for Child-related Activities) Order 2014
Statutory Rules 2014, No. 80*

c. 6

- (l) whether the registered person has failed to provide any relevant information;
 - (m) any other matter not referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) or (l) that the Registrar considers relevant in conducting the additional risk assessment of the registered person.
- (3) The matters referred to in subclauses (1) and (2) are to be taken into account in conducting a risk assessment, or an additional risk assessment, by determining the nature of the behaviour, or alleged behaviour, of the applicant, or registered person, that is relevant to the matters referred to in those subclauses.

6. Conduct of risk assessments and additional risk assessments

- (1) In this clause –

matter, in relation to –

- (a) a risk assessment, means a matter referred to in clause 5(1) taken into account by the Registrar in conducting the risk assessment;
or
- (b) an additional risk assessment, means a matter referred to in clause 5(2) taken into account by the Registrar in conducting the additional risk assessment.

- (2) If the Registrar considers it relevant to do so in relation to a matter that he or she is taking into account in conducting a risk assessment, or an additional risk assessment, the Registrar may consider –
- (a) the nature, gravity and circumstances of an offence, misconduct, disciplinary proceeding or other relevant information relating to the matter, and how this is relevant to child-related activity; and
 - (b) the length of time that has passed since the matter occurred; and
 - (c) the vulnerability of the victim at the time of the matter occurring, including –
 - (i) the age of the victim; and
 - (ii) the age difference between the applicant, or registered person, and the victim; and
 - (iii) the applicant's, or registered person's, relationship to the victim or position of authority over the victim at the time of the matter occurring; and
 - (d) the applicant's, or registered person's, criminal, misconduct, disciplinary or other relevant history, including whether

c. 7

there is a pattern of concerning conduct;
and

- (e) the applicant's, or registered person's, conduct since the matter occurred; and
- (f) all other relevant circumstances in respect of the offending, misconduct or other relevant history of the applicant, or registered person, and the impact on the eligibility of the applicant, or registered person, to be engaged in child-related activity.

8. Conduct not to be taken into account

The Registrar must not take into account any conduct by the applicant that constituted an offence at the time the conduct occurred but would not have constituted an offence at the time the application for registration under the Act was made.

9. Making of submissions to Registrar

- (1) At any time before the Registrar completes a risk assessment of an applicant, or an additional risk assessment of a registered person, the applicant, or the registered person, may provide information to the Registrar that the applicant, or the registered person, believes may be relevant to the risk assessment or additional risk assessment.

- (2) The Registrar may take any information provided under subclause (1) into account when conducting a risk assessment or additional risk assessment.

10. Issue of notices of intent to refuse, suspend or cancel registration

- (1) The Registrar must provide a proposed negative notice to a person if –
 - (a) the person’s criminal history indicates that he or she has been convicted of an offence specified in Schedule 1; and
 - (b) at the time of the commission of the offence, other than an offence specified in item 1, 2, 8, 12, 14, 36, 53, 54, 105 or 106 of Schedule 1, the person was an adult and the victim of the offence was a child.
- (2) The Registrar must issue to a registered person a notice of intention to suspend or cancel the registered person’s registration if –
 - (a) the registered person’s criminal history indicates that the registered person has been convicted of an offence specified in Schedule 1; and

Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (Risk Assessment for Child-related Activities) Order 2014
Statutory Rules 2014, No. 80

c. 11

- (b) at the time of the commission of the offence, other than an offence specified in item 1, 2, 8, 12, 14, 36, 53, 54, 105 or 106 of Schedule 1, the registered person was an adult and the victim of the offence was a child.

11. Changes in relevant information of non-registered person

- (1) In this clause –

affected person means a person who has been provided with a proposed negative notice, or whose registration has been cancelled, under the Act;

relevant date, in respect of an affected person, means the date that –

- (a) the proposed negative notice was provided in respect of the affected person; or
 - (b) the registration of the affected person was cancelled.
- (2) For the purposes of section 19(3)(b) of the Act, any of the following matters constitutes significant and exceptional change in the circumstances of an affected person:
 - (a) the affected person was not found guilty in respect of proceedings, or those

- proceedings were withdrawn, and those proceedings –
- (i) were pending at the relevant date; and
 - (ii) were taken into account when making the negative notice or cancelling the registration;
- (b) since the relevant date –
- (i) the affected person has had a finding of guilt quashed or set aside; and
 - (ii) that finding of guilt had been taken into account when making the negative notice or cancelling the registration;
- (c) a finding in relation to any other matter that had been taken into account when making the negative notice, or cancellation of the registration, in respect of the affected person has been quashed, set aside or otherwise expressly or impliedly ceased to have effect, since the relevant date.
- (3) Nothing in subclause (2) prevents the Registrar from allowing an application under section 19 of the Act that does not meet the requirements of that subclause if the Registrar is satisfied that there has been a significant and exceptional

change in the person's circumstances since the relevant date.

12. Changes in information of registered person

For the purposes of section 46 of the Act, any of the following information constitutes new relevant information in respect of a registered person:

- (a) the registered person is suspected of having committed a relevant offence;
- (b) the registered person has been charged with a relevant offence;
- (c) the registered person has been convicted of a relevant offence;
- (d) the registered person has been found guilty of a relevant offence.
