Part 2 – Heating Appliances to Comply with Australian Standards

PART 2 – HEATING APPLIANCES TO COMPLY WITH AUSTRALIAN STANDARDS

4. Application of Part

This Part applies to heating appliances that are designed, manufactured or adapted for domestic use on residential premises.

5. Heating appliances to comply with Australian Standards

- (1) A person must not manufacture, import into Tasmania for sale or sell a heating appliance to any other person unless –
  - (a) the heating appliance is marked in accordance with AS/NZS 4012:2014 and AS/NZS 4013:2014; and
  - (b) a laboratory certificate is in force in relation to heating appliances of the same model as that heating appliance.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (2) A laboratory certificate is a certificate issued by a laboratory registered with the National Association of Testing Authorities for testing for the purposes of AS/NZS 4012:2014 and AS/NZS 4013:2014.
- (3) If requested to do so by the Director, a person must produce to the Director, for inspection by the Director, a laboratory certificate that is in force in relation to heating appliances of the same model as any heating appliances that the person is manufacturing, importing into Tasmania for sale or selling.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

6. Interference with heating appliances

- (1) A person must not alter, or cause or permit the alteration of, the structure, exhaust system or inlet air system of any heating appliance of a model to which a laboratory certificate relates.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply in relation to –
- (a) the temporary modification of a heating appliance during the course of repairs being made to the heating appliance; or
  - (b) a heating appliance that has been installed in, and is sold together with, a building.

FUEL-BURNING HEATERS AND OUTDOOR SOLID-FUEL-BURNING COOKING APPLIANCES

7. Emission of smoke from heating appliances, fireplaces, outdoor solid-fuel-burning heaters and outdoor solid-fuel-burning cooking appliances

- (1) A person must not cause, or allow, a heating appliance, a fireplace or an outdoor solid-fuel-burning heater to emit smoke that –
- (a) is visible for a continuous period of 10 minutes or more; and
  - (b) during that continuous 10-minute period, is visible for a continuous period of 30 seconds or more –
    - (i) in the case of a heating appliance or a fireplace that is in a building, or part of a building – at a distance of 10 metres or more from the point on the building, or part of the building, where the smoke is emitted; or
    - (ii) in the case of a heating appliance or an outdoor solid-fuel-burning heater that is not in a building, or part of a building – at a distance of 10 metres or more from the point where the smoke is emitted.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not cause, or allow, an outdoor solid-fuel-burning cooking appliance, that is being used for a purpose other than smoking, heating or cooking food outdoors, or preparing to smoke, heat or cook food outdoors, or heating or boiling water outdoors, or preparing to heat or boil water outdoors, to emit smoke that –
- (a) is visible for a continuous period of 10 minutes or more; and
  - (b) during that continuous 10-minute period, is visible for a continuous period of 30 seconds or more at a distance of 10 metres or more from the point where the smoke is emitted.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (3) If, in a proceeding for an offence against subregulation (1) or (2), an authorised officer or a council officer gives evidence, based on the officer's own senses, that smoke was emitted from a building or land occupied by the defendant, that evidence is prima facie evidence of the matters so stated.
- (4) A person must take all reasonable measures to ensure that only dry solid fuel is burnt in a

PART 4 – CONTROL OF BURNING

8. Prohibition on burning of prohibited waste

Unless it is otherwise lawful to do so, a person must not burn any prohibited waste.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

9. Burning of vegetation and vegetative waste on land with an area of less than 2 000 square metres

- (1) A person must not burn vegetation or vegetative waste in the open, or in an incinerator, on land that has an area of less than 2 000 square metres, unless –
- (a) the person uses all practicable means as are necessary to prevent or minimise air pollution; and
  - (b) if a valid permit is issued to the person under the Fire Service Act 1979, he or she burns the vegetation or vegetative waste in accordance with the permit; and
  - (c) if valid by-laws, within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993, are made in accordance with that Act and are applicable to the person, he or she burns the vegetation or vegetative waste in accordance with those by-laws; and
  - (d) if a valid environment protection notice is issued, or caused to be issued, to the person under section 44 of the Act, he or she burns the vegetation or vegetative waste in accordance with that environment protection notice.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (2) Without limiting subregulation (1), the means of preventing or minimising air pollution are to include –
- (a) means that have regard to the potential for smoke to have an adverse effect on human health and the environment, taking into account –
    - (i) wind direction and wind speed; and
    - (ii) weather conditions; and
    - (iii) the length of time that the vegetation or vegetative waste being burnt is likely to burn; and
    - (iv) the proximity of any habitable building; and
  - (b) taking reasonable measures to ensure that –
    - (i) only dry vegetation or vegetative waste is burnt; and
    - (ii) only vegetation or vegetative waste that is suitable for disposal by burning is burnt.
