PART 2 – CRIMINAL CODE ACT 1924 AMENDED

3. Principal Act

In this Part, the *Criminal Code Act 1924 is referred to as the Principal Act.

4. Schedule 1 amended (Criminal Code)

Schedule 1 to the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting from section 125A(4)(b) “occasions.” and substituting “occasions; and”;
- (b) by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (b) in section 125A(4):
 - (c) on a trial before a jury for an offence against subsection (2), it is not necessary for each member of the jury to be satisfied that the unlawful sexual acts were committed on the same 3 occasions.
- (c) by inserting the following subsection after subsection (6A) in section 125A:
 - (6B) A Court sentencing a person for an offence against subsection (2) is to make findings in relation to either the nature or the character, or both the nature and the character, of the sexual relationship maintained and, in doing so, the Court is not required to ask any questions of the jury for the purposes of making those findings.

- (d) by inserting the following section after section 170:

170A. Persistent family violence

- (1) In this section –

family relationship has the same meaning as in the Family Violence Act 2004;

family violence has the same meaning as in the Family Violence Act 2004;

family violence offence has the same meaning as in the Family Violence Act 2004;

spouse or partner, of an accused person, means another person with whom the accused person is, or has been, in a family relationship;

s. 4

unlawful family violence act

means an act that constitutes a family violence offence whether committed before, on or after the commencement
of this section.

- (2) A person who commits persistent family violence in relation to another person with whom the person is, or has been, in a family relationship is guilty of a crime.

Charge: Persistent family violence.

- (3) An accused person is guilty of having committed an offence against subsection (2) if the accused person committed an unlawful family violence act in relation to his or her spouse or partner on at least 3 occasions.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) –

- (a) it is not necessary to prove the dates on which any of the unlawful family violence acts were committed or the exact circumstances in which any of the unlawful
