably believes has possession of, or carries, any dangerous article without lawful excuse and may stop, detain and search, without a warrant, the person's vehicle.

(3) A police officer may seize and detain any dangerous article found.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 15CA

Part II – General Police Provisions

- (4) A lawful excuse excludes self-defence but includes the following:
 - (a) the pursuit of a lawful occupation, duty or activity using that dangerous article;
 - (b) the participation in a lawful sport, recreation or entertainment using that dangerous article;
 - (c) the lawful collection, display or exhibition of that dangerous article;
 - (d) the use of that dangerous article for the lawful purpose for which it was intended;
 - (e) religious observance.
- (5) If a person is convicted or found guilty of an offence under this section, the dangerous article to which the offence relates is forfeited and may be disposed of as the court orders.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person who is in a motor vehicle in a public place is taken to be in the public place.

15CA. Graffiti and graffiti equipment

- (1) A person must not, without lawful excuse, mark graffiti.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

20B. Object of Division III

The object of this Division is to prevent serious criminal activity by deterring convicted offenders from establishing, maintaining and expanding criminal networks.

20C. Consorting

- (1) A convicted offender must not habitually consort with another convicted offender within 5 years after having been given under section 20D(2) an official warning in relation to the other convicted offender.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 150 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or both.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 20C

- (2) For the purposes of this section, a convicted offender does not habitually consort with another convicted offender unless the convicted offender consorts with the other convicted offender on at least 2 occasions within the 5-year period after having been given under section 20D(2) an official warning in relation to the other convicted offender.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of consorting under subsection (1) if the defendant satisfies the court that the consorting was any of the following kinds of consorting and was reasonable in the circumstances:
- (a) consorting with a family member;
 - (b) consorting that occurred in the course of –
 - (i) genuinely conducting a lawful business; or
 - (ii) being genuinely engaged in lawful employment – during work hours that were reasonable operating hours for that type of business or employment;
 - (c) consorting that occurred in the course of –
 - (i) attending premises genuinely for the purpose of receiving education or training that is recognised, or provided, under a law relating to training or education; or

(ii) attending premises with a dependant of the defendant who is receiving education or training that is recognised, or provided, under a law relating to training or education;

(d) consorting that occurred in the course of the defendant attending –

(i) a hospital, health clinic or dental surgery or a medical practice operated by a medical practitioner; or

(ii) a clinic, or offices, at or from which the services of a health care worker are provided; or

(iii) the professional suite of a person who is registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Tasmania) and is providing services to which the person's registration relates – for the purposes of the defendant receiving services, or enabling a dependant of the defendant to receive services, in relation to which a person may be registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Tasmania) or employed or engaged as a health care worker;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 20D

- (e) consorting that occurred in the course of the defendant attending the professional suite or office of a person who is registered or authorised under a law to work as a counsellor, psychotherapist or social worker, for the purposes of –
 - (i) receiving services from that person that are related to that registration or authorisation; or
 - (ii) accompanying a dependant of the defendant who is attending the suite or office for the purpose of the dependant receiving services from that person that are related to that registration or authorisation;
- (f) consorting that occurred in the course of obtaining, or attempting to obtain, legal advice from an Australian legal practitioner;
- (g) consorting that occurred in lawful custody or in the course of complying with a court order, a parole order or a probation order.

20D. Official warnings

- (1) A commissioned police officer, if satisfied that it is desirable to do so in furtherance of the objects of this Division, may authorise a convicted offender to be given a notice in writing (an official warning) specifying that –

Police Offences Act 1935

s. 20D

Part II – General Police Provisions

- (a) another convicted offender, named in the notice, is a convicted offender; and
 - (b) it is an offence to consort with the convicted offender within 5 years after having been given an official warning in relation to the offender; and
 - (c) the person may, within 28 days of receiving the notice, request under section 20D(3) of this Act, a review of the decision to authorise the official warning to be given to the person.
- (2) A police officer may, in person, give an official warning to a person to whom the official warning was authorised under subsection (1) to be given.
- (3) A person to whom an official warning has been given under subsection (2) may, within 28 days, by notice to the Commissioner, request a review of the decision to authorise the official warning to be given to the person.
- (4) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable after receiving from a person a notice under subsection (3) in relation to an official warning, require a police officer, who is of a higher rank than the commissioned police officer who authorised the official warning to be given, to review the decision to authorise the official warning to be given.
- (5) A police officer who is, under subsection (4), required by the Commissioner to review a decision to authorise an official warning to be given must, as soon as practicable, review the decision.

Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 20D

- (6) A police officer must, as soon as practicable after carrying out, in accordance with subsection (5), a review of a decision to authorise an official warning to be given to a person, give to the person –
- (a) a notice in writing –
 - (i) specifying that the police officer has conducted a review of the decision to authorise the giving of an official warning to the person; and
 - (ii) specifying that the police officer is of the opinion that the decision to authorise the giving of the official warning was appropriate; and
 - (iii) advising the person that the person may, within 28 days of receiving the notice, apply to a magistrate under section 20E(1) for a review of the decision to authorise the giving of the official warning; or
 - (b) a notice in writing –
 - (i) specifying that the police officer has conducted a review of the decision to authorise the giving of

Police Offences Act 1935

s. 20E

Part II – General Police Provisions

an official warning to the person;
and

(ii) revoking the official warning.

20E. Review of decision to authorise giving of official warning

- (1) A person who has been given a notice under section 20D(6)(a) in relation to an official warning given to the person under section 20D(2) may make an application to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) under the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) Act 2001 for a review of the decision under section 20D(1) to authorise the giving of the official warning to the person.
- (2) The following provisions of the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) Act 2001 do not apply in relation to an application referred to in subsection (1):
 - (a) Division 1 of Part 4;
 - (b) section 21;
 - (c) Subdivision 3 of Division 2 of Part 4.
- (3) For the purposes of section 17 of the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) Act 2001, the prescribed period, in relation to a decision under section 20D(1) to authorise the giving of an official warning to a person, is 28 days after the day on which a notice was given to

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part II – General Police Provisions

s. 20E

the person under section 20D(6)(a) in relation to the official warning.

- (4) The Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) is to determine an application made under subsection (1) in relation to a decision under section 20D(1) to authorise the giving of an official warning –
- (a) by confirming the decision to authorise the giving of the official warning; or
 - (b) by revoking the official warning.
- (5) In dealing with an application for a review under subsection (1), the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) –
- (a) is to ensure that it does not, in the reasons for its decision or otherwise, disclose the existence or content of any information that –
 - (i) is information, the disclosure of which may prejudice the operations of the police service or the safety of any person; or
 - (ii) has been withdrawn under subsection (8)(b); and
 - (b) in order to prevent the disclosure of information to which paragraph (a) applies, is to receive evidence, and hear argument, in relation to whether the information is such information, in the absence of the public, the applicant for

s. 20E

- the review and the applicant's representative; and
- (c) if the information may prejudice the operations of the police service or the safety of any person, is to receive such evidence, and hear argument, in relation to the information, in the absence of the public, the applicant for the review and the applicant's representative; and
- (d) if information has been withdrawn under subsection (8)(b) –
- (i) is not to take the information into account in determining the application for the review; and
 - (ii) is not to disclose the information to the public, the applicant for the review or the applicant's representative.
- (6) The Commissioner, or a commissioned police officer, may provide to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) a statement identifying, in relation to an application for review under subsection (1), the information, the disclosure of which, in his or her opinion, may prejudice the operations of the police service or the safety of any person.
- (7) The Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) is, in determining for the purposes of subsection (5) whether information is not to be disclosed, to have regard to whether the information has been identified in a statement provided to the Court under subsection (6).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (8) If information has been identified in a statement provided to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) under subsection (6) –
 - (a) the Court must, before disclosing the information, give the Commissioner, or a commissioned police officer, the opportunity to have the information withdrawn; and
 - (b) the Commissioner, or a commissioned police officer, may notify the Court that the information is withdrawn.

20F. Review of Division

- (1) The Ombudsman is to review the operation of this Division, and complete the review, within 4 years after the commencement of this Division.
- (2) The Minister is to cause a report on the outcome of the review to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 10 sitting-days of that House after the review is completed.

- property* includes all property and vegetation to which Chapter XXXI of Part VI of the Criminal Code applies.
- (3) A complaint made for the purposes of the Justices Act 1959 in relation to an offence against subsection (1) is to be made within 12 months after the date of the offence.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37A

PART IVA – OFFENCES INVOLVING VEHICLES

Division 1 – Motor vehicle stealing, &c.

37A. Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears

Australian driver licence has the same meaning as in the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999; authorized officer has the same meaning as it has in the Traffic Act 1925; court of summary jurisdiction means a court held by a magistrate sitting alone in petty session;

driver licence has the same meaning as in the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999; juvenile means a person who has not attained the age of 17 years;

owner, when used in reference to a motor vehicle or trailer, means –

- (a) a person registered in the record of motor vehicles and trailers kept in accordance with section 41 of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999 as the owner of the motor vehicle or trailer; or

Police Offences Act 1935

s. 37B

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (b) a person who is a joint owner or part owner of the motor vehicle or trailer – and includes –

- (c) any other person who has the use of the motor vehicle or trailer under a lease or hire-purchase agreement; and
- (d) a person to whom the motor vehicle or trailer has been sold or otherwise disposed of by a previous registered owner who has complied with the relevant provisions of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999; and
- (e) a person who a police officer reasonably believes is the owner of the motor vehicle or trailer; registered operator has the same meaning as in the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999.

37B. Motor vehicle stealing

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person who drives or uses a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner or registered operator of the vehicle or of some person who is lawfully in charge of the vehicle and has authority to give that consent is guilty of the offence of motor vehicle stealing.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to the driving or use of a motor vehicle by a police officer or an authorized officer acting in the execution of his duty.
 - (3) A complaint made for the purposes of the Justices Act 1959 in relation to an offence under this section is to be made within 12 months after the date of the offence.
 - (4) If the court before which a person is charged with an offence under this section considers that the offence is so serious that it should be tried on indictment –
 - (a) the offence is taken to be a crime under the Criminal Code; and
 - (b) the court is to proceed under Part VII of the Justices Act 1959.

37C. Procuring the hire or use of a motor vehicle by fraud, &c.

A person shall not procure the hire or use of a motor vehicle by means of fraud or misrepresentation.

37D. Summary prosecution of offenders

Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law in force or having effect in the State –

- (a) proceedings for an offence under section 37B or section 37C may be taken summarily and a person who is convicted

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37E

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

in any such proceedings may be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Part; and

- (b) a court of summary jurisdiction has jurisdiction to hear and determine any such proceedings and impose such penalties as are prescribed in this Part.

37E. Penalty

A person who is convicted of an offence under section 37B or section 37C is liable to a penalty not exceeding 50 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years.

37F. Disqualification from driving

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), where a person (not being a juvenile) is convicted of an offence under section 37B or section 37C, the court by which he is convicted may, in addition to any other penalty it imposes on him, order him to be disqualified from driving for such period as the court may determine.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), where a juvenile is convicted of an offence under section 37B or section 37C, the court by which he is convicted shall, in addition to any other penalty it imposes on him, order him to be disqualified from driving for such period as the court may determine.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37F

- (3) The period determined by a court under subsection (2) must be a period that begins after the juvenile attains the age at which he or she would, but for the disqualification, become eligible to hold a driver licence under the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999.
- (4) Where a person (whether a juvenile or not) is convicted of an offence under section 37B or section 37C and a compensation order is made against the person under section 98 of the Youth Justice Act 1997 or section 68 of the Sentencing Act 1997, the court by which he is convicted shall disqualify that person from driving until that person has paid in full the sum specified in that order.
- (5) When a court imposes a disqualification from driving under this section, it must suspend or cancel any Australian driver licence held by the person against whom the disqualification is imposed as required by section 17 of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999.
- (6) A court may, on the application of a person who is disqualified from driving under subsection (2) for a period beginning before he or she has obtained a driver's licence, revoke the disqualification.
- (7) The court may, under subsection (6), only revoke a disqualification if it is of the opinion that there is sufficient evidence of the rehabilitation of the applicant.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37G

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (8) Without limiting subsection (7), a court may consider that there is sufficient evidence of the rehabilitation of the applicant if the applicant has not committed an offence during the period of the disqualification.

37G. Requirement of owner or registered operator to provide details

- (1) Where a person is alleged to have committed an offence against any State or Commonwealth legislation as the driver or an occupant of a motor vehicle, the owner or registered operator of the motor vehicle, on demand by a police officer, must give to the officer all such information as the officer requires as to the identity and whereabouts of the driver or any occupant of the vehicle at any time relevant to the charge.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

- (2) A demand for information may be made orally or by a notice of demand served in accordance with section 37GA.
- (3) If a demand is made orally, a police officer is to serve a notice of demand in accordance with section 37GA as soon as practicable after making the demand.
- (4) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), if the owner or registered operator establishes that he or she has taken all

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37GA

reasonable steps to ascertain the information required under that subsection but has been unable to ascertain the information.

37GA. Notice of demand

- (1) A police officer may serve a notice of demand on the owner or registered operator of a motor vehicle if the police officer is satisfied that the driver or an occupant of that motor vehicle has committed an offence.
- (2) A notice of demand is to –
 - (a) indicate the offence to which it relates; and
 - (b) specify the registration number of the motor vehicle that was involved in the offence; and
 - (c) specify that the owner or registered operator is to provide to a police officer, within 7 days after the owner or registered operator is served with the notice, a statutory declaration stating –
 - (i) the name, address and, if known, the date of birth and driver licence number of the driver or occupant of the motor vehicle at the time the offence was committed; or
 - (ii) if the owner or registered operator does not know the

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37GB

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

details referred to in subparagraph (i) –

- (A) any information that may lead to the identification of the driver or occupant of the motor vehicle; or
 - (B) the reasonable steps that the owner or registered operator has taken to obtain such information.
- (3) An owner or registered operator must comply with the notice of demand.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

37GB. Statutory declaration naming driver or occupant of vehicle

A statutory declaration provided under section 37GA(2)(c) and naming the driver or an occupant of the motor vehicle at the time of the offence is prima facie evidence that the person so named was the driver or an occupant of the motor vehicle at that time.

37H. Application of section 18 of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999

Section 18 of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999 applies to the conviction of a person for an offence under section 37B or section 37C as it would apply if that offence were an offence under that Act.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37I

37I. Tampering with vehicles

- (1) A person must not unlawfully tamper or interfere with a motor vehicle or trailer.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) If a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is contravening or has contravened subsection (1), the police officer may, without warrant and using such force, means and assistance as is reasonably necessary –
- (a) detain and search that person; and
 - (b) seize any tools, equipment or materials found on that person that the police officer believes may have been used in the commission of the offence.
- (3) On conviction of a person of an offence against subsection (1), any tools, equipment or materials seized under subsection (2)(b) are forfeited to the Crown.

37J. Excessive noise, smoke, &c., from vehicles

- (1) A person must not, unless otherwise authorised under this or any other Act, operate or control a vehicle in a public place –
- (a) in a manner that makes or emits unnecessary and unreasonable noise; or

Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37JA

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

(b) in an unnecessary execution of speed, acceleration or sustained loss of traction; or

(c) in a race against another vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or both.

(2) A court that convicts a person of an offence under subsection (1) may, in addition to the penalty specified in that subsection, disqualify the person from driving for a period not exceeding 2 years.

(3) When a court imposes a disqualification from driving under this section, it must suspend or cancel any Australian driver licence held by the person on whom the disqualification is imposed as required by section 17 of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999.

37JA. Use of spotlights on vehicles on public streets

(1) A person must not, while a vehicle is on a public street, use or allow another person to use a lit spotlight that is affixed to or being carried on the vehicle unless –

(a) the vehicle is stationary and the spotlight is being used solely for the purposes of inspecting or repairing a vehicle or its engine, if any; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37JA

- (b) the spotlight is being used solely to illuminate street signs or street numbers in order to locate an address; or
- (c) the spotlight is being used solely for the purposes of legitimate infrastructure work.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a spotlight is to be taken as being carried on a vehicle if the spotlight is connected up, by any means, to a battery, generator or other source of power being carried on –
 - (a) the vehicle; or
 - (b) another vehicle to which the first-mentioned vehicle is connected.
- (3) To avoid doubt, this section does not apply to the use of lit spotlights by any of the following persons acting in the course of their duty:
 - (a) members of the Police Service;
 - (b) officers of the Ambulance Service under the Ambulance Service Act 1982;
 - (c) members of the Tasmania Fire Service established under the Fire Service Act 1979;
 - (d) members of the State Emergency Service within the meaning of the Emergency Management Act 2006;

Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37K

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

(e) prescribed persons.

(4) In this section –

legitimate infrastructure work means the inspection, maintenance and repair of traffic-related, electricity, gas, water or other infrastructure by or on behalf of the entity responsible for the maintenance and safety of that infrastructure;

on, a vehicle, includes inside a vehicle;

repairing, a vehicle, includes changing a tyre on the vehicle;

spotlight includes searchlight.

Division 2 – Confiscation and clamping of vehicles for certain offences

Subdivision 1 – Preliminary

37K. Interpretation of Division

(1) In this Division, unless the contrary intention appears – authorised period, of clamping or confiscation, means the period for which a vehicle may lawfully be clamped or confiscated under this Division; clamp, a vehicle, means immobilise the vehicle by means of a clamping device (and “clamped” has a corresponding meaning);

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37K

clamped vehicle means a vehicle clamped under section 37N;

clamping device means –

- (a) a wheel clamp, steering wheel clamp or other mechanical device for rendering a vehicle immobile; or
- (b) an electronic device for rendering a vehicle immobile;

confiscated vehicle means a vehicle and its keys confiscated under section 37N(1);

Court means the Magistrates Court; forfeiture order means an order, under section 37Y, for the forfeiture of a vehicle and its keys to the Crown;

key, to a clamping device, includes, in the case of an electronic clamping device, an electronic key;

notice, of clamping or confiscation, means notice under section 37T; offending driver – see section 37T(1)(a);

prescribed offence means an offence –

- (a) against section 14B involving the use of a vehicle, vessel or aircraft; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37L

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (b) against section 15B involving the use of a vehicle; or
 - (c) against section 37J; or
 - (d) against section 48; or
 - (da) against section 167A, 167B or 172A of the Criminal Code; or
 - (e) against section 32 of the Traffic Act 1925; or
 - (f) against section 11A of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000; or
 - (fa) against section 18B of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970; or
 - (g) that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) In the application of this Division to the offence referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of prescribed offence in subsection (1) – vehicle includes vessel and aircraft.

37L. Application of Division

- (1) This Division applies where a police officer reasonably believes a person is committing, or has committed, a prescribed offence.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37M

- (2) A reference in this Division to a prescribed offence is a reference to a prescribed offence committed after the commencement of this Division.
- (3) Nothing in this Division, except for section 37Y(3), affects the rights of a creditor under the National Credit Code as set out in Schedule 1 to the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 of the Commonwealth.

37M. Punishment under Division additional to other punishment

The confiscation or forfeiture of a vehicle or the imposition of a period of community service on a person under this Division arising out of the commission of a prescribed offence is in addition to any other penalty that may be imposed on the person for the prescribed offence.

37MA. Special compulsory penalty for prescribed offences

- (1) A court that convicts a person of a prescribed offence involving a vehicle must, if the vehicle was clamped or confiscated under this Division in connection with the prescribed offence, order the person to pay a special compulsory penalty.
- (2) The special compulsory penalty does not displace the penalty specifically prescribed elsewhere for the prescribed offence.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37N

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (3) The order to pay a special compulsory penalty is to be in addition to any other sentencing order the court may make in respect of the person for the prescribed offence, and the court must not take the person's liability to pay the special compulsory penalty into account in determining that other sentencing order.
- (4) This section has effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Sentencing Act 1997.
- (5) In this section –

special compulsory penalty means a fine of exactly such amount as the regulations prescribe for the purposes of this section.

Subdivision 2 – Clamping and confiscation of vehicles

37N. Clamping and confiscation of vehicles

- (1) A police officer who finds a person committing a prescribed offence involving a vehicle may –
 - (a) clamp the vehicle; or
 - (b) confiscate the vehicle and its keys and have it moved to a holding yard and held in accordance with this Division.
- (2) Where a police officer finds a person committing a prescribed offence involving a vehicle and does not clamp or confiscate the vehicle and its keys at the time (“time of offence”), the vehicle may be clamped or confiscated and its keys confiscated by a police officer at any time during

Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37N

the 90-day period immediately following the time of offence.

- (3) For the purpose of clamping or confiscating a vehicle, a police officer may –
- (a) direct the person in control of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and keep it stationary for as long as the officer reasonably requires; and
 - (b) direct the person in control of the vehicle, or in possession of the keys or any other thing necessary to enable the vehicle to be moved, to give the keys or other thing to the police officer; and
 - (c) enter the vehicle, with the use of reasonable force if necessary; and
 - (d) give any other direction or take any other action reasonably necessary for clamping or confiscating the vehicle and its keys.
- (3A) Without limiting subsection (3)(d) in its application to clamping, a police officer may, under that subsection, direct the person in control of the vehicle to ensure that the vehicle is available at a specified time and place so that it can be clamped at that time and place as provided by subsection (2).
- (4) A police officer is to move a confiscated vehicle, or arrange for it to be moved, to a holding yard in any way that the police officer considers appropriate.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37N

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (5) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (3) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.
- (6) A police officer may, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is necessary, enter any place where the police officer reasonably suspects that a vehicle used in the commission of a prescribed offence may be located and –
 - (a) clamp the vehicle; or
 - (b) confiscate the vehicle and its keys and have it moved to a holding yard and held in accordance with this Division.
- (7) A police officer may only exercise the authority conferred by subsection (6) within 90 days after the commission of the prescribed offence.
- (8) The owner, registered operator or person having charge of a vehicle that has been found by a police officer to have been used in the commission of a prescribed offence must, on the demand of any police officer, take that vehicle and its keys to a place specified by the police officer.
- (9) Where a vehicle has been taken to a place specified by a police officer, it is to be held in accordance with this Division.
- (10) Where a vehicle has been taken to a place specified by a police officer that is not a holding

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37N

yard, it may be taken to a holding yard and held in accordance with this Division.

- (11) Where any person is alleged to have committed a prescribed offence as the driver of any vehicle –
- (a) the owner or registered operator of the vehicle, on demand by any police officer, must give to the police officer all such information as the police officer may require as to the identity and whereabouts of the driver of the vehicle at any time relevant to the charge; and
 - (b) if any information so required is not known to the owner or registered operator, he or she must as soon as possible with all reasonable diligence (proof of which lies on that person) take steps to obtain the information, and must report to the police officer within 7 days, or sooner if practicable, the result of the steps so taken; and
 - (c) upon demand being made to any person by a police officer for any information within the person's knowledge as to the identity of the driver of the vehicle, or as to any fact which may lead to the identification of the driver, the person must give the information to the police officer.
- (12) If any person fails to comply with subsection (8) or any of the requirements of subsection (11) he or she is guilty of an offence.

s. 37O

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

37O. Period of clamping or confiscation for first prescribed offence

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) a police officer finds a person offending in respect of a prescribed offence; and
 - (b) the person has not previously been proceeded against by way of a complaint, or indictment, in respect of a prescribed offence.
- (2) The vehicle used in connection with the prescribed offence may be clamped or confiscated for a period of –
 - (a) 7 days if the prescribed offence is an offence against section 14B or 15B; or
 - (ab) 6 months if the prescribed offence is an offence against section 11A(2A) of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000; or
 - (b) 28 days in the case of any other prescribed offence.

37P. Period of clamping or confiscation for second prescribed offence

- (1) This section applies if –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37Q

- (a) a police officer finds a person offending in respect of a prescribed offence (referred to in this section as “the new prescribed offence”); and
- (b) the person has previously been proceeded against by way of a complaint, or indictment, in respect of a prescribed offence on one occasion.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the vehicle used in connection with the new prescribed offence may be clamped or confiscated for a period of 3 months unless otherwise extended under section 37T(3)(b).
- (3) If –
- (a) the new prescribed offence is an offence under section 11A(2A) of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000; and
- (b) the prescribed offence that the person has previously been proceeded against was also under that subsection – the vehicle used in connection with the new prescribed offence is to be clamped or confiscated for a period of 12 months unless otherwise extended under section 37T(3)(b).

37Q. Period of clamping or confiscation for third or subsequent prescribed offence

- (1) This section applies if –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37Q

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (a) a police officer finds a person offending in respect of a prescribed offence (referred to in this section as “the new prescribed offence”); and
 - (b) the person has previously been proceeded against by way of a complaint, or indictment, in respect of a prescribed offence on 2 or more occasions.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the vehicle used in connection with the new prescribed offence may be clamped or confiscated until –
- (a) the resolution of all existing charges against the person for those prescribed offences; and
 - (b) the determination of any forfeiture order made to the Court under section 37Y.
- (3) If the new prescribed offence is an offence under section 11A of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000 –
- (a) the vehicle used in connection with the new prescribed offence is to be clamped or confiscated until the resolution of all existing charges against the person for the new prescribed offence; and
 - (b) if the person –
 - (i) is found guilty of the new prescribed offence; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37QA

- (ii) has previously been proceeded against by way of complaint under the Justices Act 1959 in respect of 2 or more offences under section 11A of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000 –

the vehicle used in connection with the new prescribed offence is forfeited to the Crown and the Commissioner may sell or dispose of the vehicle, and anything in or on it, in a way the Commissioner considers appropriate.

- (4) Subdivisions 3 and 5 do not apply in respect of a vehicle forfeited to the Crown by virtue of subsection (3)(b).

37QA. Period of clamping or confiscation for evasion vehicle

- (1) This section applies if a police officer reasonably believes that a vehicle has been used in respect of section 11A of the Police Powers (Vehicle Interception) Act 2000 (referred to in this section as the evasion offence).
- (2) The vehicle used in connection with the evasion offence may be clamped or confiscated until the first of the following occurs:
- (a) the driver of the vehicle at the time of the evasion offence is identified;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37QB

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (b) an application made under section 37QB in respect of the vehicle has been determined;
 - (c) a period of 9 months has elapsed since the vehicle was clamped or confiscated under this section and an application has not been made under section 37QB in respect of the vehicle.
- (3) If the driver of the vehicle at the time of the evasion offence has not been identified and a period of 6 months has elapsed since the vehicle was clamped or confiscated under this section, a police officer may apply to the Court for the vehicle to be forfeited to the Crown in accordance with section 37QB.
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents the operation of this Part in respect of a person or a vehicle if –
- (a) the person is the driver of the vehicle at the time of the evasion offence; and
 - (b) section 37O, 37P or 37Q applies in respect of the person and the evasion offence.
- (5) Subdivisions 3 and 5 do not apply in respect of a vehicle to which this section applies.

37QB. Evasion vehicle may be forfeited

- (1) In this section –

evasion offence has the same meaning as in section 37QA;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37QB

affected vehicle means a vehicle to which section 37QA(3) applies.

- (2) A police officer may apply to the Court for an affected vehicle to be forfeited to the Crown if –
 - (a) the driver of the affected vehicle at the time of the evasion offence has not been identified; and
 - (b) a period of 6 months has elapsed since the vehicle was clamped or confiscated under section 37QA.
- (3) If the Court is satisfied that the driver of the affected vehicle at the time of the evasion offence has not been identified, the Court may make an order forfeiting the affected vehicle to the Crown.
- (4) If the Court makes an order under subsection (4) –
 - (a) the affected vehicle becomes the property of the Crown; and
 - (b) any right of a person to enforce a charge or other security interest registered under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth against a person other than the State, by taking possession of the affected vehicle, is extinguished.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may be applied for even though the value of the affected vehicle

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37R

may be more than the monetary jurisdiction of the Court.

- (6) Before an application for an order under subsection (4) has been determined, the owner or registered operator of the relevant affected vehicle may make a submission to the Court in respect of the application that the vehicle should not be forfeited under the order as the owner or registered operator has provided all such information that he or she has as to the whereabouts of the driver of the affected vehicle at the time of the evasion offence.
- (7) When determining an application for an order under subsection (4), the Court is to take into account all submissions made under subsection (6) in respect of the application.
- (8) Subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 do not apply in respect of a vehicle forfeited to the Crown by virtue of this section.

37R. Transportation of vehicle to holding yard

- (1) A police officer may arrange for a confiscated vehicle to be driven or transported to a holding yard.
- (2) A person responsible for driving or transporting a confiscated vehicle must drive or transport the vehicle –
 - (a) directly to a particular holding yard, if so directed by a police officer; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37S

- (b) if no such direction is given, directly to the holding yard to which the person usually transports confiscated vehicles.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

37S. Unlawful interference with, or removal of, confiscated vehicle

- (1) A person must not unlawfully interfere with a confiscated vehicle, or take a confiscated vehicle from the person responsible for driving or transporting it to a holding yard.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not unlawfully remove a confiscated vehicle from a holding yard.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (3) If there is a contravention of subsection (1), or a confiscated vehicle is unlawfully removed from a holding yard, a police officer may seize and move the vehicle to a holding yard.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a police officer may, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is necessary, enter any place where the police officer reasonably suspects that the vehicle may be located.

Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37SA

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

37SA. Unlawful interference with clamped vehicle, &c.

- (1) This section applies if a vehicle has been clamped by a police officer under this Division.
- (2) A person must not unlawfully drive or attempt to drive the clamped vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not unlawfully –
 - (a) interfere with the clamping device; or
 - (b) paint or mark the clamping device; or
 - (c) damage the clamping device; or
 - (d) destroy the clamping device; or
 - (e) release or attempt to release the clamping device; or
 - (f) remove or attempt to remove the clamping device from the vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (4) If there is a contravention of subsection (2) or (3), a police officer may seize the vehicle and have it moved to a holding yard.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a police officer may, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is necessary, enter any place where the police officer reasonably suspects that the vehicle may be located.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37T

- (6) The owner of a clamped vehicle may arrange for the vehicle to be transported to another location.
- (7) If a clamped vehicle is transported to another location, the owner of the vehicle must notify a police officer, within 3 days after the day on which it is transported to the other location, of the new location of the vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

37T. Notice of clamping or confiscation to be given

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after a vehicle is clamped or confiscated, a police officer is to give written notice of its clamping or confiscation to –
 - (a) the person in control of the vehicle at the time of the relevant prescribed offence (“the offending driver”); and
 - (b) any registered operator of the vehicle who can be ascertained after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (c) any owner of the vehicle who can be ascertained after reasonable inquiry.
- (2) The notice is to include the information required under section 37U, 37V or 37VA.
- (3) A police officer may amend a notice given under subsection (1) by changing the authorised period for which a vehicle is clamped or confiscated –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37U

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (a) in relation to a first prescribed offence, to a period not exceeding the period specified in section 37P in respect of the offence; and
 - (b) in relation to a second prescribed offence, until the resolution of all existing charges against the person for the prescribed offences and the determination of any forfeiture order made to the Court under section 37Y.
- (4) A police officer is to give the amended notice to the owner of the vehicle within 14 days of the date on which the notice was amended.

37U. Content of notice for first offence

A notice of clamping or confiscation where a person has committed, or has been charged with committing, a first prescribed offence is to include the following:

- (a) a statement that the vehicle is clamped or confiscated for the authorised period of clamping and confiscation (which period must be specified) and that it will not be sooner unclamped or released without the order of the Court or the written authority of a police officer of or above the rank of inspector;
- (b) directions as to how the clamped or confiscated vehicle may be unclamped or recovered;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37U

(c) in the case of a clamping –

- (i) a statement that, before the vehicle may be unclamped, the person seeking to have it unclamped will be required to produce to a police officer satisfactory evidence of identity; and
- (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37SA(2) and (3);

(d) in the case of a confiscation –

- (i) a statement that, before the vehicle may be recovered, the person seeking to recover it will be required to –
 - (A) produce to the person responsible for the holding yard satisfactory evidence of identity and, if applicable, written authority from the owner or registered operator of the vehicle to collect it; and
 - (B) pay the costs of moving the vehicle to, keeping the vehicle in and releasing the vehicle from the holding yard; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37V

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37S(1) and (2).

37V. Content of notice for second or subsequent offence

A notice of clamping or confiscation where a person has committed, or been charged with committing, a second or subsequent prescribed offence is to state the following:

- (a) the authorised period of clamping or confiscation;
- (b) that an application may be made to the Court by a police officer for the forfeiture of the vehicle;
- (c) that the offending driver or the registered operator or owner may apply to the Court, at any time before the application is heard and determined, for the unclamping or return of the vehicle until the application is heard and determined;
- (d) that, in support of an application under paragraph (c), the registered operator or owner may be required to produce satisfactory evidence as to the ownership of the vehicle;
- (e) that, if the vehicle is unclamped or returned under paragraph (c), the Court may impose conditions on its unclamping or return;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37V

(f) in the case of a clamping –

- (i) a statement that, before the vehicle may be unclamped, the person seeking to have it unclamped will be required to produce to a police officer satisfactory evidence of identity; and
- (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37SA(2) and (3);

(g) in the case of a confiscation –

- (i) a statement that, before the vehicle may be recovered, the person seeking to recover it will be required to –
 - (A) produce to the person responsible for the holding yard satisfactory evidence of identity and, if applicable, written authority from the owner or registered operator of the vehicle to collect it; and
 - (B) pay the costs of moving the vehicle to, keeping the vehicle in and releasing the vehicle from the holding yard; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37VA

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37S(1) and (2).

37VA. Content of notice for evasion offence

A notice of clamping or confiscation in respect of a vehicle clamped or confiscated under section 37QA is to state the following:

- (a) the authorised period of clamping or confiscation;
- (b) that each owner and registered operator of the vehicle is required to provide all such information that he or she has as to the whereabouts of the driver of the vehicle at the time of the offence in respect of which the car has been clamped or confiscated;
- (c) that an application may be made to the Court under section 37QB for an order for the forfeiture of the vehicle if the driver of the vehicle is not identified;
- (d) that the owner or registered operator of the vehicle may, at any time before an application under section 37QB is heard and determined in respect of the vehicle, make a submission that the vehicle should not be forfeited under that section;
- (e) in the case of a clamping –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37VA

- (i) that, before the vehicle may be unclamped, the person seeking to have it unclamped will be required to produce to a police officer satisfactory evidence of identity; and
 - (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37SA(2) and (3);
- (f) in the case of a confiscation –
- (i) that, before the vehicle may be recovered, the person seeking to recover it will be required to –
 - (A) produce to the person responsible for the holding yard satisfactory evidence of identity and, if applicable, written authority from the owner or registered operator of the vehicle to collect it; and
 - (B) pay the costs of moving the vehicle to, keeping the vehicle in and releasing the vehicle from the holding yard; and
 - (ii) notice of the offences (and penalties) under section 37S(1) and (2).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37W

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

37W. Advice to registered operator of date of hearing

As soon as reasonably practicable after a date is set for the hearing of an application for a forfeiture order for a clamped or confiscated vehicle, the Court is to give written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to –

- (a) the offending driver; and
- (b) any registered operator of the vehicle who can be ascertained after reasonable inquiry; and
- (c) any owner of the vehicle who can be ascertained after reasonable inquiry.

37X. Costs of confiscation

- (1) A vehicle confiscated under this Division is not to be returned until the costs of moving the vehicle to, keeping the vehicle in and releasing the vehicle from a holding yard have been paid.
- (2) If a person is found not guilty of the prescribed offence or offences for which they are charged, or the proceeding is withdrawn, the Crown is liable to pay the costs of moving, keeping and releasing the vehicle.

Subdivision 3 – Forfeiture orders

37Y. Application for forfeiture of vehicles

- (1) This section applies if –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37Y

- (a) a person (“offending driver”) has been found offending in respect of a prescribed offence by a police officer; and
 - (b) the vehicle used in connection with the prescribed offence has been clamped or confiscated pursuant to section 37N and, by virtue of the circumstances, section 37Q applies to the clamping or confiscation; and
 - (c) the offending driver has been convicted of the prescribed offence.
- (2) A police officer or any person prosecuting or who prosecuted a complaint in respect of a prescribed offence may, on the date of the conviction or at any time during the 14-day period immediately following the date of the conviction, apply to the Court –
- (a) for a forfeiture order in respect of the vehicle; or
 - (b) for the imposition of a monetary penalty not exceeding 100 penalty units on the offending driver.
- (3) If the Court is satisfied that the offending driver has been convicted of a prescribed offence on 3 or more occasions, inclusive of the conviction referred to in subsection (1)(c), the Court may –
- (a) make the forfeiture order; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37Y

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (b) impose a monetary penalty not exceeding 100 penalty units on the offending driver.
- (4) If the Court makes the forfeiture order –
 - (a) the vehicle becomes the property of the Crown; and
 - (b) any right of a person to enforce a charge or other security interest registered under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth against a person other than the State by taking possession of the vehicle is extinguished.
- (5) The forfeiture order may be applied for and made even though the value of the vehicle may be more than the monetary jurisdiction of the Court.
- (6) At any time before the application for the forfeiture order is heard and determined, the offending driver or the owner or registered operator of the vehicle (or any of those persons jointly) may apply to the Court for the unclamping or return of the vehicle.
- (7) The Court may, if satisfied on an application under subsection (6) that the clamping or confiscation of the vehicle is causing severe hardship to a person, order that the vehicle be unclamped or returned to its owner or registered operator until the application for the forfeiture order is heard and determined.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37Z

- (8) The Court may, on making an order under subsection (7), impose such conditions on the use of the vehicle as it considers appropriate.
- (9) If under subsection (7) the Court orders the return or unclamping of the vehicle –
 - (a) its owner must not sell or otherwise dispose of it, or substantially alter it, before the application for the forfeiture order has been determined or withdrawn; and
 - (b) its registered operator must not sell or otherwise dispose of it, or substantially alter it, before the application for the forfeiture order has been determined or withdrawn.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

37Z. Defence to show no knowledge and consent

- (1) In a proceeding for forfeiture of a clamped or confiscated vehicle, it is a defence for the registered operator or owner of the vehicle to show that the relevant prescribed offence happened without his or her knowledge and consent.
- (2) If a Court is satisfied that the defence referred to in subsection (1) is established, the Court is to order that the vehicle be unclamped or, as the case may be, returned to the registered operator or owner on payment of the costs payable under section 37X(1).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZA

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

37ZA. Powers for enforcing forfeiture order

If the Court orders the unclamping or return of a vehicle to its owner or registered operator and later makes a forfeiture order in respect of the vehicle, the Court is to, in the forfeiture order, authorise a police officer, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is necessary, to enter any place where the police officer reasonably believes the vehicle may be located and, as the case requires –

- (a) clamp the vehicle; or
- (b) seize the vehicle and move it to a holding yard.

37ZB. Third party protection from forfeiture order

- (1) A person, other than the defendant, who did not appear at the hearing of an application for forfeiture and has an interest in the relevant vehicle may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (5).
- (2) Unless the Court gives leave, the application must be made within 6 months after the day on which the forfeiture order was made.
- (3) Unless the Court gives leave, a person who was given notice of the application for forfeiture may not apply to the Court for an order under subsection (5).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZB

- (4) The Court may give leave for a later application if it is satisfied that the delay in applying was not due to the applicant's neglect.
- (5) On an application, an order may be made –
- (a) declaring the nature, extent and, if necessary for the order, the value (when the declaration is made) of the applicant's interest in the vehicle; and
 - (b) directing the Crown –
 - (i) if the vehicle is still vested in the Crown, to transfer the vehicle to the applicant; or
 - (ii) if the vehicle is no longer vested in the Crown, to pay to the applicant the value of the applicant's interest in the vehicle after taking into account any amount paid to the holder of a registered security interest under section 37ZL(1)(c).
- (6) The Court must, and may only, make the order if it is satisfied that –
- (a) the applicant has or, but for the forfeiture, would have had a lawful interest in the vehicle; and
 - (b) the relevant prescribed offence happened without the knowledge or consent of the applicant.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZC

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (7) For the purposes of an application under this Division, including an application for leave to apply –
- (a) the applicant must give notice of the making of the application to the Commissioner; and
 - (b) the party given notice is to be a party to the application.

- (8) In this section –

defendant means the person convicted of the prescribed offence in respect of which the forfeiture order was made;

relevant prescribed offence means the prescribed offence in respect of which the forfeiture order was made.

Subdivision 4 – Unclamping and recovery, &c., of vehicles

37ZC. Unclamping or recovery of vehicle clamped or confiscated for prescribed offence

- (1) This section applies if –
- (a) a notice of clamping or confiscation has been given under section 37U, 37V or 37VA in respect of a vehicle; and
 - (b) the authorised period of clamping or confiscation has expired.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZC

- (2) In the case of a clamped vehicle, an authorised claimant may, subject to the requirements of the notice, unclamp the vehicle by –
 - (a) collecting a key to the clamping device from a police station during normal business hours; and
 - (b) by means of the key, releasing the clamp and removing it from the vehicle; and
 - (c) returning both the clamping device and the key to a police station during normal business hours within 4 days of collecting the key to the clamping device.
- (3) In the case of a confiscated vehicle, an authorised claimant may, subject to the payment of the costs payable under section 37X(1) and the other requirements of the notice, recover the vehicle by –
 - (a) attending at the relevant holding yard during normal business hours; and
 - (b) removing the vehicle from that holding yard.
- (4) If, in the case of a clamped vehicle, no person seeks to have the vehicle unclamped within 10 days after the end of the authorised period of clamping, a police officer may unclamp the vehicle and retrieve the clamping device.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (4), the police officer may, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZC

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

necessary, enter any place where the police officer reasonably suspects the clamped vehicle may be located.

- (6) A person who collects a key to a clamping device as provided by subsection (2) is guilty of an offence if he or she –
- (a) fails, without reasonable excuse, to return the key and the clamping device as provided by that subsection; or
 - (b) damages the key or causes or allows another person to damage the key; or
 - (c) except on the express instructions of a police officer of or above the rank of inspector, lends the key to another person.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (7) A person must not, except on the express instructions of a police officer of or above the rank of inspector, copy or attempt to copy a key to a police clamping device.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (8) In this section –

authorised claimant, of a clamped or confiscated vehicle, means –

- (a) the offending driver; or
- (b) the owner or registered operator of the vehicle; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZD

- (c) a person who has the written authority of the owner or registered operator of the vehicle; police clamping device means a clamping device used by the Police Service for the purposes of this Division.

37ZD. Unclamping or recovery of vehicle clamped or confiscated for second or subsequent prescribed offence

- (1) If a vehicle is clamped or confiscated by a police officer under this Division, the person in control of the vehicle at the time of the prescribed offence, a registered operator or an owner may apply to the Court to have the vehicle unclamped or for the return of the vehicle.
- (2) If the Court is satisfied that the clamping or confiscation of a vehicle is causing, or will cause, severe hardship to a person, the Court may order that the vehicle be unclamped or returned to the registered operator or owner.
- (3) The Court may impose such conditions on an order under subsection (2) as it considers appropriate in the circumstances including conditions on the subsequent use of the vehicle.
- (3A) A person who fails or refuses to comply with a condition imposed under subsection (3) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZE

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (4) A person must not substantially alter, sell or otherwise dispose of a vehicle unclamped or returned under subsection (2) until the charge giving rise to the clamping or confiscation is determined.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

37ZE. Clamped or confiscated vehicle may be unclamped or returned in certain circumstances

- (1) If a police officer of or above the rank of inspector considers it necessary or desirable in the circumstances, he or she may authorise the immediate unclamping of a clamped vehicle or the immediate return of a confiscated vehicle on payment of the costs payable under section 37X(1), as determined by that police officer.
- (2) If a clamped or confiscated vehicle was, at the time of the prescribed offence, stolen or was being hired, the vehicle must be unclamped or returned to the registered operator or owner as soon as reasonably practicable during normal business hours.

37ZF. Unclamping or return of vehicle in case of severe hardship upon conviction

- (1) If the Court is satisfied that the clamping, confiscation or forfeiture of a vehicle will cause severe hardship to a person, the Court may, instead of ordering the clamping, confiscation or forfeiture, order that –

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZG

- (a) the vehicle be unclamped or returned to the registered operator or owner or to the offending driver; and
 - (b) the person convicted of the prescribed offence perform not more than 240 hours of community service.
- (2) If the Court makes an order under subsection (1), the vehicle must be unclamped or returned as soon as reasonably practicable.

37ZG. Return of vehicle if offending driver not convicted, &c.

- (1) This section applies if –
- (a) under this Division, a vehicle is clamped or confiscated by a police officer consequent on finding a person committing a prescribed offence; and
 - (b) the person is not convicted of the prescribed offence or proceedings in respect of the prescribed offence are for any reason not instituted or are discontinued; and
 - (c) the vehicle is not the subject of another clamping or confiscation order, or a forfeiture order, under this Division.
- (2) The vehicle must be unclamped or returned to its owner or registered operator or to the offending driver as soon as reasonably practicable during normal business hours.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZH

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

Subdivision 5 – Disposal of vehicles, &c.

37ZH. Disposal of confiscated vehicle

- (1) If, within 2 months after the authorised period of confiscation of a vehicle ends, the vehicle is not recovered, the Commissioner may sell or dispose of the vehicle and anything in or on it in a way the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (2) The Commissioner must –
 - (a) advertise the proposed sale or disposal in a newspaper circulating in the locality where the vehicle was confiscated; and
 - (b) give written notice of the proposed sale or disposal of the vehicle to the registered operator if the registered operator can be found.

37ZI. Disposal of forfeited vehicle

- (1) The Commissioner may sell a vehicle forfeited to the Crown under this Division or otherwise dispose of it in a way the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (2) Before the vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of, the registered operator or a person authorised by the registered operator may remove any contents from the vehicle that are not part of the vehicle or attached to it.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZJ

37ZJ. Voluntary transfer of ownership of vehicle to Crown

- (1) If a clamped or confiscated vehicle is not subject to any interest, charge, lien or encumbrance, the owner may agree to transfer ownership of the vehicle to the Crown at any time during the authorised period of clamping or confiscation.
- (2) The agreement is to be written and witnessed by a person who may witness a statutory declaration.
- (3) If the Crown agrees in writing to the transfer of the vehicle –
 - (a) the vehicle becomes the property of the Crown; and
 - (b) the Commissioner may sell or dispose of the vehicle and anything in it or on it in a way the Commissioner considers appropriate; and
 - (c) before the vehicle is transferred, the owner or a person authorised by the owner may remove any contents from the vehicle that are not part of the vehicle or attached to it.

37ZK. Clamped or confiscated vehicle not to be sold or disposed of A person must not –

- (a) sell or otherwise dispose of a clamped or confiscated vehicle; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 37ZL

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

- (b) tamper with, interfere with or alter a clamped or confiscated vehicle –

during the authorised period of clamping or confiscation or whilst the vehicle is subject to a Court order under this Act.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

37ZL. Application of proceeds of sale

- (1) If the Commissioner sells a vehicle under section 37ZH or 37ZI, the proceeds of the sale of the vehicle are to be paid as follows:
- (a) firstly, in payment of the expenses of the sale;
 - (b) secondly, in payment of the costs of and incidental to confiscating and keeping the vehicle;
 - (c) thirdly, if there is an amount owing to a person under a security interest registered for the vehicle under the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth, in payment of the amount owing to the holder of the security interest;
 - (d) fourthly –
 - (i) if the vehicle is sold under section 37ZH, to the owner; or

Act No. 44 of 1935

Part IVA – Offences Involving Vehicles

s. 37ZLA

- (ii) if the vehicle is sold under section 37ZI, to the Public Account.
- (2) Compensation is not recoverable against the Crown in relation to a payment made under this section.

Subdivision 6 – Miscellaneous

37ZLA. Power of Commissioner to authorise unclamping

- (1) The Commissioner may give a police officer or other person approval to unclamp a vehicle (an “unclamping approval”) –
 - (a) at the end of the authorised period of clamping; or
 - (b) at any other time if the Commissioner considers it necessary or expedient to do so under or for the purposes of this Division.
- (2) An unclamping approval may be given subject to such technical, time, reporting and other conditions as the Commissioner thinks fit.
- (3) A police officer executing an unclamping approval may, unless it expressly provides otherwise, without warrant and using such reasonable force, means and assistance as is necessary, enter any place where the police officer reasonably suspects that the vehicle to be unclamped may be located.

PART V – OFFENCES INVOLVING DISHONESTY

38A. Making off without payment

- (1) A person who knows that payment on the spot for goods supplied or services done is required from that person shall not dishonestly make off without having paid as expected.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) payment on the spot includes payment at the time of collecting goods on which work has been done or in respect of which service has been provided.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply –

(a) if the supply of the goods or the doing of the service was contrary to law; or

(b) if the service done is such that payment is not legally enforceable.

- (4) Any person may arrest without warrant anyone who is, or whom that person, with reasonable cause, suspects to be, committing or attempting to commit an offence under this section.

38B. Stealing with force

- (1) A person must not use, or threaten to use, force on any person in order to steal, or unlawfully obtain, property.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or both.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether the use, or threat, of force occurs immediately before, during or immediately after the time when the property was stolen or unlawfully obtained.

39. Possession of stolen property

- (1) A person must not have possession or control of, or have had possession or control of, any property that is reasonably believed by a police officer to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained.

- (1A) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) for a person to provide a satisfactory account of possession or control of the property.

- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding –

- (a) 12 months for a first offence; or
(b) 2 years for a second or subsequent offence.

42. Taking or using animal, vehicle, or vessel without owner's consent

(1) A person shall not take or use any animal that is the property of another person without –

- (a) the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof; or
- (b) other lawful excuse.

(1A) A person who contravenes a provision of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to –

- (a) a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, for a first offence; or
- (b) a penalty not exceeding 20 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, for a second or subsequent offence.

(2) A person shall not –

- (a) take or use any vehicle (other than a motor vehicle within the meaning of the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999); or
- (b) take or use any vessel within the meaning of the Marine and Safety Authority Act 1997– that is the property of any other person without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof.

Part V – Offences Involving Dishonesty

s. 42

- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), a person who contravenes a provision of subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to –
- (a) a penalty not exceeding 10 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, for a first offence; or
 - (b) imprisonment for a term of not less than 12 months or more than 2 years, for a second or subsequent offence.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), where a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (2) by taking or using a wheelbarrow, hand cart, bicycle, or other like vehicle the penalty, whether for a first or subsequent offence, shall not exceed 3 penalty units or 3 months' imprisonment.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), where a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (2), having previously been convicted of an offence thereunder, the court before which he is convicted, if it thinks it reasonable so to do, having regard to all or any of the following matters, namely:
- (a) The time that has elapsed since the commission of a previous offence;
 - (b) The character, antecedents, age, health, or mental condition of that person; and
 - (c) Any other special circumstances –

Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 43

Part V – Offences Involving Dishonesty

may impose on that person such penalty being less than the penalty prescribed by paragraph (b) of subsection (3) as the court may consider just and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case, but the court shall not in any such case impose a penalty of lesser severity than the fine prescribed in respect of a first offence against subsection (2).

- (6) Nothing in this section affects the law of marine salvage.

43. Finding property

- (1) A person finding and taking possession of any money, goods, or chattels shall not fail to convey and deliver the same to a neighbouring police station within 7 days after such taking of possession, unless, if the owner is known to that person, he or she has within that time restored the same to such owner.
- (1A) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one penalty unit.
- (2) A person shall not apply to his own use or dispose of, otherwise than in pursuance of subsection (1), any money, goods, or chattels found by him.
- (2A) A person who contravenes subsection (2) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding 2 penalty units.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (3) The court may order any person convicted before it of an offence against subsection (2) to pay to the owner of the property such sum not exceeding $1 000, as the court considers to be the value of the property, and such sum shall be recoverable as part of the penalty.

- (4) When any such property as aforesaid is brought to a police station, the police officer in charge shall forthwith receive the same and enter in a book to be kept in the police station for that purpose a description thereof, together with the name and address of the person by whom the same was brought to the station. The property so entered shall be delivered to the person who proves to the satisfaction of a justice, a police officer of or above the rank of inspector or the police officer in charge of the station that the same belongs to him, such person previously paying all such reasonable expenses, if any, incurred by the finder or in respect of any advertisement or otherwise, as such justice may award.

- (5)

- (6) Any such property as aforesaid to which no claim has been established within 3 months after the same has been brought to a police station shall be returned to the person by whom it was so brought, if he applies for the same within one month after the expiration of such 3 months and satisfies a justice, a police officer of or above the rank of inspector or the police officer in charge of the station that he did not come by it by any means that were not lawful; and in default the

PART VI – MISCELLANEOUS OFFENCES

Division I – Bogus advertisements and false notices

44. Bogus advertisements

- (1) A person shall not tender for insertion, or cause to be inserted, in a newspaper a bogus advertisement, knowing it to be a bogus advertisement.
- (2) A person, being the printer or publisher of a newspaper, having received from a person to whom or to whose affairs a bogus advertisement relates, or from a police officer, a request in writing within 3 months after the publication of the advertisement to furnish the name of the person who sent or delivered it for publication shall not fail to furnish the name of the last-mentioned person in accordance with that request.
- (2A) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.
- (3) In this section –

bogus advertisement means an advertisement or a notice that contains any material false statement or representation with respect to any birth, death, engagement, marriage, or employment, or with respect to any matter concerning any person, or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 44A

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

the property of any person, other than the person who tenders the advertisement or notice for insertion, or causes it to be inserted, in a newspaper;

44A. False reports to police

- (1) A person shall not, falsely and with knowledge of the falsity of his statement, represent to any police officer or any person employed in the Department that any act has been done, or that any circumstances have occurred, which act or circumstances as so represented are such as reasonably call for investigation by the police.
- (1AA) A person must not, falsely and with knowledge of the falsity of his or her statement, represent to any person that an act has been done, or that any circumstances have occurred, which as so represented are reasonably likely to cause that person to notify the police and it is reasonably likely that the police will investigate the act or circumstances.
- (1A) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (1AA) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding 100 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.
- (2) In any proceedings instituted against any person under this section, the court, on the application of the complainant, may order that, in addition to or instead of a penalty, the offender shall pay to the complainant a reasonable sum for the expenses of or incidental to any investigation made by reason of such offence.

Act No. 44 of 1935

- (3) Any amount received by the complainant under this section shall be paid by him into the Public Account.
- (4) This section shall not be held to restrict the operation of any other Act or rule of law.

Division II –

Division IIA – Setting of traps

46A.

Division III – Motor-vehicle races and reliability trials

47. Interpretation

In this Division –

crash has the same meaning as in the Road Rules;

motor-vehicle race includes–

- (a) any race or competition in which two or more motor-vehicles compete or take part, whether or not at one and the same time, and in the result of which the actual

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 48

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

speed of such motor-vehicles is a determining factor;

- (b) any test to which a motor-vehicle is subjected for the purpose of ascertaining, either alone or in conjunction with other matters, its actual speed capabilities; and
- (c) the use of any motor-vehicle in any practice at the place where, or over any part of the course on which, any such race, competition, or test is to take place –

but does not include the use of a motor-vehicle, on a public street, for reconnaissance or familiarisation purposes at the place where, or over any part of the course on which, any such race, competition or test is to take place with a view to the participation in that race, competition or test of a motor-vehicle or person.

48. No motor-vehicle race to be held without a permit

- (1) A person shall not hold, or be concerned in the holding of, or compete or take part in, any motor-vehicle race unless a permit for the holding thereof has been previously granted by the Commissioner, and then only in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in such permit.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (2) A person who contravenes a provision of subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units.

49. Power of Commissioner of Police to grant permit

- (1) The Commissioner may grant to any person a permit for the holding of any motor-vehicle race, and every such permit—
 - (a) shall specify the day and hours on and between which respectively, and the place in or upon which, the race may be held; and
 - (b) may impose such conditions as to the holding thereof as the Commissioner shall determine and specify in the permit.
- (2) If such permit is granted in respect of any public street within the meaning of the Traffic Act 1925, the rate or speed of any motor-vehicle competing or taking part in any race to be held under the permit may, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, exceed, to the extent mentioned in the permit, the limit prescribed by such law.
- (3) Where the Commissioner grants a permit to a person under this section, that person shall pay to the Commissioner the prescribed fee.
- (3A)
- (4) No permit granted under this section authorising the holding of a motor-vehicle race is of any

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 49

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

effect unless there is in force in relation to that race a policy of insurance that complies with the requirements of this section.

- (5) Subject to subsection (6), in order to comply with the requirements of this section a policy of insurance must be a policy that –
- (a) the Motor Accidents Insurance Board confirms is issued by an insurer, or arranged by a broker, authorised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority to provide, or renew, insurance in Australia; and
 - (b) provides for insurance covering liability in respect of any person taking part in the motor-vehicle race jointly and each of them severally (including liability for costs) that may be incurred by any such person, whether jointly with any other person or severally –
 - (i) in respect of the death or bodily injury to any person caused by or arising out of the use of a motor-vehicle which is competing or taking part in that motor-vehicle race; and
 - (ii) where the race takes place on any public road or thoroughfare, insurance covering damage or injury to any property other than a motor-vehicle competing or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

s. 49

taking part in a race arising from such use.

(6) A policy of insurance issued for the purposes of subsection (5) shall not be required to provide for–

(a) the payment by the insurer of any sum exceeding–

(i) the prescribed amount in respect of any claim in respect of the death of, or bodily injury to, any one person; or

(ii) the prescribed amount in respect of all claims arising out of the same crash in respect of the death of, or bodily injury to, more persons than one; or

(iii) the prescribed amount in respect of all claims arising out of the same crash in respect of damage or injury to property; or

(b) any contractual liability–

but shall provide for the payment of funeral expenses of any person dying as the result of any crash to which the policy relates.

(7) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law to the contrary, an insurer who issues a policy of insurance under or for the purposes of this section is liable to indemnify any person taking part in the motor-vehicle race, and, on his death,

s. 49AB

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

- (d) a road cycle race;
- (e) a road cycle event.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A permit for this section may be issued by a senior police officer and any person may apply in writing for such a permit.
- (3) In the case of fundraising –
 - (a) a permit may only be issued to or in respect of an organisation that is permitted under section 5 of the Collections for Charities Act 2001 to solicit funds or contributions for a charitable purpose; and
 - (b) the number of fundraising days authorised by permit in any one city or town in any one year is not to exceed, in aggregate, 45 or, if another number of days is prescribed, the prescribed number.
- (4) In determining whether or not to grant an application for a permit, a senior police officer may consider –
 - (a) the safety and convenience of the public; and
 - (b) the arrangements made for the safety and convenience of participants in the proposed activity; and

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Part VI – Miscellaneous Offences

s. 49AB

- (c) such other considerations as appear relevant having regard to the time and nature of the proposed activity and its location or, if applicable, its route.
- (5) A permit –
- (a) is to be in such form as the senior police officer issuing it determines; and
 - (b) may be made subject to such conditions as that officer considers necessary or expedient for the safety and convenience of participants and the public, including, if applicable, conditions about public notification, compliance with police directions, marshals and escort vehicles; and
 - (c) may be made subject to a condition that the organisers of the activity enter into a policy of insurance regarding any deaths, personal injuries or property damage that may arise from the activity; and
 - (d) must specify the name of the permit holder and the name, or a description, of the activity for which it is issued; and
 - (e) must specify the location or, if applicable, route of the activity for which it is issued and the date, dates or period when that activity will be held.
- (6) A permit for a road cycle race may, if the issuing senior police officer considers it necessary or expedient to do so, provide that any escort

s. 55

Part VII – Powers of Police Officers and Other Persons

PART VII – POWERS OF POLICE OFFICERS AND OTHER PERSONS

Division I – Arrest

55. Arrest

- (1) Any police officer may arrest, without warrant, any person found offending against any of the provisions of –
 - (a) Division I of Part II;
 - (b) Parts III to V; or
 - (c) section 15B, 15C, 15D or 15F; or
 - (ca) section 20K; or
 - (d) section 37J(1).
- (2) Where a police officer is empowered to arrest any such person, it is the duty of such officer to exercise such power unless he has reasonable grounds for believing that the purposes of this Act, or of the Act conferring such power, as the case may be, will be adequately served by proceeding against the offender by summons.
- (2A) A police officer may arrest, without warrant, any person found offending against section 14A.
- (2B) Subject to subsection (2C), a police officer may arrest, without warrant, any person whom he believes on reasonable grounds to be on or in any land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel without the consent of the owner, occupier or person in charge of the land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (2C) The power of arrest conferred by subsection (2B) is not exercisable –
- (a) unless the police officer has previously requested the person in relation to whom he seeks to exercise the power to leave the land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel concerned and that person has refused or failed to comply with the request or, having complied with the request, returns to the land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel concerned within 14 days after so complying without the consent of the owner or occupier; or
 - (b) if the police officer has reasonable grounds for believing that that person has some reasonable or lawful excuse for being on or in that land, building, structure, premises, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.
- (2D) A police officer may, without warrant, arrest any person whom the police officer has reasonable grounds for believing has committed an offence under section 6A(14) or (15), section 6C, section 6D, section 13A, section 13B, section 13C, section 15CA(1), section 20C(1), section 21, section 21A, section 35, section 37AA(1), section 37B, section 37S(1) or (2), section

(2E) A police officer may, without warrant, arrest a person to facilitate the making of an application for a restraint order under Part XA of the Justices Act 1959 or a family violence order, if the police officer has reasonable grounds for believing—

- (a) that the person has intimidated another person; and
- (b) that the intimidation is likely to continue and give rise to an assault.

(2F) For the purposes of subsection (2E), intimidation may be verbal, physical or both verbal and physical.

(2G)

(3) Any person may arrest, without warrant, any person found offending against any provision of this Act if such offence involves –

- (a) substantial injury to the person of another;
- (b) serious danger of such injury;
- (c) loss of any property of the person so arresting, or of any person by whom he is authorized to effect the arrest; or loss of any property of which the person arresting has charge;
- (d) serious injury to any property; or

Act No. 44 of 1935

- (e) injury to the property of a public authority.

- (3A) The power of a police officer to arrest a person under this section is subject to the limits imposed on the power of arrest by sections 24 and 24A of the Youth Justice Act 1997.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, an offence shall be deemed to involve any of the matters specified in subsection (3) if the person arresting has reasonable grounds for believing that such matter has been, or will be, the consequence of any act of the offender in committing such offence.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is said to be “found offending” if he does any act, or makes any omission, or conducts or behaves himself, and thereby causes a person who finds him reasonable grounds for believing that he has, in respect of such act, omission, or conduct, committed an offence against this Act.

55A. Names and addresses of offenders

- (1) If a police officer becomes aware that, or has reasonable grounds for believing that, a person has committed or is committing an offence, the police officer may require that person to state his or her name and address.

- (2) If a police officer becomes aware that, or has reasonable grounds for believing that, a person is likely to commit an offence against section 15B,

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 56

Part VII – Powers of Police Officers and Other Persons

the police officer may require that person to state his or her name and address.

- (3) A person who fails or refuses to comply with a requirement referred to in subsection (1) or (2) or, in response to such a requirement, states a name or address that is false, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding 10 penalty units.
- (4) A police officer making a requirement under subsection (1) or (2) may arrest, without warrant, a person who fails or refuses to comply with that requirement or who, in response to the requirement, gives a name or address that the police officer has reason to believe is false.

56. Procedure on arrest

- (1)
- (2) It is the duty of every police officer to receive into custody any person arrested by a private person charged with an offence.

Division II – Entry and search

57. Power of police officers to enter certain places

- (1) Any police officer of the rank of commander, inspector, or sergeant of police shall have power at any time to enter any building or part of a building, or other place, of the following description, namely:

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (a) Any place used for the purpose of any public entertainment, or for any public show or exhibition;
 - (b) Any singing or dancing saloon, oyster-store, fishshop, restaurant, tea-room, or other such place;
 - (c) Any house or building in which any alcoholic liquor is sold, whether such house or building is licensed or not;
 - (d) Any house usually frequented by thieves or disorderly persons;
 - (e) Any building or part of a building which is kept or used for a purpose in respect of which a licence is required by the provisions of any Act; or
 - (f) Any vessel or aircraft not employed in His Majesty's service.
- (2) The powers conferred by subsection (1) on the officers therein specified may be exercised by any police officer who is authorized in that behalf either specially or generally by the Commissioner or a police officer of the rank of commander.
- (3) The keeper of any such building or other place, as aforesaid, or any servant or other person having the charge thereof, or the master or other person having charge of such vessel or aircraft, shall admit such police officer of the rank of commander, inspector, sergeant, or police officer when required.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 57A

Part VII – Powers of Police Officers and Other Persons

- (4) A person who fails to comply with subsection (3) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one penalty unit.

57A. Searching of hawkers, &c.

- (1) Any police officer may search a hawker's pack if he has reason to suspect that it contains goods which are stolen or which it is unlawful for the hawker to sell.

- (2) For the purposes of this section – hawker includes pedlar;

pack includes any vehicle or container used by a hawker to carry the goods he hawks.

57B.

58. Search of persons for poison

- (1) Any police officer, who has reasonable grounds for believing that any person has in his possession any poisonous thing contrary to the provisions of section 19, may search such person, and may seize and detain any such poisonous thing which he may find upon such search.
- (2) Such police officer may require any person so found in possession of any such poisonous thing to tell his full name and place of abode, and, in case such person fails to tell his real name and place of abode or gives such general description of his place of abode as is illusory for the purposes of discovery, the police officer may arrest such person and cause him to be brought as soon as conveniently may be, before a justice to be dealt with according to law.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

58A. Power to search for liquor

- (1) Where a police officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person is contravening or is about to contravene section 13(1), (2), (2A), (2B), (2C) or (3), section 25 or section 26, the police officer may—
 - (a) detain and search that person; and
 - (b) seize any liquor found in the possession of that person.
- (2) A police officer may at any time dispose of any liquor seized under subsection (1) that is in an opened or unsealed container.
- (3) If any liquor seized under subsection (1) in relation to an offence against section 13(1), (2) or (3), section 25 or 26 is in an unopened or sealed container, the person from whom the liquor was seized is entitled to have the liquor returned to him or her on request made at least 2 days and not more than 7 days after the liquor was seized.
- (4) A request under subsection (3) is to be made to a police officer at the police station nearest to the

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 58B

Part VII – Powers of Police Officers and Other Persons

place where the liquor was seized or at such other police station as a police officer may reasonably direct.

- (5) Where a request is made under subsection (3), a police officer must make the liquor to which the request relates available for collection by the person who made the request on the next day when the relevant police station is open to the public and during the hours when it is so open or at such other time as may be agreed.
- (6) A police officer may dispose of any liquor referred to in subsection (3) that is not the subject of a request under that subsection or that is not collected as mentioned in subsection (5).

58B. Search of accused person in custody

- (1) If a police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to search a person who is in lawful custody, a police officer may search that person –
 - (a) for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is concealed on that person or in that person's clothing a weapon or other article capable of being used to inflict injury or to assist that person to escape from custody; or
 - (ab) for the purpose of removing into safe keeping any other articles belonging to, or in the possession of, the person; or

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (b) for the purpose of obtaining evidence relating to the commission of the offence or preventing the loss or destruction of such evidence.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not authorise a police officer to require a person to remove any clothing unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that the removal may provide evidence of the commission of an offence.
- (3) A police officer may take and retain –
 - (a) any weapon or article found as a result of the search under subsection (1)(a); and
 - (b) any article of clothing removed under subsection (2).
- (4) A police officer may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of exercising powers under this section.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a search of a person in lawful custody in any circumstances where it is otherwise lawful to search the person.

Division III – Search warrants

59.

60. Commissioner’s warrant

- (1) It shall be lawful for the Commissioner to issue to any police officer a general warrant, in the appropriate form set forth in Schedule II,

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 61

Part VII – Powers of Police Officers and Other Persons authorizing such officer to search for stolen property.

- (2) Every such warrant shall be signed by the Commissioner personally, and shall remain in force, unless sooner revoked, for 6 months from the date thereof, or for such shorter period, if any, as may be specified therein, and shall authorize the officer therein named to exercise the powers therein set forth.
- (3) The Commissioner, at any time, may revoke any general warrant issued by him.

Division IV – Infringement notices

61. Infringement notices

- (1) Where a police officer is satisfied that a person has committed an offence against section 12(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), section 13(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f), (2), (4), (6) or (7), section 14B, section 15B, section 15CA(1) or (4), section 16(1) or (2), section 19A(1), section 25(2) or (3), section 26(1) or (2), section 37G(1), section 37GA(3), section 37JA, section 41, section 48, section 49AB(1) or (8) or section 49B, he or she may serve on that person an infringement notice in respect of that offence by delivering it to that person or by sending it to that person by post.
- (2) An infringement notice is to be in accordance with section 14 of the Monetary Penalties Enforcement Act 2005.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

(3 - 9)

62. Payments into Public Account

Any payments in respect of an infringement notice are payable into the Public Account.

s. 63

Part VIII – Declaration of Crime Scenes and Serious Incident Sites

PART VIII – DECLARATION OF CRIME SCENES AND SERIOUS INCIDENT SITES

Division 1 – Crime scenes

63. Declaration of crime scene

- (1) For the purpose of preserving, searching for or gathering evidence, a police officer of or above the rank of inspector may declare any public place or other place to be a crime scene if –
 - (a) the officer reasonably believes that it is necessary, for that purpose, to exercise powers in section 63A(1) or to exclude persons from the place; and
 - (b) the officer reasonably believes that –
 - (i) an offence or a crime has been committed at or near that place; or
 - (ii) there is evidence at that place that is relevant to an offence or crime.
- (2) A police officer may establish a crime scene in any way that is reasonably appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) The police officer who declares a crime scene is to put the declaration in writing as soon as practicable after making it and is to give a copy of the declaration to –
 - (a) the owner or person lawfully in possession of the place to which the

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- declaration relates, if the place is not a public place; and
- (b) the District Police Commander responsible for the relevant region.
- (4) A declaration of a crime scene remains in force for 7 days unless it is sooner revoked.
- (5) A revocation of a declaration of a crime scene –
- (a) may be made by a police officer of or above the rank of inspector; and
- (b) is to be put in writing as soon as practicable after it is made and a copy given to the persons who have been given a copy of the declaration under subsection (3).
- (6) Before a declaration of a crime scene lapses or is revoked, a police officer of or above the rank of inspector may re-declare the place to be a crime scene.
- (7) A re-declaration of a crime scene under subsection (6) may be made one or more times and subsections (3), (4), (5), (8) and (9) apply to a re-declaration as if it were a declaration under those subsections.
- (8) The owner or person lawfully in possession of the place to which a declaration of a crime scene relates may appeal against the declaration to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division).

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 63A

Part VIII – Declaration of Crime Scenes and Serious Incident Sites

- (9) The Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) may confirm, amend or revoke, or add conditions to, a declaration of a crime scene.

63A. Authority at crime scene

- (1) For the purpose of preserving, searching for or gathering evidence at a crime scene, a police officer is authorised to do any or all of the following at or in relation to the crime scene:
- (a) direct a person to leave the crime scene or remove a vehicle, vessel or aircraft from the crime scene;
 - (b) remove from the crime scene –
 - (i) a person who fails to leave the crime scene when directed to do so; or
 - (ii) a vehicle, vessel or aircraft that a person fails to remove from the crime scene when directed to do so;
 - (c) direct a person not to enter the crime scene;
 - (d) prevent a person from entering the crime scene;
 - (e) prevent a person from removing evidence from, or otherwise interfering with, the crime scene or anything in it and, for that purpose, detain and search the person;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

- (f) remove, or cause to be removed, an obstruction from the crime scene;
- (g) perform any necessary investigation including, for example, searching the crime scene without warrant and inspecting anything in it to obtain evidence of the commission of an offence or crime;
- (h) for the purpose of performing any necessary investigation, conduct any examination or process;
- (i) open anything at the crime scene whether or not it is locked;
- (j) take electricity, gas or any other utility for use at the crime scene;
- (k) direct the occupier of the premises or a person apparently involved in the management or control of the premises to maintain a continuous supply of electricity at the premises;
- (l) photograph or otherwise record the crime scene and anything in it;
- (m) seize and detain all or part of a thing that might provide evidence of the commission of an offence or crime;
- (n) dig up anything at the crime scene;

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 63A

Part VIII – Declaration of Crime Scenes and Serious Incident Sites

- (o) remove roofing material, wall or ceiling linings or floors of a building, or panel linings of a vehicle;
 - (p) any other function reasonably necessary or incidental to a function conferred by this subsection.
- (2) A person must not fail to comply with a direction given under subsection (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 80 penalty units.
- (3) A police officer may arrest, without warrant, a person who fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (1).
- (4) An authorisation conferred by this section to seize and retain a thing includes –
 - (a) the authority to remove the thing from the crime scene when it is found; and
 - (b) the authority to guard the thing in or on the crime scene.
- (5) A police officer may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of exercising an authorisation conferred by this section.
- (6) Nothing in this Division prevents a police officer who is lawfully on premises from using an authorisation referred to in subsection (1) or doing any other thing if the occupier of the premises consents.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

Division 2 – Serious incident sites

63B. Declaration of serious incident site

- (1) A police officer of or above the rank of inspector, if of the opinion that because of the size, nature or location of an incident it is necessary to exclude persons from the area of the incident, may declare the area to be a serious incident site so as to ensure –
 - (a) public safety; or
 - (b) the security of evacuated premises; or
 - (c) the safety of, prevention of obstruction of, hindrance of or interference with emergency services.
- (2) A police officer may establish a serious incident site in any way that is reasonably appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) The police officer who declares a serious incident site is to put the declaration in writing as soon as practicable after making it and is to give a copy of the declaration to –
 - (a) the owner or person lawfully in possession of the place to which the declaration relates, if the place is not a public place; and
 - (b) the District Police Commander responsible for the relevant region.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 63B

Part VIII – Declaration of Crime Scenes and Serious Incident Sites

- (4) A declaration of a serious incident site remains in force for 7 days unless it is sooner revoked.
- (5) A revocation of a declaration of a serious incident site –
 - (a) may be made by a police officer of or above the rank of inspector; and
 - (b) is to be put in writing as soon as practicable after it is made and a copy given to the persons who have been given a copy of the declaration under subsection (3).
- (6) Before a declaration of a serious incident site lapses or is revoked, a police officer of or above the rank of inspector may re-declare the site to be a serious incident site.
- (7) A re-declaration of a serious incident site under subsection (6) may be made one or more times and subsections (3), (4), (5), (8) and (9) apply to a re-declaration as if it were a declaration under those subsections.
- (8) The owner or person lawfully in possession of the place to which a declaration of a serious incident site relates may appeal against the declaration to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division).
- (9) The Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) may confirm, amend or revoke, or add conditions to, a declaration of a serious incident site.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

63C. Authority at serious incident site

- (1) A police officer is authorised to do any or all of the following at or in relation to a serious incident site:
 - (a) close any road, footpath or other open space;
 - (b) direct a person to leave the serious incident site or remove a vehicle, vessel or aircraft from the site;
 - (c) remove from the serious incident site –
 - (i) a person who fails to leave the site when directed to do so; or
 - (ii) a vehicle, vessel or aircraft that a person fails to remove from the site when directed to do so;
 - (d) direct a person not to enter the serious incident site;
 - (e) prevent a person from entering the serious incident site;
 - (f) allow a person to enter or remain in the serious incident site subject to such conditions as the officer considers appropriate;
 - (g) perform any other function reasonably necessary or incidental to a function conferred by this subsection.

Part VIII – Declaration of Crime Scenes and Serious Incident Sites

- (2) A person must not fail to comply with a direction given under subsection (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

- (3) A police officer may arrest, without warrant, a person who fails to comply with a direction given under subsection (1).

- (4) Nothing in this Division prevents a police officer who is lawfully on premises from using an authorisation referred to in subsection (1) or doing any other thing if the occupier of the premises consents.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

PART IX – PROCEDURE AND SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

64. Accomplice

No police officer or person, if such police officer or person is acting under instructions from any police officer of or above the rank of sergeant, shall be deemed to be an offender or accomplice in the commission of any offence under any of the provisions of this Act, although such officer or person might but for this section have been deemed to be such an offender or accomplice.

65. Power of court, upon neglect to prosecute, court to order another person to proceed

If any person who has laid any complaint in respect of any offence under any of the provisions of this Act does not appear at the hearing, or declines or neglects to proceed upon or prosecute such complaint, the court may authorize some other person to proceed upon or prosecute such complaint, or may authorize any other person to take fresh proceedings in respect of the offence.

66. Provision relating to determination of certain questions by courts

- (1) A court held before a magistrate may, in any proceedings for an offence committed or alleged to have been committed on or after the commencement of the Police Offences

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 67

Part IX – Procedure and Supplemental Provisions

Amendment Act 1984, hear and determine any question as to –

- (a) the title to any land;
 - (b) an interest in, or accruing from, the title to any land; or
 - (c) a bankruptcy or an execution under the process of a court.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (1), a court shall not, in any proceedings before it for an offence, hear and determine any question referred to in that subsection.

67. Averment of age prima facie proof

In any proceedings under this Act an averment in the complaint as to the age of any person shall be deemed to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.

67A. Evidentiary provision

In proceedings for an offence against section 13(2A), (2B) or (2C), section 25 or section 26, an allegation in the complaint –

- (a) that a substance referred to in the complaint was liquor; or
- (b) that a place specified in the complaint was or was not on a specified date a place specified in a licence or permit in

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

force under the Liquor Licensing Act 1990 – is evidence of that matter.

68. Procedure for seized firearms

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) a police officer reasonably suspects that a person in possession of a firearm is committing an offence under section 14B; and
 - (b) seizes that firearm under section 14B(5).
- (2) The Commissioner is to hold the seized firearm in safe custody pending a decision as to whether or not to prosecute the person for the offence.
- (3) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the person was in lawful possession of the firearm when it was seized, the following provisions apply:
 - (a) if the person is prosecuted, the firearm is, subject to any orders of the court, to be held pending the outcome of the proceedings and may be used in evidence;
 - (b) if the person is prosecuted but is not convicted, or the person is convicted but the court does not make an order under section 14B(2B), the firearm is to be –
 - (i) returned to the person at the conclusion of the proceedings if

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 68

Part IX – Procedure and Supplemental Provisions

- at that time the firearm is registered and the person is still entitled to possess it; or
- (ii) in any other case, disposed of as the Commissioner determines;
- (c) if the person is not or can no longer be prosecuted, the firearm is to be –
- (i) returned to the person if at the relevant time the firearm is registered and the person is still entitled to possess it; or
 - (ii) in any other case, disposed of as the Commissioner determines;
- (d) if for any reason it proves impossible or impracticable to return the firearm as required by paragraph (b)(i) or paragraph (c)(i), the firearm may be disposed of as the Commissioner determines.
- (4) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the person was not in lawful possession of the firearm when it was seized, the following provisions apply:
- (a) if the person is prosecuted, the firearm is, subject to any orders of the court, to be held pending the outcome of the proceedings and may be used in evidence;
 - (b) if the person is prosecuted for the offence but is not convicted, or the person is

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

convicted but the court does not make an order under section 14B(2B), the Commissioner is to –

- (i) pass the firearm, if it is registered, to any claimant who can establish ownership of it and an entitlement to possess it under the Firearms Act 1996; or
 - (ii) in any other case, dispose of the firearm as the Commissioner determines;
- (c) if the person is not, or can no longer be, prosecuted for the offence, the Commissioner is to –
- (i) pass the firearm, if at the relevant time it is registered, to any claimant who can establish ownership of it and an entitlement to possess it under the Firearms Act 1996; or
 - (ii) in any other case, dispose of the firearm as the Commissioner determines.
- (5) Nothing in this section is to be taken as derogating from the powers that a court, police officer or other person may lawfully exercise over the seized firearm with regard to other offences, or crimes, involving that firearm.

Police Offences Act 1935
Act No. 44 of 1935

s. 69

Part IX – Procedure and Supplemental Provisions

69. Disposal of property forfeited to Crown

- (1) All property forfeited to the Crown under the provisions of this Act, other than money and securities for money, shall, by order of the court or justices, be sold, or in its or their discretion destroyed, and the proceeds of any such sale shall be paid into the Public Account.
- (2) All money forfeited to the Crown under this Act and the proceeds of all securities for money forfeited to the Crown under this Act shall be paid into the Public Account.

70 - 72.

73. Act not to affect rights of the Crown

- (1) Nothing in this Act shall affect or apply to any right, title, or interest of the Crown, or in any way limit the Royal Prerogative.
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall prejudice or affect the operation of the Criminal Code.

74. Regulations
