Part 2 – Administration

PART 2 – ADMINISTRATION

Division 1 – Administrator of Occupational Licensing

10. Administrator

The Minister administering the State Service Act 2000 may appoint a State Service officer or State Service employee to be the Administrator of Occupational Licensing and that officer or employee may hold that office in conjunction with State Service employment.

11. General functions of Administrator

The Administrator has the following functions:

- (a) to advise the Minister on legislation and any other matter relating to the administration of this Act;
- (b) to confer with and seek advice from State Service Agencies, approved authorities and any other persons, bodies or organisations engaged in any relevant industry and other interested groups or bodies on matters relating to the administration of this Act;
- (c) to confer with and seek advice from any national body established to deal with matters relating to occupational licensing and to represent Tasmania in respect of the administration of this Act;

Part 2 – Administration

s. 12

- (d) to promote continuing professional development in respect of any occupation, trade or calling to which this Act applies;
- (e) to publish reports and disseminate information on matters relating to the administration of this Act;
- (f) to review the performance of licence holders and authorised officers;
- (g) to carry out any other function relating to the administration of this Act that the Minister determines.

12. Assistance to Administrator

The Administrator may make arrangements with the Head of a State Service Agency for such State Service officers and State Service employees employed in that Agency as the Administrator considers necessary to be made available to the Administrator to enable the Administrator to perform his or her functions and exercise his or her powers under this Act and those officers and employees may, in conjunction with State Service employment, serve the Administrator in any capacity.

13. Power to obtain information

- (1) The Administrator may, by written notice given to a person who may, in the Administrator's opinion, be in possession of information, is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

Division 2 – Occupational Licensing Advisory Board

14. Occupational Licensing Advisory Board

- (1) The Minister may establish a board, to be known as the “Occupational Licensing Advisory Board”.
- (2) The functions of the Board are to advise the Administrator on –
 - (a) the performance of the Administrator’s functions or the exercise of his or her powers under this Act; and
 - (b) the administration of licences granted to contractors, practitioners and building services providers; and
 - (c) the training and skills required of practitioners, building services providers, nominated managers and authorised officers; and
 - (d) any other matter referred to the Board by the Administrator.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 15

Part 2 – Administration

- (3) Schedule 4 has effect with respect to the constitution, membership and meetings of the Board.
- (4) With the approval of the Administrator, the Board may establish committees to advise it on the training and skills required of practitioners, building services providers, nominated managers and authorised officers and on any other matter on which the Administrator has sought its advice.
- (5) With the approval of the Administrator, the Board may engage additional persons to advise it on the performance of its functions under this Act.
- (6) The Minister may determine procedures to be followed by the Board and, to the extent that the Board's procedures are not so determined, the Board may determine its own procedures.

Division 3 – Delegation

15. Delegation of Administrator's functions

- (1) The Administrator may delegate any of his or her functions under this Act, except this power of delegation.
- (2) A delegation may be made to –
 - (a) an approved authority; or
 - (b) a State Service officer or State Service employee; or

Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 2 – Administration

s. 16

- (c) an officer or employee of an approved authority; or
- (d) any other person of an occupation or class prescribed by the regulations.

Division 4 – Authorised officers

16. Appointment of authorised officers

(1) The Administrator may appoint –

- (a) a State Service officer, State Service employee or any other person; or
- (b) a member of a class of police officers, State Service officers, State Service employees or employees of a company carrying out functions for the purposes of this Act – to be an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act on such terms and conditions as are specified in the instrument of appointment and, in the case of a State Service officer or State Service employee, he or she may hold that office in conjunction with State Service employment.

(2) The Administrator is to issue an authorised officer appointed under subsection (1)(a) with –

- (a) an instrument of appointment; and
- (b) an identity card.

(3) A person may not be appointed as an authorised officer under this section unless the

Part 2 – Administration

Administrator is satisfied that he or she is qualified by reason of knowledge and experience to hold that office.

- (4) The powers and functions of an authorised officer under this Act must be exercised or performed in accordance with any limitations stated in the instrument of his or her appointment.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 150 penalty units; or
 - (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 75 penalty units.
- (5) Where an authorised officer appointed under subsection (1)(a) ceases to be appointed as such, he or she must within 10 days surrender his or her identity card to the Administrator.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

17. Entry to premises

- (1) An authorised officer may enter any premises –
- (a) in which, on which or for the purposes of which any prescribed work has been, is being or is intended to be carried out; or
 - (b) for the purposes of inspecting any article or thing on which prescribed work has been, is being or is intended to be carried out; or

Part 2 – Administration

s. 17

- (c) for the purposes of taking any action that is reasonably necessary or desirable for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A power of entry conferred by this Act may be exercised –
 - (a) with the consent of the occupier of the premises to be entered; or
 - (b) with the authority of a warrant; or
 - (c) in an emergency, where it is impracticable to obtain a warrant or the consent of the occupier.
- (3) On entering any premises in or on which an authorised officer appointed under section 16(1)(a) proposes to exercise his or her powers or perform his or her functions under this Act, the authorised officer, if so requested by –
 - (a) the owner of the premises; or
 - (b) the employer of any person engaged in carrying out any prescribed work in or at the premises – is to show his or her identity card to the owner or employer.

- (4) A failure by an authorised officer to show his or her identity card does not invalidate any subsequent exercise of his or her powers.

18. Warrant to enter premises

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to a justice for a warrant to enter the premises specified in the application.
- (2) The justice may issue the warrant if satisfied that a warrant is reasonably required for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) A warrant authorises the authorised officer –
 - (a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant; and
 - (b) to do anything reasonably required for the administration or enforcement of this Act.
- (4) A warrant is to specify the date on which, and the time at which, the warrant ceases to have effect.
- (5) An application for a warrant may be made by telephone, facsimile or other prescribed means if the authorised officer considers that the urgency of the situation requires it.
- (6) If the justice decides to issue a warrant on an application under subsection (5), the justice is to –
 - (a) complete and sign the warrant; and
 - (b) inform the applicant of –
 - (i) the terms of the warrant; and

Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 2 – Administration

s. 18

- (ii) the date and time of the issue of the warrant; and
 - (iii) the date and time when the warrant is to cease to have effect; and
 - (c) record on the warrant the reasons for issuing it.
- (7) The authorised officer must –
- (a) complete a warrant form in the same terms as the warrant signed by the justice; and
 - (b) write on the form –
 - (i) the name of the justice; and
 - (ii) the date and time of the issue of the warrant; and
 - (c) send to the justice the completed form not later than the day after the warrant is executed or ceases to have effect.
- (8) On receipt of the warrant form, the justice is to attach it to the warrant signed by the justice.
- (9) A warrant form completed under subsection (7) by an authorised officer has the same force as the original of the warrant signed by the justice.

PART 3A – PERMITS FOR OWNER BUILDERS

29A. Building work for which an owner builder permit may be issued

(1) An owner builder permit may only be issued under this Part to a person who intends to manage or carry out building work on a class of building, or type of building, determined by the Administrator under subsection (1A).

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Administrator may determine the classes of building, or types of building, in respect of which a person may manage or carry out building work as an owner builder.

(1B) Before making a determination under subsection (1A), the Administrator may consult with any person or organisation that he or she considers appropriate.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a person does not require an owner builder permit under this Part if the person intends to manage or carry out building work –

(a) that is excluded from the application of this Part by the regulations; or

(b) that is building services work that is excluded from the application of this Act by the regulations.

(3) The Administrator is to notify any determination under subsection (1A) in the Gazette and in such daily newspapers circulating generally in Tasmania as the Administrator thinks fit and the notification is to be available for public inspection –

- (a) at the office of the Administrator during normal business hours; and
 - (b) by means of the World Wide Web; and
 - (c) by any other means determined by the Administrator.
- (4) The Administrator may amend a determination under subsection (1A) by –
 - (a) omitting, substituting or adding a provision; and
 - (b) notifying the amended determination, and making it available for public inspection, in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, the making of a determination under subsection (1A), or the amending of such a determination under subsection (4), does not affect the validity of an owner builder permit issued before the determination, or amended determination, is notified in accordance with subsection (3).

29B. Eligibility for owner builder permit

- (1) A person is eligible to hold an owner builder permit if the person –

- (a) meets the prescribed criteria; and
 - (b) is, or will be, covered by the insurance required under section 29F(1) at the time the permit is issued; and
 - (c) has successfully completed an owner builder training course, approved under subsection (3), within the 12-month period immediately before he or she is the subject of an application for an owner builder permit; and
 - (d) has engaged a building surveyor in respect of the work to be performed as an owner builder as required under the Building Act 2016.
- (2) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply to a person if –
- (a) he or she intends to manage or carry out building work as an owner builder in respect of premises; and
 - (b) an owner of those premises is also an owner builder in relation to those premises and has complied with subsection (1)(c).
- (3) The Administrator may, by notice in the Gazette, approve a specific training course, or a training course provided by a person or body specified in the notice, as an owner builder training course for the purposes of subsection (1)(c).

29C. Application for owner builder permit

An application for an owner builder permit –

- (a) must be made by a building surveyor engaged on behalf of the person intending to hold the owner builder permit; and
- (b) is to be in the approved form; and
- (c) is to be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

29D. Determination of applications for owner builder permit

- (1) On receipt of an application under section 29C, the Administrator must consider the application and –
 - (a) issue a permit to the person intending to hold the owner builder permit, which may be unconditional or subject to any conditions that the Administrator considers appropriate; or
 - (b) refuse the application.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed with the applicant, the Administrator is to make a decision within 21 days after receiving the application.

 - (b) is eligible under section 29B to hold an owner builder permit.
- (4) Despite subsection (3)(b), the Administrator may issue a permit under subsection (1)(a) to a person who is not eligible under section 29B to hold an owner builder permit if the Administrator considers that special circumstances exist.
- (5) If the Administrator refuses to issue an owner builder permit under this section, the Administrator is to give the applicant written notice setting out the reasons for the refusal.
- (6) An applicant may request the Administrator to review the decision and, if he or she is not satisfied with the review, the applicant may appeal to the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal under section 82.

29E. Cancellation of owner builder permit

The Administrator may cancel an owner builder permit if he or she is satisfied that –

50. Access to registers

- (1) The registers kept under section 49 may be kept in the form of, or as part of, a computer database or in any other form that the Administrator considers appropriate.
- (2) Subject to sections 49 and 51, the registers are to be available for public inspection by means of the World Wide Web and by any other means determined by the Administrator.

51. Security of information in registers

- (1) Information recorded in the registers is protected information if it is –
 - (a) personal information other than that which may identify the licence holder; or
 - (b) commercially sensitive information.
- (2) The Administrator must not allow protected information to be divulged except as follows:
 - (a) as the Administrator considers appropriate in the public interest for the purposes of the administration of an Act of Tasmania, another State, a Territory or the Commonwealth;
 - (b) as authorised by the person to whom the information relates;
 - (c) as required by a court or other body or person authorised to take evidence;

Part 5 – Codes of Practice

PART 5 – CODES OF PRACTICE

53. Codes of practice

- (1) The Administrator may, by notice published in the Gazette, establish one or more codes of practice in respect of any occupation, trade or calling to which this Act applies but a code of practice is to be consistent with any other law relevant to the occupation, trade or calling.
- (2) A code of practice may consist of the whole or a part of any code, standard, rule, specification or provision relating to any prescribed work formulated, prepared or adopted by the Administrator and may apply, incorporate or refer to any document formulated or published by any body or authority as in force at that time.
- (3) The Administrator may, by notice published in the Gazette, amend any part of a code of practice or revoke a code of practice.
- (4) A code of practice may contain requirements to be observed for –
 - (a) the level of supervision required of the holders of licences and other persons in performing prescribed work; and
 - (b) ensuring that the holders of licences and other persons acquire, maintain, further develop and apply their skills relating to the performance of prescribed work; and

Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 5 – Codes of Practice

- (c) building services providers, in relation to –
- (i) professional conduct, competence, diligence and integrity; and
 - (ii) professional responsibilities of each occupation and class of building services providers; and
 - (iii) compliance with legislation related to building services work; and
 - (iv) communication with all parties involved in building services work; and
 - (v) performance management of holders of a building services licence; and
 - (vi) conduct and behaviour of the holder of a building services licence.
- (5) A code of practice may have effect by reference to the types of prescribed work or the degree of experience required of the contractors, practitioners or building services providers, and other persons concerned.
- (6) Before establishing a code of practice, amending any part of a code of practice or revoking a code of practice, the Administrator may consult with the Board.

Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 54

Part 5 – Codes of Practice

- (7) The Administrator is to give notice in the Gazette, and in such daily newspapers circulating generally in Tasmania as the Administrator thinks fit, of –
 - (a) the approval of a code of practice; or
 - (b) the approval of the revision of the whole or a part of a code of practice; or
 - (c) the revocation of a code of practice.
- (8) A notice under this section is not a statutory rule within the meaning of the Rules Publication Act 1953.

54. Certification of prescribed work

- (1) The Administrator may, in accordance with the regulations, require that, on completion of any prescribed work, the responsible licence holder provides a certificate that the prescribed work complies with the relevant code of practice.
- (2) A licence holder must comply with a requirement under subsection (1).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

PART 6 – REGULATION OF PRESCRIBED WORK

Division 1 – Inspection, investigation and rectification of prescribed work

55. Inspection and investigation of prescribed work

The Administrator may, either on complaint or on his or her own initiative, inspect and investigate the performance of any prescribed work and any alleged contravention of this Act.

56. Appointment of investigator

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Administrator may appoint a person as an investigator on any terms and conditions that he or she considers appropriate.
- (2) An investigator may be appointed to assist an authorised officer in the performance of his or her duties under this Act.

57. Power to make rectification order

- (1) If the Administrator or an authorised officer is satisfied, on inspection and investigation, that any prescribed work, that is not building services work, is defective, the Administrator or authorised officer may make a rectification order or undertake any other action as prescribed.
- (2) A rectification order –
 - (a) is to give reasons for the order; and

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 58

Part 6 – Regulation of Prescribed Work

- (b) is to give reasonable particulars of the work required to be carried out under the order so as to rectify the prescribed work; and
 - (c) may be made orally but must, as soon as practicable, be given in writing to the owner, occupier, licence holder or his or her agent.
- (3) A person against whom a rectification order is made must comply with the order.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 250 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 125 penalty units.

Division 2 – Emergency powers

58. Powers of authorised officers in emergency

- (1) In an emergency, an authorised officer may take any action that he or she considers necessary to protect life or property.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), an authorised officer may take any one or more of the following actions under that subsection:
 - (a) enter premises;
 - (b) disconnect a source of danger to life or property;

- (c) carry out prescribed work on infrastructure or an installation;
 - (d) give any directions to the person in charge of infrastructure or an installation that may be necessary to make it safe;
 - (e) remove or cause to be removed a hazard that may cause danger to life or serious damage to property;
 - (f) give any directions that the authorised officer considers necessary to avert danger to life or property.
- (3) A person to whom a direction is given under this section must comply with the direction.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 150 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 75 penalty units.

Division 3 – Complaints

59. Complaints

- (1) A person may make a complaint to the Administrator on the ground of defective work or a contravention of this Act by a licence holder, an authorised officer or a person appointed as an investigator under section 56.
- (2) A complaint –

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 59

Part 6 – Regulation of Prescribed Work

- (a) is to be in writing; and
 - (b) is to contain particulars of the grounds of the complaint with a statement that the complainant consents to those particulars and all supporting documents being given to the person against whom the complaint is made; and
 - (c) if the complaint relates to defective work that is prescribed work, is to be made within one year of the completion of the prescribed work to which it relates.
- (3) The Administrator may require the complainant to give further particulars of the complaint supported by a statutory declaration within such time as the Administrator may specify.
- (4) The Administrator, by notice in writing given to the complainant, may dismiss any complaint without investigation if –
 - (a) further particulars are not given as required; or
 - (b) after preliminary inquiries, the Administrator has determined that the person against whom the complaint is made has no case to answer; or
 - (c) the complaint does not relate to a contravention of this Act; or
 - (d) the complaint is otherwise vexatious or frivolous –

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 6 – Regulation of Prescribed Work

s. 60

and must dismiss the complaint if it does not contain the particulars and statement referred to in subsection (2)(b).

60. Notification of complaint

After receiving a complaint about a person mentioned in section 59(1), the Administrator, by written notice given to the person complained about, must –

- (a) inform the person of the particulars of the complaint; and
- (b) provide the person with any documents relating to the complaint; and
- (c) invite the person to make, within 14 days or any longer period stated in the notice, written comments about the complaint – and, if the Administrator is satisfied that there are compelling reasons for doing so, the Administrator may inform the person that he or she will withhold the identity of the complainant.

61. Investigation of complaints

- (1) Subject to section 59, the Administrator, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving a complaint, must make inquiries and take any other action the Administrator considers necessary to investigate the matter.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 62

Part 6 – Regulation of Prescribed Work

- (2) Before considering a complaint, the Administrator may require the complainant to demonstrate to the Administrator that –
- (a) the complaint has been brought to the attention of, and considered by, the person mentioned in section 59(1); and
 - (b) a satisfactory resolution of the complaint could not be achieved.

Division 4 – Infringement notices

62. Infringement notices

- (1) An authorised officer may serve an infringement notice on a person who is over the age of 16 years if of the opinion that the person has committed an offence under this Act that is prescribed as an offence for which an infringement notice may be issued.
- (2) An infringement notice is not to relate to 4 or more offences.
- (3)
- (4) An infringement notice is to be in accordance with section 14 of the Monetary Penalties Enforcement Act 2005.

63 - 69.

Division 5 –

70 - 78.

PART 7 – REVIEW OF DECISIONS

79. Reviewable decisions

- (1) This Part applies to –
 - (a) any decision made by the Administrator for the purposes of section 13, section 29D, section 29E, section 34(1)(a) or (b), section 36(3), section 37(1)(a) or (b), section 37A(3), section 37B(1)(a) or (b), section 40(1), section 43, section 46(1) or section 57(1); and
 - (b) any decision made by an authorised officer for the purposes of section 57(1).
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a decision is taken to include a reference to any action taken to give effect to that decision.
- (3) Where the Administrator or an authorised officer makes any decision or takes any action to which this Part applies, he or she must, by notice served on any person who is directly affected by the decision or action, notify him or her –
 - (a) of the decision or action and, if so requested, the reasons for it; and
 - (b) that the person may apply for a review of the decision or action under section 80.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 80

Part 7 – Review of decisions

80. Application for review of decision

- (1) A person referred to in section 79(3) may apply to the Administrator to review a decision to which this Part applies.
- (2) The application –
 - (a) is to be made in writing within 14 days after the date of service of a notice under section 79(3); and
 - (b) is to specify the reasons for the application.
- (3) The Administrator may extend the period referred to in subsection (2) for making an application.
- (4) Subject to any other enactment, the making of an application to the Administrator for a review of a decision to which this Part applies does not –
 - (a) affect the operation of the decision; or
 - (b) prevent the taking of any action to give effect to the decision.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), the Administrator –
 - (a) may, by order, suspend the operation of the decision; and
 - (b) may order a stay of any proceeding under the decision.
- (6) The Administrator may make the order –

Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 7 – Review of decisions

s. 81

- (a) of his or her own motion; or
- (b) on the application of the person who made the application for a review of the decision.

81. Review of decisions

- (1) The Administrator must, within 45 days after receiving an application under section 80 for a review of a decision to which this Part applies, make a determination –
 - (a) substituting the decision with another decision; or
 - (b) confirming the decision; or
 - (c) revoking the decision.
- (2) The Administrator must, by notice served on the applicant, notify the applicant of –
 - (a) the determination made; and
 - (b) the findings on material questions of fact; and
 - (c) the evidence or other material on which the findings are based; and
 - (d) the reasons for the determination; and
 - (e) the right to appeal to the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal against the determination.

s. 82

Part 8 – Appeals

PART 8 – APPEALS

82. Appeal to Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal

A person who is directly affected by a decision taken by the Administrator may appeal to the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.

83. Exclusion of right of appeal against certain determinations

No appeal lies against a determination under Division 1 of Part 4 or Part 5.

84. Enforcement of determination

The Administrator must give effect to a determination or order of the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal under this Part.

PART 9 – LEGAL AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

Division 1 – Legal proceedings

85. Time for commencing prosecutions

Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, proceedings for an offence against this Act may not be instituted later than 2 years after an authorised officer becomes aware of the act or omission alleged to constitute the offence.

86. Evidentiary provisions

- (1) A certificate apparently issued under the authority of the Administrator and certifying that a specified person was, or was not, the licence holder of a particular class at a specified time or premises or for a specified period is admissible in proceedings under this Act –
 - (a) as evidence of the facts so certified; and
 - (b) if the certificate contains information about the terms and conditions of the licence, as evidence of the information contained in the certificate.
- (2) A certificate apparently issued under the authority of the Administrator and certifying that a specified licence was suspended, surrendered or cancelled on a particular date is admissible in proceedings under this Act as evidence of the fact so certified.

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

- (3) A certificate apparently issued under the authority of the Administrator and certifying that a notice, report or other document was, or was not, given or received at or before a specified time or at specified premises is admissible in proceedings under this Act as evidence of the fact so certified.
- (4) Where, in proceedings under this Act, an allegation in the complaint that, at a specified time or on specified premises, a person was an authorised officer is evidence of that fact.
- (5) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an allegation in the complaint that, at a specified time or premises –
 - (a) a person, practitioner or building services provider was an employee; or
 - (b) a person, practitioner or building services provider was an employer; or
 - (c) a person was a holder of a contractor's licence; or
 - (d) a person was a practitioner or building services provider; or
 - (e) a notice was given under this Act; or
 - (f) a notice required to be given under this Act was not given; or
 - (g) a prescribed fee has not been paid; or
 - (h) a person was an authorised officer; or

Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

s. 86

- (i) an authorised officer became aware of an act or omission alleged to constitute an offence – is evidence of that fact.

- (6) In proceedings under this Act, proof of the required insurance cover lies on the person or licence holder charged with the offence.
- (7) Where, in proceedings under this Act, it is alleged that a person contravened a provision of this Act in respect of which a code of practice was in effect at the time of the alleged contravention –
 - (a) if the code of practice refers to another document, any document purporting to be the document so referred to is admissible in evidence in those proceedings; and
 - (b) if the court is satisfied, in respect of any matter that it is necessary for the prosecution to prove in order to establish the alleged contravention, that –
 - (i) any provision of the code of practice is relevant to that matter; and
 - (ii) the person failed at any material time to observe that provision of the code of practice – the matter is taken as proved unless the court is satisfied that, in respect of that matter, the person complied with the relevant provision of this Act otherwise than by way of observance of the relevant provision of the code of practice.

- (8) A document purporting to be published by or under the authority of a standards authority or to have effect under any other Act is, on its production in proceedings under this Act, evidence of the matters appearing in the document.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, a reference to a certificate includes a reference to a notice and an order.

87. Offences by corporations and partnerships, &c.

- (1) If a corporation commits an offence against this Act, each person who is an officer, or is concerned in the management, of the corporation is also guilty of the offence and liable to the penalty prescribed for the offence.
- (2) It is a defence to a charge brought under subsection (1) against a person who is an officer, or is concerned in the management, of a corporation if that person proves that –
 - (a) the commission of the offence by the corporation occurred without the knowledge of the person; or
 - (b) the person was not in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in respect of the commission of the offence; or

(c) the person, being in such a position, used all reasonable diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the corporation; or

(d) the corporation would not have been found guilty of the offence by reason of a defence available under this Act.

- (3) A person who is an officer, or is concerned in the management, of a corporation may, under subsection (1), be proceeded against and be convicted of an offence whether or not the corporation has been proceeded against or convicted in respect of the offence.
- (4) Where, in proceedings under this Act, it is necessary to establish the intention of a corporation, it is sufficient to show that an employee or agent of the corporation had that intention.
- (5) If a partner in a partnership commits an offence against this Act in the course of the activities of the partnership, each other person who is a partner in the partnership is also guilty of the offence and liable to the penalty prescribed for the offence.
- (6) If a person who is concerned in the management of an unincorporated association commits an offence against this Act in the course of the activities of the unincorporated association, each other person who is at the time of the commission of the offence concerned in the management of the unincorporated association is also guilty of the offence and liable to the penalty prescribed for the offence.

(7) It is a defence to a charge brought under this section if the person charged proves that –

- (a) the commission of the offence occurred without the knowledge of the person; or
- (b) the person was not in a position to influence the conduct of the person who committed the offence; or
- (c) the person, being in such a position, used all reasonable diligence to prevent the commission of the offence; or
- (d) the person who committed the offence would not have been found guilty of the offence by reason of a defence available under this Act.

(8) In this section –

officer –

- (a) in respect of a corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act, has the same meaning as in section 9 of that Act; or
- (b) in respect of a corporation which is not a corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act, means any person, by whatever and in either case includes any employee of the corporation who gives to the Administrator or authorised officer any information relating to any part of the operations of the corporation over which that employee exercises any supervision or control.

88. Enforcement of undertakings

(1) In this section –

Court means the Magistrates Court.

- (2) The Administrator may accept a written undertaking given by a person for the purposes of this section in connection with a matter in respect of which the Administrator has a power or function under this Act.
- (3) The person may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of the Administrator.
- (4) If the Administrator considers that the person who gave the undertaking has contravened any of its terms, the Administrator may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (5).
- (5) If the Court is satisfied that the person has contravened a term of the undertaking, the Court may make all or any of the following orders:

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 89

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

- (a) an order directing the person to comply with that term of the undertaking;
 - (b) an order directing the person to pay to the Administrator an amount not exceeding any financial benefit that the person has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the contravention;
 - (c) an order that the Court considers appropriate directing the person to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the contravention;
 - (d) an order to suspend or cancel a licence;
 - (e) any other order that the Court considers appropriate.
- (6) Where the Court has ordered a person to pay an amount under subsection (5), the amount is taken to be a judgment of the Court and enforceable under the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) Act 1992.

Division 2 – Disciplinary proceedings

90. Proper cause for disciplinary action

- (1) There is proper cause for disciplinary action against a contractor if –
- (a) he or she is guilty of improper conduct; or
 - (b) it appears to the Administrator that the contractor has failed to ensure, or is not in a position to ensure, that any prescribed work carried out under his or her licence is properly managed or supervised; or
 - (ba) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the prescribed work of the contractor is the subject of, or may be the subject of, an order under Division 3 of Part 18 of the Building Act 2016; or
 - (bb) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the contractor –
 - (i) is a party to a settlement of a dispute that has been registered by the Director of Building Control under section 53 of the Residential Building Work Contracts and Dispute Resolution Act 2016; and
 - (ii) without lawful excuse, has failed to comply with the terms of the settlement of a dispute so registered; or

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

- (bc) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the contractor has failed to comply with an order of the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal that is in force in respect of the contractor; or
 - (c) the contractor is not a fit and proper person to hold a contractor's licence; or
 - (d) where the contractor is a body corporate, any officer of the body corporate is not a fit and proper person to be an officer of the body corporate.
- (2) There is proper cause for disciplinary action against a practitioner, or building services provider, if –
 - (a) he or she is guilty of improper conduct; or
 - (b) he or she has given to any other person information relating to any prescribed work provided, or to be provided, by him or her that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (c) the Administrator is satisfied that the practitioner, or building services provider, is not a fit and proper person to hold a practitioner's licence, building services licence; or
 - (ca) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the prescribed work of the practitioner, or building services provider, is the subject of or may be the subject of –

- (i) an order under Division 3 of Part 18 of the Building Act 2016; or
 - (ii) an order under section 209A of the Building Act 2016; or
- (cb) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the practitioner, or building services provider –
 - (i) is a party to a settlement of a dispute that has been registered by the Director of Building Control under section 53 of the Residential Building Work Contracts and Dispute Resolution Act 2016; and
 - (ii) without lawful excuse, has failed to comply with the terms of the settlement of a dispute so registered; or
- (cc) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the practitioner, or building services provider, has failed to comply with an order of the Tasmanian Civil and Administrative Tribunal that is in force in respect of the practitioner or provider; or
- (cd) the Administrator is satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that the building services provider has failed to issue an order as required under section 209A(2) of the Building Act 2016; or

- (d) if the building services provider is a licensed entity, the Administrator is satisfied that a licensed person, employee or agent of the licensed entity –
 - (i) would be guilty of improper conduct; or
 - (ii) would not be a fit and proper person –

if he or she were a building services provider.

- (3) A licence holder is guilty of improper conduct if –
 - (a) he or she contravenes a provision of this Act; or
 - (b) he or she contravenes a code of practice; or
 - (c) he or she is responsible for defective work; or
 - (d) he or she has given to any other person information relating to any prescribed work provided, or to be provided, by the licence holder that was false or misleading in a material particular.

s. 91

91. Notice of intent to take disciplinary action

- (1) If the Administrator believes, on reasonable grounds, that there may be cause for disciplinary action against a licence holder under this Part, the Administrator is to give the licence holder a notice of intent to take disciplinary action.
- (2) A notice of intent under subsection (1) is to –
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) specify –
 - (i) that the Administrator believes there is cause for disciplinary action; and
 - (ii) the reasons the Administrator has for believing that there is cause for disciplinary action against the licence holder; and
 - (iii) that the Administrator intends to refer the matter to the disciplinary panel under section 92; and
 - (iv) that the licence holder, within 28 days after receiving the notice of intent, may make a written response to the Administrator as to why the disciplinary action should not be taken; and
 - (v) the procedure to be followed by the licence holder in making such a written response.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 92

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

- (3) A licence holder who has been given a notice of intent may apply, in writing, to the Administrator for an extension of the period specified in subsection (2)(b)(iv) in respect of that notice of intent.
- (4) After receiving a written application under subsection (3), the Administrator may, in respect of a notice of intent –
 - (a) grant a single extension of the period specified in subsection (2)(b)(iv) by such further period, not exceeding 14 days, as the Administrator considers appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) refuse to grant an extension of the period specified in subsection (2)(b)(iv).
- (5) After taking into account any written response made by a licence holder in accordance with subsection (2)(b), the Administrator may refer the matter specified in the notice of intent to the disciplinary panel under section 92.

92. Disciplinary panels

- (1) The Administrator may establish disciplinary panels for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Before the Administrator takes disciplinary action against a licence holder –
 - (a) the Administrator must refer the matter to a disciplinary panel for its recommendation; and

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

s. 93

- (b) the panel must –
- (i) consider the matters set out in the relevant notice of intent to take disciplinary action and the licence holder's written response, if any, to the notice; and
 - (ii) afford a reasonable opportunity for the Administrator and the licence holder to be present and heard; and
 - (iii) consider representations made by or on behalf of the Administrator and the licence holder; and
 - (iv) make a recommendation to the Administrator about whether disciplinary action should be taken and, if so, the nature of the disciplinary action; and
- (c) the Administrator must consider the panel's recommendation.

93. Disciplinary action

- (1) After considering a recommendation of a disciplinary panel, the Administrator may do any one or more of the following:
- (a) administer a caution or a reprimand to a licence holder;

Act No. 47 of 2005

s. 93

Part 9 – Legal and Disciplinary Proceedings

- (b) require a licence holder to undergo a course of training specified by the Administrator;
 - (c) apply a condition to the licence, or add to, or alter, the conditions of the licence;
 - (d) suspend the licence for a period not exceeding the unexpired term of the licence or until compliance with another order made under this subsection;
 - (e) cancel the licence and disqualify the licence holder from holding a licence for a specified period;
 - (f) order rectification of defective work within a time specified in the order;
 - (g) order the licence holder to pay the reasonable costs of any investigation conducted by a person appointed under section 56, including the reasonable costs of that person attending the disciplinary panel.
- (2) If an amount ordered to be paid by a licence holder as costs under subsection (1)(g) is not paid as directed by the order, that amount is taken to be a judgment of the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) and enforceable under the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) Act 1992.

EFFECT

Section 7(5)

Building Act 2016

Electricity Industry Safety and Administration Act 1997

Gas Safety Act 2019

SCHEDULE 4 – CONSTITUTION, MEMBERSHIP AND MEETINGS OF BOARD

Section 14(3)

1. Constitution of Board

The Board is to consist of –

- (a) the Administrator; and
- (b) at least 6, but not more than 8, other members appointed by the Minister on the advice of the Administrator.

2. Qualifications for membership

- (1) A person is not eligible for appointment as a member of the Board under clause 1(b) unless –
 - (a) the person has significant qualifications, knowledge and experience relevant to the Board’s functions; or
 - (b) where, under section 7(2), an occupation, trade or calling is added to Schedule 2, the person has, in the opinion of the Minister, knowledge and experience relevant to that occupation, trade or calling.
- (2) The members of the Board must collectively have significant qualifications, knowledge and experience, with respect to the occupations, trades and callings to which this Act applies, relating to practitioners, building services

sch. 4

providers, contractors, training, infrastructure, law, administration, consumer affairs, local government and insurance.

3. Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Board is the Administrator.

4. Conditions of membership

- (1) Each member of the Board appointed under clause 1(b) –
 - (a) is to be appointed by the Minister for a term not exceeding 3 years stated in the instrument of appointment; and
 - (b) is entitled to be paid remuneration and travelling allowances fixed by the Minister from time to time in respect of that member; and
 - (c) is not, as a member of the Board, subject to the State Service Act 2000.
- (2) A member of the Board appointed under clause 1(b) is eligible for reappointment at the end of a term of appointment.
- (3) A member of the Board appointed under clause 1(b) –
 - (a) may resign by written notice to the Minister; and

- (b) may be removed by the Minister on the advice of the Administrator for incapacity or misbehaviour or on the ground that he or she ceases to hold any qualification by virtue of which he or she was appointed.

5. Disclosure of pecuniary interests

- (1) A member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Board, other than a determination as to the remuneration and allowances payable to a member, is required, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, to disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the Board if the interest appears to raise a conflict with the proper performance of the member's duties in relation to the consideration of the matter.
- (2) A disclosure by a member at a meeting of the Board that the member –
 - (a) is a member, or is in the employment, of a specified company or other body; or
 - (b) is a partner, or is in the employment, of a specified person; or
 - (c) has some other specified interest relating to a specified company or other body or a specified person –

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 4

is sufficient disclosure of the nature of the interest in any matter or thing relating to that company or other body or to that person which may arise after the date of the disclosure and which is required to be disclosed under subclause (1).

- (3) Particulars of any disclosure made under this section are to be recorded in a book kept for the purpose and that book is required to be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any person on payment of a fee determined by the Board.
- (4) After a member has disclosed the nature of an interest in any matter or thing under subclause (1), the member may not, unless the other members of the Board concerned otherwise determine, be present during any deliberation, or take part in any decision, of the Board with respect to that matter or thing.
- (5) For the purposes of the making of a determination by other members under subclause (4), a member who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which the disclosure relates may not –
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of those members for the purposes of making the determination; or
 - (b) take part in the making of the determination by the other members.

6. Power of Board to determine procedure

Except as provided in this Schedule, the Board may determine its own procedure.

SCHEDULE 5 – TRANSITIONAL AND SAVINGS PROVISIONS

Section 104(1), (2) and (3)

PART 1 – PROVISIONS RELATING TO *ELECTRICITY
INDUSTRY SAFETY AND ADMINISTRATION ACT 1997

1. Saving for licences under *Electricity Industry Safety and Administration Act 1997

Where, immediately before the commencement of section 104(1), a person held a licence under the Electricity Industry Safety and Administration Act 1997, that licence is taken to be a licence granted under this Act on the same terms and conditions.

2. Saving for nominated managers under *Electricity
Industry Safety and Administration Act 1997

Where, immediately before the commencement of section 104(1) –

- (a) a person held an electrical contractor's licence under the Electricity Industry Safety and Administration Act 1997; and
- (b) in the course of carrying on business as an electrical contractor had arranged for the business to be under the management and supervision of a nominated manager in accordance with section 18 of that Act – the person acting as the nominated manager is taken to have been named as such in any licence granted under this Act.

PART 2 – PROVISIONS RELATING TO WORKPLACE
HEALTH AND SAFETY ACT 1995

1. Saving for certificates of competency under Workplace Health and Safety Act 1995

Where, immediately before the commencement of section 104(2), a person held a certificate of competency under the Workplace Health and Safety Act 1995, he or she is taken to hold a licence under the Occupational Licensing Act 2005 on the same terms and conditions.

PART 3 – PROVISIONS RELATING TO PLUMBERS AND GAS-FITTERS REGISTRATION BOARD AND PLUMBERS AND GAS-FITTERS REGISTRATION ACT
1951

1. Funds held by Plumbers and Gas-fitters
Registration Board

Any funds held by the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board on the commencement of section 104(3) are to be paid to the Administrator to the credit of the Occupational Licensing Administration Fund.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 5

2. Saving for registration under Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Act 1951

Where, immediately before the commencement of section 104(3), a person was registered as a plumber or gas-fitter under the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Act 1951, he or she is taken to be a licence holder under the Occupational Licensing Act 2005 on the same terms and conditions.

3. Winding-up of Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board

- (1) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by section 107, the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board continues in existence but only for the purpose of performing its functions under this clause.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this Part and, in any case, within 12 months after that commencement, the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board must –
 - (a) prepare its final report and financial statements under the Financial Management and Audit Act 1990; and
 - (b) do any other act, matter or thing necessary to wind itself up including, without limitation, exercising the power –
 - (i) to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities; and

- (ii) to employ staff; and
 - (iii) to execute a contract, deed or other document necessary for its winding-up.
- (3) Where the Minister is satisfied that the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board has complied with this clause and that there has been a satisfactory audit of the financial statements referred to in subclause (2)(a), the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, declare that the Plumbers and Gas-fitters Registration Board is dissolved.

PART 4 – PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE
*OCCUPATIONAL LICENSING AMENDMENT ACT 2016

Division 1 – Savings and transitionals for accredited building practitioners and related matters

1. Savings for building practitioners accredited under the Building Act 2000

- (1) In this clause –

transitioned licence means a building services licence that is taken to be issued by virtue of subclause (2).

- (2) If, immediately before the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act, a person was accredited under Part 4 of the Building Act 2000 as an accredited building practitioner –

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 5

- (a) that person is taken to be, on and after the commencement of that Division, the holder of a building services licence issued under this Act on the same terms and conditions; and
 - (b) a certificate of accreditation issued to the person under section 27 of the Building Act 2000, and in force immediately before the commencement of that Division, is taken to be a licence issued to the person by the Administrator under section 37B(1)(a) of this Act on the same terms and conditions.
- (3) If a transitioned licence is to expire within 3 months of the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act, the transitioned licence remains in effect until the expiry of the period of 3 months after the commencement of that Division unless sooner renewed, surrendered or cancelled under this Act.
- (4) The holder of a transitioned licence is taken to hold the insurance required under section 27 of this Act if the holder of a transitioned licence holds insurance cover that complies with the order under section 48 of the Building Act 2000 while that order remains in effect in accordance with clause 8 of this Part.
- (5) For the purpose of determining the continuing professional development of the holder of a transitioned licence, the Administrator may take into account any professional development undertaken by such a licence holder, before the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act, as part of his or her accreditation as a building practitioner under the Building Act 2000.

2. Applications under the Building Act 2000 for accreditation as building practitioner

- (1) An application made to the Director of Building Control under section 26 of the Building Act 2000 to be an accredited building practitioner that had yet to be determined under that Act before the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act –
 - (a) is taken to be an application to the Administrator under section 37A of this Act for a building services licence of the relevant occupation and class; and
 - (b) may be considered, dealt with and determined in all respects under this Act as if the application were originally made under this Act.
- (2) The Administrator may issue a building services licence of the relevant occupation and class, in respect of an application referred to in subclause (1), if the Director of Building Control may have granted the application under the Building Act 2000 had the application been determined before the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 5

Division 2 – Savings and transitionals for owner builders and related matters

3. Savings for owner builders under Building Act 2000

(1) In this clause –

relevant Acts means –

- (a) this Act; and
 - (b) the Building Act 2016.
- (2) Where, immediately before the commencement of Part 3A of this Act, a person was registered as an owner builder under Division 3 of Part 4 of the Building Act 2000, the provisions of that Act, except section 30E, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Building Act 2016 are to remain in effect in respect of that registration.
- (3) The relevant Acts do not apply to work performed under a registration referred to in subclause (2) if that work is performed in accordance with –
- (a) that registration; and
 - (b) the Building Act 2000 as in force immediately before the commencement of the Building Act 2016.

4. Applications for registration as owner builder under Building Act 2000

- (1) If an application made to the Director of Building Control under section 30C of the Building Act 2000, to be registered as an owner builder, had yet to be determined under that Act before the commencement of Part 3A of this Act, the provisions of that Act, as in force immediately before the commencement of the Building Act 2016, are to remain in effect in respect of that application until the application is determined.
- (2) If a person is registered as an owner builder as a result of an application referred to in subclause (1), clause 3 of this Part applies to that person as if the person had been registered as an owner builder before the commencement of Part 3A of this Act.

5. Owner builder training courses

A course that, on the day immediately before the day on which Part 3A of this Act commences, was an approved course for the purposes of section 30B of the Building Act 2000 is taken, on and after the commencement of that Part, to have been approved under section 29B(3) of this Act as an owner builder training course for the purposes of section 29B(1)(c) on the same terms and conditions.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 5

Division 3 – Other savings and transitionals

6. Bodies corporate and partnerships operating as building practitioners under Building Act 2000

- (1) A body corporate, or partnership, that, immediately before the commencement of Division 3A of Part 4 of this Act, was operating as a building practitioner in accordance with section 25 of the Building Act 2000 is, on and after the commencement of that Division –
 - (a) not a building services provider for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) not a licensed entity for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not affect –
 - (a) the application of this Schedule, on and after the commencement of the Occupational Licensing Amendment Act 2016, to the accreditation of the director, partner or permanent employee referred to in section 25 of the Building Act 2000; and
 - (b) the ability for the body corporate or partnership to apply, on and after the commencement of the Occupational Licensing Amendment Act 2016, under section 37C of this Act to be a licensed entity for the purposes of this Act.

7. Complaints under section 32 of the Building Act 2000

Where a complaint to the Director of Building Control has been made under section 32 of the Building Act 2000 and the complaint had not been determined before the commencement of the Occupational Licensing Amendment Act 2016, the provisions of the Building Act 2000 continue to apply to the complaint as if the relevant provisions of that Act had not been repealed.

8. Insurance orders under section 48 of the Building Act 2000

- (1) The order under section 48 of the Building Act 2000 in force immediately before the commencement of the Occupational Licensing Amendment Act 2016 remains in force until –
 - (a) revoked by order by the Minister under this Act; or
 - (b) notice is given by the Administrator requiring licence holders to be covered by a certain type and amount of insurance under section 27.
- (2) An order under subclause (1) is a statutory rule for the purposes of the Rules Publication Act 1953.

Occupational Licensing Act 2005
Act No. 47 of 2005

sch. 5

9. Appeals under Building Act 2000

Where an appeal has been lodged under the Building Act 2000 in respect of an accredited building practitioner, or an owner builder, and the appeal had not been determined before the commencement of the Occupational Licensing Amendment Act 2016, the provisions of the Building Act 2000 continue to apply to the appeal as if the relevant provisions of that Act had not been repealed.
