[Royal Assent 22 November 2017]

Be it enacted by Her Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

4. Certain by-elections, &c., not to be held

If, otherwise than by the operation of section 5, a vacancy in the office of a councillor for the Glenorchy City Council occurs in the period on and from 16 October 2017 to and including 16 January 2018 (the relevant period) –

- (a) sections 307 and 308 of the Local Government Act 1993 do not apply in relation to that vacancy in that office; and
- (b) any action taken, in relation to such a vacancy, under or in relation to either of those sections during the relevant period is to be taken to be, and to always have been, void and of no effect.

5. Councillors of Glenorchy City Council dismissed

Despite any provision of the Local Government Act 1993, including section 226, the persons who are, immediately before the commencement day, councillors of the Glenorchy City Council are to be taken for all purposes to have been, on the commencement day, dismissed under that Act as councillors of the Glenorchy City Council.

6. Elections to be held on dismissal of councillors

Despite any provision of the Local Government Act 1993 –

- (a) 16 January 2018 is taken to be fixed by the Governor, under section 268A(1A) of the Local Government Act 1993, as the closing day for the election, under that Act, in relation to the Glenorchy City Council, that is required under that Act to be held by virtue of the vacancies in all offices of councillors of that council, being the vacancies caused by the dismissal of the councillors under section 5 of this Act; and
- (b) Division 9 of Part 15 of the Local Government Act 1993 does not apply in relation to any of the vacancies in the offices of councillors of that council
