PART 2 – DRIVER LICENCES

Division 1 – Classes of driver licences

6. Classes of driver licences

- (1) The classes of driver licences are established as follows:
 - (a) motor cycle licence (R);
 - (b) car licence (C);
 - (c) light rigid vehicle licence (LR);
 - (d) medium rigid vehicle licence (MR);
 - (e) heavy rigid vehicle licence (HR);
 - (f) heavy combination vehicle licence (HC);
 - (g) multi-combination vehicle licence (MC).
- (2) For the purposes of the Act, a class of driver licence may be referred to by reference to the code shown in parenthesis in subregulation (1) after the relevant class.
- (3) A hierarchy of licence classes is established consisting of the following licence classes as listed in ascending order:
 - (a) a car licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law;

Regulations 2021
Statutory Rules 2021, No. 26*

Part 2 – Driver Licences

r. 7

- (b) a light rigid vehicle licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law;
 - (c) a medium rigid vehicle licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law;
 - (d) a heavy rigid vehicle licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law;
 - (e) a heavy combination vehicle licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law;
 - (f) a multi-combination vehicle licence or its equivalent under a corresponding law.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, a motor cycle licence is not within the hierarchy of licence classes.

7. Authority conferred by licences

- (1) A driver licence of a class specified in regulation 6(1) authorises the holder of the licence to drive a motor vehicle of a particular kind on a public street as set out in this regulation.
- (2) A motor cycle licence authorises the holder of the licence to drive a motor cycle.
- (3) A car licence authorises the holder of the licence to drive a motor vehicle, other than a motor cycle, that –
 - (a) has a GVM of 4.5 tonnes or less; and

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (b) is constructed or equipped to seat not more than 12 adults including the driver.
- (4) A light rigid vehicle licence authorises the holder to drive a motor vehicle, other than a motor cycle, that –
 - (a) has a GVM of 4.5 tonnes or less and is constructed or equipped to seat more than 12 adults including the driver; or
 - (b) has a GVM greater than 4.5 tonnes but not greater than 8 tonnes.
- (5) A medium rigid vehicle licence authorises the holder to drive a motor vehicle, other than a motor cycle, that –
 - (a) has not more than 2 axles; and
 - (b) has a GVM greater than 8 tonnes.
- (6) A heavy rigid vehicle licence authorises the holder to drive a motor vehicle, including an articulated bus but not any other articulated vehicle, other than a motor cycle, that –
 - (a) has 3 or more axles; and
 - (b) has a GVM greater than 8 tonnes.
- (7) A heavy combination vehicle licence authorises the holder to drive –
 - (a) a prime mover to which is attached a single semi-trailer and an unladen converter dolly; or

- (b) a prime mover to which is attached a dolly and a single semi-trailer; or
 - (c) a rigid motor vehicle towing –
 - (i) a trailer with a GVM greater than 9 tonnes; and
 - (ii) an unladen converter dolly.
 - (8) A multi-combination vehicle licence authorises the holder to drive any motor vehicle, or combination of vehicles, other than a motor cycle.
 - (9) A car licence or light rigid vehicle licence only authorises the holder to drive a motor vehicle towing a trailer if –
 - (a) the licence would authorise the holder to drive the motor vehicle without the trailer; and
 - (b) the motor vehicle is towing only one trailer.
 - (10) A medium rigid vehicle licence or heavy rigid vehicle licence only authorises the holder to drive a motor vehicle towing a trailer if –
 - (a) the licence would authorise the holder to drive the vehicle without the trailer; and
 - (b) the motor vehicle is not an articulated bus and is towing only one trailer; and

r. 8

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (c) the GVM of the trailer is not greater than 9 tonnes.
- (11) A licence in the hierarchy of licence classes authorises the holder of the licence to drive not only the vehicles appropriate to that class of licence but also vehicles appropriate to any lower class in the hierarchy.
- (12) A driver licence does not authorise the holder of the licence to drive a vehicle transporting dangerous goods for which an additional licence or authority is required under the Dangerous Goods (Road and Rail Transport) Act 2010.

Division 2 – Learner, provisional and other inexperienced drivers

8. Novice licensing stages

- (1) Before being eligible to be issued with a full licence in relation to a motor cycle, a novice rider must complete the following novice licensing stages, in ascending order:
 - (a) motor cycle learner stage;
 - (b) P1 stage;
 - (c) P2 stage.
- (2) Before being eligible to be issued with a full licence in relation to a car, a novice driver must complete the following novice licensing stages, in ascending order:

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (a) novice driver learner stage;
 - (b) P1 stage;
 - (c) P2 stage.
- (3) A person who has progressed to the next novice licensing stage in relation to a particular licence class does not, by virtue of that progression, progress to the next novice licensing stage in relation to another licence class.

9. Learner drivers

- (1) A person has the status of a learner driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles for which a driver licence of a particular class is required unless –
- (a) the person successfully completes –
 - (i) each training course required by the Registrar for progressing beyond that status; and
 - (ii) each other theoretical and practical requirement required by the Registrar for progressing beyond that status; or
 - (b) the person successfully completes –
 - (i) each training course required under a corresponding law for progressing beyond that status; and

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (ii) each other theoretical and practical requirement required under a corresponding law for progressing beyond that status – and the Registrar recognises that progression for the purposes of these regulations.

- (2) A person who has progressed beyond the status of a learner driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles for which a driver licence of a particular class is required reverts to the status of learner driver if –
 - (a) the person has not held an Australian driver licence of the relevant class for the past 5 years; or
 - (b) an Australian driver licence, including a provisional licence, of the relevant class has been cancelled and the Registrar determines, on an application for the issue of a driver licence, that the licence is to be issued as a learner licence.
- (3) A person who has progressed beyond the status of a learner driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles for which a driver licence of a particular class is required has the status of a learner driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles for which a driver licence of a higher class in the hierarchy of licence classes is required.
- (4) A person is taken to have progressed beyond the status of a learner driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles of a particular class if the Registrar determines that, in view of the person's experience in driving motor vehicles of the relevant class, the person should not be a learner driver for that class.

10. Learner licences

- (1) A car licence or a motor cycle licence issued to a person who has the status of a learner driver must be issued as a learner licence.
- (2) A driver licence, of any class, may also be issued as a learner licence if –
 - (a) the applicant holds a licence in the hierarchy of licence classes that is 2 or more grades lower than the licence for which the application is made; or
 - (b) the applicant formerly held a licence of the relevant class, but has reverted to the status of a learner driver in accordance with regulation 9(2).
- (3) A learner licence may be issued subject to conditions restricting the times and places at which, and the purposes for which, a motor vehicle may be driven by the holder of the licence and other conditions that the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (4) A person who holds a licence of a particular class who intends to learn to drive motor vehicles for which a licence of the next class in

11. Duration of learner licence

- (1) A learner licence, other than a heavy vehicle learner licence, is to be issued –
 - (a) for 5 years in the case of a novice driver other than a novice rider; and
 - (b) for 12 months in any other case.
- (2) A heavy vehicle learner licence expires –
 - (a) if the licensee holds only one other driver licence other than a learner licence, on the date on which the other licence expires; or
 - (b) if the licensee holds more than one other driver licence other than a learner licence, on the latest expiry date of those licences.

12. Requirements for certain learner drivers

- (1) In this regulation –

driving assessment officer means any of the following persons who is testing or assessing a driver for the purposes of these regulations:

14. Unaccompanied driver offence

For the purposes of the definition of definition of unaccompanied driver offence in section 3 of the Act, an offence against regulation 12(3) is prescribed as an unaccompanied driver offence.

15. Provisional licences

(1) In this regulation –

provisional licence does not include a restricted driver licence issued to a person who has not progressed beyond the status of a provisional driver.

(2) A driver licence of a particular class issued to a person who has progressed beyond the status of a learner driver, but who has not progressed beyond the status of a provisional driver, is to be issued as a provisional licence.

(3) A person progresses beyond the status of a provisional driver in relation to the driving of motor vehicles for which a licence of a particular class is required, if the person –

- (a) obtains a provisional licence in relation to that class under these regulations or a corresponding law; and
- (b) holds that licence for the relevant period specified in regulation 16(2); and
- (c) obtains a full licence in relation to that licence class.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- proceed to the next licensing stage for the novice driver; or
- (b) impose one or more of the following, specifically as part of the novice case management program, on the novice driver or novice rider:
 - (i) additional requirements, such as those specified in regulation 27;
 - (ii) additional conditions on the relevant licence; or
 - (c) issue a licence for a different stage than the one applied for, by the novice driver or novice rider, in accordance with these regulations; or
 - (d) if the licence is a provisional licence, extend the duration of the relevant licence; or
 - (e) do anything that the Registrar considers reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the novice driver or novice rider is a suitable person to hold the relevant licence.
- (5) A novice driver or novice rider who is subject to the novice case management program in respect of a particular class of licence is not eligible to apply for the next licensing stage in that class of licence while he or she remains subject to that program.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (6) Unless specifically stated by the Registrar, the renewal of the relevant licence of a novice driver or novice rider does not remove any obligation imposed by, or requirement of, the novice case management program that applies to the novice driver or novice rider.
- (7) Nothing in this regulation –
 - (a) requires the Registrar to issue, or renew, a licence to a novice driver or novice rider solely on the basis that the novice driver or novice rider has complied with the novice case management program as it applies to that novice driver or novice rider; or
 - (b) prevents the Registrar from exercising any of his or her powers, or from performing his or her functions, in relation to –
 - (i) the novice driver or novice rider; or
 - (ii) the relevant licence of the novice driver or novice rider.

21. Recommencement or extension of provisional period on conviction for prescribed offence

- (1) In this regulation –

relevant offence means a prescribed offence within the meaning of section 13B of the Act.

- (2) For the purposes of section 13B of the Act, the following are prescribed offences:
- (a) exceeding the applicable speed-limit by 10km/h or more;
 - (b) using a hand-held mobile phone, in contravention of regulation 300(1) or (1A) of the Road Rules or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction;
 - (c) failing to wear a seatbelt, in contravention of regulation 264(1) of the Road Rules or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction;
 - (d) failing to wear a helmet, in contravention of regulation 270(1) of the Road Rules or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction;
 - (e) failing to display P-plates, in contravention of regulation 17(2) or (3) or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction;
 - (f) transporting more than one passenger, who has attained the age of 16 years but not attained the age of 22 years, in contravention of regulation 18 or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction;

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (g) driving a motor cycle in contravention of regulation 19(2) or a substantially equivalent law of another jurisdiction.
- (3) If a novice driver or novice rider is convicted of a relevant offence while he or she holds a P1 provisional licence, the period for which he or she has held the licence is to be ignored and he or she is taken to have been issued with the licence as at the date of the offence.
- (4) If a novice driver or novice rider who is in the P1 stage is convicted of a relevant offence while he or she is not the holder of a P1 provisional licence –
 - (a) the period for which he or she previously held a P1 provisional licence is to be ignored; and
 - (b) he or she must obtain another P1 provisional licence and hold it for 12 continuous months before being eligible to apply for a P2 provisional licence.
- (5) If a novice driver or novice rider in the P2 stage is convicted of a relevant offence that occurred while he or she was in the P1 stage, he or she is required to hold a P2 provisional licence for a period equivalent to the period from the date on which he or she was issued with a P1 provisional licence to the date of the offence, in addition to the period for which he or she is otherwise required to hold a P2 provisional licence under these regulations.

Division 3 – Issue of driver licence

22. Calculation of certain periods

For the purposes of calculating, for this Division, the period for which a person has held an Australian driver licence –

- (a) the Registrar must exclude any period for which –
 - (i) the person has held the licence as a learner licence; or
 - (ii) the person has been disqualified from driving by an Australian court or by the operation of an automatic statutory penalty; or
 - (iii) the licence has been suspended; and
- (b) if the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in an external territory or a foreign country, the Registrar may take into account all, or any part of, the period as if the licence had been an Australian driver licence.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

23. Eligibility requirements for all licences

- (1) Subject to these regulations, a person is eligible to hold a driver licence if the person –
- (a) is a resident of Tasmania; and
 - (b) has attained –
 - (i) in the case of a learner car licence, the age of 16 years; or
 - (ii) in the case of a learner motor cycle licence, the age of 16 years and 6 months; or
 - (iii) in the case of a provisional licence, the age of 17 years; or
 - (iv) in any other case, the age specified in regulation 25; and
 - (c) is physically and mentally fit to drive a motor vehicle of the relevant class; and
 - (d) unless the licence is to be issued as a learner licence, is competent to drive a motor vehicle of the relevant class; and
 - (e) has an adequate knowledge of the law governing road traffic; and
 - (f) satisfies any additional eligibility criteria prescribed under regulation 24; and
 - (g) is in all other respects a suitable person to hold the licence.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, the holder of a valid foreign driver licence is not eligible to hold a driver licence solely on the basis that he or she holds the valid foreign driver licence.
- (3) Subject to subregulation (4), a person is not eligible to hold a driver licence other than a restricted driver licence –
- (a) if the person –
- (i) is currently disqualified from driving by order of an Australian court or by the operation of an automatic statutory penalty; or
- (ii) is currently disqualified from driving under the law of a foreign country as a result of an offence that, if committed in Tasmania, is likely to have resulted in the person being disqualified from driving in Tasmania; or
- (iii) is subject to a period of licence suspension or cancellation under the law of Tasmania or another Australian jurisdiction; or
- (iv) is subject to a period of ineligibility to hold a driver licence under the law of Tasmania or another Australian jurisdiction; or
- (b) if the person –

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (i) has been ordered by a court to attend a prescribed course under section 18 of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970; and
 - (ii) has not been issued with a certificate under section 18(8) of that Act certifying the person's attendance at, and satisfactory completion of, the course.
 - (4) If an applicant for a driver licence –
 - (a) is disqualified from driving under the law of another jurisdiction for an offence involving the use of alcohol or a drug until requirements relating to treatment, education, assessment or rehabilitation are complied with; and
 - (b) has not complied with those requirements in that other jurisdiction –
- the Registrar may impose equivalent requirements and, if the applicant complies with those requirements to the Registrar's satisfaction, exempt the applicant from the ineligibility imposed under subregulation (3)(a).

Part 2 – Driver Licences

(b) the person must have at least –

- (i) if the person is subject to a novice case management program and is required under the program to have a number of hours of experience driving a car on a public street less than 80 hours, that number of hours so required; or
- (ii) if the person is subject to a novice case management program and is required under the program to have a number of hours of experience driving a car on a public street greater than 80 hours, that number of hours so required; or
- (iii) in any other case, 80 hours of experience driving a car on a public street – recorded in his or her learner driver logbook before applying for the P1 provisional licence.

- (3) The hours of experience specified in subregulation (2)(b) must include at least 15 hours of experience driving a car at night.
- (4) For the purposes of subregulation (2)(b), the Registrar may determine that the successful completion of an activity is the equivalent of a

- (5) If the Registrar makes a determination under subregulation (4) –
 - (a) the Registrar may make the determination subject to such conditions as the Registrar considers appropriate; and
 - (b) the Registrar is to ensure that the determination is published, in any manner or form that the Registrar considers appropriate, while the determination remains in force.
- (6) If the applicant's learner driver logbook has been lost, stolen or destroyed, he or she may provide a statutory declaration stating –
 - (a) that the learner driver logbook has been lost, stolen or destroyed; and
 - (b) the number of hours recorded in the learner driver logbook and the name of the person referred to in regulation 12(3)(a).
- (7) A holder of a learner motor cycle licence is required to meet the following additional eligibility criteria before applying for a P1 provisional motor cycle licence:

- (a) an application for the driver licence is made by a person who holds an Australian driver licence issued under a corresponding law; and
 - (b) the applicant is entitled to the issue of the driver licence under the principle of mutual recognition.
- (4) A person who holds a driver licence of a particular class and who is eligible for, and intends to hold, a licence of another class must apply for the licence of the other class.
- (5) A person who is disqualified from driving may, within one month before the end of the period of disqualification, make an application for a driver licence, other than a restricted driver licence, but, in that event, the driver licence is not to be issued until the period of disqualification has ended.

27. Additional requirements by Registrar

- (1) The Registrar may require an applicant for a driver licence to do one or more of the following:
- (a) to undergo a test or assessment, or complete a training course, or provide other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, of the applicant's

- (b) to submit to an examination, at the applicant's own expense, by a medical practitioner or a registered health care practitioner, or to produce other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, that the applicant is physically and mentally fit to drive motor vehicles of the class for which the licence is sought;
 - (c) to submit to a test to satisfy the Registrar that the applicant has an adequate knowledge of the law governing road traffic;
 - (d) to provide evidence, of a kind specified by the Registrar, establishing to the Registrar's satisfaction that –
 - (i) the applicant is, in other respects, a suitable person to hold a licence of the class sought by the applicant; or
 - (ii) the applicant has met any pre-conditions necessary, in the Registrar's opinion, for the licence of the class sought by the applicant to be issued, if otherwise eligible; or
 - (iii) the applicant is, in other respects, eligible to hold a licence of the class sought by the applicant.

- (2) The Registrar may accept evidence obtained within or outside Tasmania for the purposes of this regulation.
 - (3) The fee payable for a test, assessment or training course required by the Registrar under this regulation is –
 - (a) if the test, assessment or training course is performed by an organisation that has an agreement with the Department to provide the test, assessment or training course, the fee specified by that organisation; or
 - (b) in all other cases, the applicable scheduled fee.

28. Issue of driver licences generally

- (1) Subject to these regulations, the Registrar must issue a driver licence of a particular class and type to an applicant if satisfied that the applicant is eligible to hold the licence.
- (2) The Registrar must issue a driver licence of a lower class than the class of licence applied for under these regulations if –
 - (a) the application is for a driver licence of a particular class in the hierarchy of licence classes; and
 - (b) the Registrar is not satisfied that the applicant is eligible to hold a licence of the class sought in the application but is eligible to hold a licence of the lower class; and

- (c) on the application, the applicant asks the Registrar to issue a licence of the lower class.
- (3) A driver licence is to be issued as either or both of the following:
 - (a) a licence of a particular class in the hierarchy of licence classes;
 - (b) a motor cycle licence.
- (4) If an applicant already holds an Australian driver licence, the applicant must surrender the licence before a new driver licence is issued under these regulations.
- (5) If an applicant holds a foreign driver licence, the Registrar may require the applicant to surrender the licence before a driver licence is issued under these regulations.
- (6) The Registrar must not issue a driver licence to an applicant if the applicant would, as a result, hold 2 or more Australian driver licences.
- (7) A driver licence issued contrary to subregulation (6) is void.
- (8) The Registrar may refuse to issue a driver licence to an applicant if the applicant has failed to pay a fine or other pecuniary penalty, or an instalment of a fine or other pecuniary penalty, arising out of the use of a motor vehicle in Australia.

- (9) The Registrar may refuse to issue a driver licence if it appears appropriate to do so having regard to a judgment, order or decision of an Australian court.

29. Issue of interlock licences

- (1) Despite regulation 28, the Registrar must issue a driver licence as an interlock licence if the Registrar is to issue the driver licence to a person who –
- (a) applied for the driver licence to replace an Australian driver licence that was cancelled as a consequence of the person being convicted of an offence specified in subregulation (2), unless the person –
 - (i) was the holder of a learner licence at the time the offence was committed; and
 - (ii) at the time the offence was committed, did not also hold a driver licence of a type other than a learner licence; or
 - (b) has a court order authorising the issue of a restricted driver licence to the person after his or her Australian driver licence was suspended or cancelled as a consequence of being convicted of a subsequent offence within the meaning of section 17 of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970; or

- (c) applied for the driver licence to replace an Australian driver licence that expired or was cancelled for any reason if the latter driver licence was an interlock licence and the I condition on the interlock licence had not been revoked by the Registrar under regulation 71 before the interlock licence expired or was cancelled.

(2) Subregulation (1) applies to the following offences:

- (a) an offence under the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970 that involves a blood alcohol concentration of 0.15 or greater;
- (b) a subsequent offence, within the meaning of section 17 of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970, if the previous offence and the subsequent offence both occur within a 5-year period;
- (c) an offence in respect of a failure to comply with a direction made under section 10(4) of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970;
- (d) an offence under section 4 of the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970 for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(e) an offence in another jurisdiction that substantially corresponds to an offence referred to in this subregulation.

(3) Nothing in this regulation affects the Registrar’s discretion to impose any condition, including an I condition, on any driver licence in any other circumstance.

30. Issue of probationary licences

(1) For the purposes of paragraph (ab) of the definition of probationary licence in the Act, a person has applied for a licence in prescribed circumstances if the person has applied for the licence –

(a) following a period of suspension from driving ordered by an Australian court;
or

(b) following a period of suspension, or disqualification, from driving imposed under the Act or any other Act; or

(c) having previously held a driver licence which was cancelled in accordance with the Act or any other Act; or

(d) having previously held a driver licence and following a period of ineligibility to hold a driver licence –

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (i) ordered by an Australian court; or
 - (ii) under the Act or any other Act; or
- (e) to replace an equivalent licence issued under a corresponding law.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (ac) of the definition of probationary licence in the Act, a person has completed a period of suspension, or disqualification, in prescribed circumstances if the person has completed –
 - (a) a period of suspension, or disqualification, from driving ordered by an Australian court; or
 - (b) a period of suspension, or disqualification, from driving imposed under the Act or any other Act.
- (3) The Registrar may issue a driver licence as a probationary licence if the Registrar considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

31. Term of driver licences

- (1) Subject to this regulation, a driver licence other than a driver licence receipt, is to be issued for a term of years specified in the licence of not less than one year and not more than 5 years.
- (2) A driver licence receipt is issued for the period ending at the earliest of the following:

Regulations 2021
Statutory Rules 2021, No. 26*

Part 2 – Driver Licences

r. 31

- (a) the date stated in the receipt as the date on which the receipt expires;
 - (b) a driver licence, other than a driver licence receipt, is received by the person to whom it is issued;
 - (c) the Registrar, by notice in writing to the holder of the receipt, cancels the receipt on the ground that the receipt was issued in error.
 - (3) If a driver licence is issued to a person on the surrender of an Australian driver licence of an equivalent class issued under a corresponding law, the licence is to be issued for a term of 5 years, or the balance of the term of the surrendered licence, whichever is the shorter.
 - (4) If a driver licence is issued to a person on the surrender of a driver licence of a lower class in the hierarchy of licence classes, the new licence is to be issued for the balance of the term of the surrendered licence or some other term as agreed between the applicant and the Registrar.
 - (5) If a person who holds a driver licence in the hierarchy of licence classes becomes entitled to hold a motor cycle licence or, conversely, a person who holds a motor cycle licence becomes entitled to hold a driver licence of a particular class in the hierarchy of licence classes, a new driver licence of both classes is to be issued, on the surrender of the earlier licence, for the balance of the term of the surrendered licence or some other term as agreed between the applicant and the Registrar.

- (6) If the earlier driver licence that is surrendered under subregulation (5) is an interlock licence, each class of driver licence specified on the licence that is issued under that subregulation, including a class of driver licence relating to a learner licence, is subject to the I condition.

32. Form of driver licences

- (1) A driver licence, including a driver licence receipt, is to be in an approved form.
- (2) A driver licence, other than a driver licence receipt, must include –
- (a) a licence number; and
 - (b) the holder's name; and
 - (c) the holder's date of birth; and
 - (d) the holder's residential address; and
 - (e) a photograph of the holder; and
 - (f) the holder's signature or a reproduction of that signature; and
 - (g) the class of the licence, or if the licence is issued both as a licence of a particular class in the hierarchy of licence classes and as a motor cycle licence, both those classes; and

- (h) the expiry date of the licence; and
 - (i) each condition to which the licence is subject; and
 - (j) any other information that the Registrar determines should be included on the licence.
- (3) A licence condition may be shown on a driver licence by use of a code in accordance with regulation 33(3) or such other code determined by the Registrar.
- (4) The holding of a heavy vehicle learner licence may be shown on a driver licence by means of a code determined by the Registrar.

33. Conditions on licences

- (1) A driver licence is subject to the conditions, if any, imposed by the Registrar.
- (2) In determining licence conditions, the Registrar –
 - (a) must have regard to the interests of road safety; and
 - (b) may attach, by way of condition, to a licence of a particular type or class a requirement that normally attaches to a licence of a different type or class.

- (h) a condition that the holder of the licence must not drive a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is fitted with aids specified by the Registrar, or the vehicle has been modified as directed by the Registrar (V);
 - (i) a condition that the holder of the licence must not drive a motor vehicle with a breath or blood alcohol concentration greater than zero (Z);
 - (j) any other condition that the Registrar considers appropriate and notifies in writing to the holder of the licence (X).
- (4) The code for designating a particular licence condition is shown in subregulation (3) in parenthesis.
- (5) The Registrar is not to impose an I condition under subregulation (1) on a learner licence unless –
- (a) the holder of the learner licence also holds a full licence, or a provisional licence, of another class at the same time as holding the learner licence; or
 - (b) the Registrar believes that it is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (6) A driver who holds an Australian driver licence that is subject to a condition referred to in subregulation (3)(j), or the corresponding provision of a corresponding law, must carry while driving a notice explaining the condition issued by the Registrar under these regulations or by the authority responsible for administering the corresponding law.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (7) In addition to any other condition that may be imposed, a probationary licence may be issued on one or more of the following conditions:
 - (a) a condition that the holder of the licence must not drive a motor vehicle with a breath or blood alcohol concentration greater than zero (Z);
 - (b) a condition making the licence liable to suspension or cancellation if 2 or more demerit points are recorded against the holder of the licence.
- (8) A condition referred to in subregulation (7)(b) that is imposed on a licence does not affect, in respect of the licence, the operation of the demerit points scheme.
- (9) Subject to regulation 71, the Registrar may, on the Registrar's own initiative, or on application by the holder of a driver licence, vary or revoke a condition of the licence.
- (10) A variation or revocation of a condition takes effect on the service of the notice of variation or revocation on the holder of the licence.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

r. 34

34. Recording of issue or variation of driver licences

- (1) On issuing a driver licence, the Registrar must record the following information in respect of the driver licence in the driver licence register:
- (a) the holder's name;
 - (b) the holder's date of birth;
 - (c) the holder's residential address;
 - (d) if there is no postal service to the holder's residential address, a postal address for the service of notices on the holder;
 - (e) the licence number;
 - (f) a copy of the photograph included on the licence as required under regulation 32(2)(e);
 - (g) the class of the licence, or if the licence is issued both as a licence of a particular class in the hierarchy of licence classes and as a motor cycle licence, both those classes;
 - (h) if the licence is a learner licence or a provisional licence, the licence type and, if it is a provisional licence, the date on which it ceases to be a provisional licence;
 - (i) the commencement date and expiry date of the licence;

- (j) each condition to which the licence is subject.
- (2) The Registrar may record other information in the driver licence register –
 - (a) for the purposes of the Act or any other Act; or
 - (b) for any other purposes that the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (3) The Registrar must keep the information as recorded in the driver licence register up to date by –
 - (a) recording a later variation, renewal, suspension, cancellation, expiry or surrender of the driver licence; and
 - (b) ensuring that the information recorded in the register reflects the most recent information, about the licence and the holder of the licence, available to the Registrar.

Division 4 – Expiry and renewal of driver licence

35. Expiry of driver licence

- (1) Unless renewed, cancelled or surrendered, a driver licence expires at midnight at the end of the day recorded in the driver licence register as the licence expiry date.

- (2) Nothing in these regulations prevents the Registrar from amending the driver licence register, on the Registrar's own initiative, to extend the licence expiry date in respect of a driver licence.
 - (3) The last day of the term for which a driver licence is issued or renewed (the licence expiry date) is to be recorded in the driver licence register and on the driver licence.
 - (4) If the Registrar extends, on the Registrar's own initiative, the licence expiry date in respect of a driver licence under subregulation (2), the Registrar is to notify the holder of that driver licence of the new licence expiry date for that driver licence.

36. Notices of renewal

- (1) The Registrar may send a notice of renewal to the holder of a driver licence.
- (2) A notice of renewal is to –
 - (a) be addressed to the holder of the driver licence; and
 - (b) remind the holder of the licence expiry date; and
 - (c) warn the holder that, if the licence is not renewed on or before the licence expiry date, the licence will expire; and

- (3) The Registrar's failure to send the notice, or the non-receipt of the notice, does not postpone the expiry of the driver licence or affect the obligation of the holder of the licence to ensure that the licence is renewed if he or she wishes to continue as a licensed driver.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, the Registrar may send a notice of renewal to the holder of a learner licence.

37. Application for renewal of driver licence

- (1) An application for renewal of a driver licence must –
 - (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any evidence required by the Registrar of the applicant's –

- (2) The applicant must –
- (a) submit to the taking of a photograph, for inclusion on the driver licence –
 - (i) by a person authorised by the Registrar to take such photographs; or
 - (ii) under alternative arrangements acceptable to the Registrar; and
 - (b) provide a specimen signature as required by the Registrar for inclusion on the licence.
- (3) An application for the renewal of a driver licence, other than a learner licence, may be made even though the licence has already expired if the licence has expired less than 5 years before the date of the application.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

38. Additional requirements by Registrar

- (1) The Registrar may require an applicant for the renewal of a driver licence to do one or more of the following:
 - (a) to undergo a test or assessment, or provide other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, that the applicant continues to be competent to drive motor vehicles of the relevant class;
 - (b) to submit to an examination, at the applicant's own expense, by a medical practitioner or a registered health care practitioner, or to produce other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, that the applicant is physically and mentally fit to drive motor vehicles of the relevant class;
 - (c) to submit to a test to satisfy the Registrar that the applicant has an adequate knowledge of the law governing road traffic;
 - (d) to provide evidence, of a kind specified by the Registrar, establishing to the Registrar's satisfaction that –
 - (i) the applicant is, in other respects, a suitable person to hold a licence of the class sought by the applicant; or

 - (2) The Registrar may accept evidence obtained within or outside Tasmania for the purposes of this regulation.
 - (3) The applicable scheduled fee is payable for a test or assessment, other than a medical examination, required by the Registrar under this regulation.

39. Renewal of driver licence

- (1) If satisfied that an applicant for the renewal of a driver licence remains eligible to hold the licence, the Registrar must renew the licence.
- (2) If the Registrar renews a driver licence, the Registrar must –
 - (a) amend the driver licence register to show the new expiry date for the licence; and
 - (b) re-issue the licence in the form of a renewed licence showing the new expiry date.
- (3) A driver licence receipt may be issued in anticipation of the issue of the renewed driver licence.
- (4) Subject to subregulation (5), if a driver licence, other than a learner licence, is renewed before, or within 6 months after, the expiry date for the licence, the period of the renewal runs, or is taken to have run, from the day after the expiry of the licence.

- (5) If an application for renewal is made after the expiry of the driver licence, then, even though the period of renewal is taken to have run from the day after the expiry of the licence, the holder of the licence is unlicensed from the day after the date of expiry until the date of renewal.
- (6) If a driver licence, other than a learner licence, is renewed more than 6 months after the expiry of the licence, the period of licence renewal runs from the date of renewal.
- (7) If a driver licence that was issued as a learner licence is renewed, the period of licence renewal runs from the date of expiry of the licence or, if that date has passed, the date of renewal.

Division 5 – Registrar’s powers to vary, suspend or cancel

 - (b) the person has failed to comply with regulation 58 or 59 if required to do so; or
 - (c) the person cannot drive a motor vehicle of the relevant class without danger to the public because of illness or incapacity or the effects of treatment for illness or incapacity; or
 - (d) the person does not have adequate knowledge of the law governing road traffic; or
 - (e) the person is not competent to drive a motor vehicle of the relevant class; or
 - (f) the person is not in some other respect a suitable person to drive a motor vehicle of the relevant class; or

- (2) A variation to a driver licence under this regulation may take the form of –
- (a) the imposition of a licence condition; or
 - (b) the variation of a licence condition; or
 - (c) if the licence is within the hierarchy of licence classes, reducing the class of the licence.
- (3) The Registrar must suspend or cancel a person's driver licence if required to do so –
- (a) by order of an Australian court; or
 - (b) under a law of Tasmania or another jurisdiction about driving while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs; or
 - (c) under any other law.
- (4) The Registrar may cancel a driver licence if the holder has surrendered the licence to the licensing authority in another jurisdiction for cancellation.
- (5) The following decisions are not administrative decisions for the purposes of the Vehicle and Traffic (Review of Decisions) Regulations 2021:
- (a) a decision to vary, suspend or cancel a driver licence under subregulation (1)(b);
 - (b) a decision to vary a driver licence by imposing an I condition on the licence.

Part 2 – Driver Licences

41. Notice of variation, suspension or cancellation of driver licence

- (1) If the Registrar makes a decision to vary, suspend or cancel a person's driver licence under this Division, the Registrar must give the person written notice of –
 - (a) the variation, suspension or cancellation of the licence; and
 - (b) subject to subregulation (2), the reasons for the variation, suspension or cancellation; and
 - (c) the date on which the variation, suspension or cancellation takes effect.
- (2) Despite subregulation (1), if a written notice under that subregulation relates to a decision of the Registrar that is not, by virtue of regulation 40(5), an administrative decision for the purposes of the Vehicle and Traffic (Review of Decisions) Regulations 2021, the Registrar –
 - (a) is not required to give written notice of the reasons for the variation, suspension or cancellation under subregulation (1)(b); but
 - (b) must, in addition to the other matters specified in subregulation (1), state in the written notice that the decision of the Registrar is not an administrative decision for the purposes of those regulations.

- (3) If the proposed variation, suspension or cancellation is based on a default that is capable of remedy, the Registrar –
- (a) must state in the notice –
 - (i) the action that must be taken by the holder of the driver licence to avoid the variation, suspension or cancellation; and
 - (ii) the date by which the holder of the licence must take that action; and
 - (b) if satisfied that the holder of the licence has taken the necessary action by the specified date, must withdraw the notice.
- (4) The notice under subregulation (1) must also state –
- (a) in the case of a notice of variation, the effect of the variation and, if any limitation or restriction on driving results from the variation, the nature of the limitation or restriction; or
 - (b) in the case of a notice of suspension, that, as from the date on which the suspension takes effect, the person is not authorised to drive a motor vehicle on a public street for the period of suspension specified in the notice; or

- (c) in the case of a notice of cancellation, that, as from the date on which the cancellation takes effect, the person is no longer authorised to drive a motor vehicle on a public street.
- (5) A driver licence is varied, suspended or cancelled in accordance with the notice.
- (6) If a driver licence is suspended under this Division, the suspension terminates if –
 - (a) the period of suspension stated in the notice comes to an end; or
 - (b) the Registrar terminates the suspension.
- (7) For the avoidance of doubt, if a driver licence is suspended under this Division, the period of suspension does not terminate if the licence is cancelled, or expires, while so suspended.

Division 6 – Surrender of driver licence

42. Surrender of driver licence

- (1) The holder of a driver licence may apply to the Registrar to surrender the licence.
- (2) The application must be accompanied by the driver licence or a statutory declaration made by the holder to the effect that the licence has been lost, stolen or destroyed.
- (3) If an application to surrender a driver licence is made in accordance with this regulation –

- (a) the Registrar must accept the surrender unless action is currently being taken to suspend or cancel the licence on a ground other than that the holder of the licence is no longer physically or mentally fit to drive a motor vehicle; and
 - (b) on the Registrar's acceptance of the surrender, the driver licence is cancelled.
 - (4) Subject to subregulation (5), on surrender of a driver licence, the Registrar may refund to the former holder of the licence a proportion of the fee paid for the issue or last renewal of the licence equivalent to the proportion of the licence period remaining when the surrender took effect.
 - (5) The Registrar may deduct, from the amount of the refund, the licence production fee, before making the refund, and no refund is to be made if the amount of the refund does not exceed the amount of the fee.
 - (6) This regulation does not apply to the surrender of an Australian driver licence issued under a corresponding law that is surrendered in anticipation of the issue of a driver licence under these regulations.

- (2) The legislation creating each of the prescribed offences is as specified for the offence in column 3 of Parts 1 and 2 of Schedule 2.

Division 8 – Miscellaneous

44. Notification of change of details

- (1) The holder of a driver licence must, within 14 days after the change, notify the Registrar of any change in the holder's –
 - (a) name; or
 - (b) residential address; or
 - (c) address for the service of notices.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

- (2) The holder of a driver licence who notifies a change of name under this regulation must provide the Registrar with evidence of the

- (3) A new residential address notified under this regulation must be an address in Tasmania at which the Registrar may ordinarily make personal contact with the person.
- (4) If there is no postal service to a new residential address, the holder of the driver licence must provide a postal address for the service of notices on the holder.
- (5) If, on notification of a new address, the Registrar issues a sticker showing the new address for attachment to the driver licence, the holder of the licence must, as soon as practicable, attach the sticker to the licence and keep it so attached in accordance with the Registrar's instructions.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 2 penalty units.

- (6) Unless the Registrar requires written notification, the notification need not be in writing.

45. Notification of change of circumstances

- (1) The holder of a driver licence must, as soon as practicable, notify the Registrar of –

- (1) In this regulation –

full car licence means an Australian driver licence that –

- (a) authorises the holder to operate a motor vehicle other than a motorcycle; and
 - (b) is neither a learner licence nor a provisional licence.
- (2) A person is exempt from the requirement to hold a motorcycle licence when driving a motor trike, if the person –
 - (a) holds a full car licence and has held that licence for a continuous period of at least 3 years; and
 - (b) completes all training and assessments required by the Registrar in respect of the exemption; and
 - (c) has a medical certificate that certifies that the person is physically unable to drive a motor bike due to –

49. Interstate and international drivers

(1) In this regulation –

visitor's exemption means an exemption under the Act from the requirement to hold a driver licence that operates in favour of a person who holds an Australian driver licence issued under a corresponding law or a foreign driver licence.

(2) A person is not entitled to a visitor's exemption if –

- (a) the person is currently disqualified from driving by order of an Australian court, by the operation of an automatic statutory penalty or under the law of a foreign country; or
- (b) the person's licence to drive is under suspension under the law of another

Part 2 – Driver Licences

- (a) that the exemption is terminated as from the date of the service of the notice or a later date stated in the notice; and
- (b) that, as from the date of termination of the exemption, the person –
 - (i) is no longer exempt from the requirement to hold a driver licence in Tasmania; and
 - (ii) must not drive a motor vehicle on a public street in Tasmania; and
 - (iii) subject to any action specified under paragraph (d), is not entitled to the exemption under the Act while he or she continues to stay in Australia; and
- (c) the reasons for termination of the exemption; and
- (d) any action that may be taken by the person in order to regain the exemption under the Act; and
- (e) the date by which the person must take that action.

PART 3 – ANCILLARY CERTIFICATES

Division 1 – Ancillary certificates generally

50. Ancillary certificates

- (1) An ancillary certificate is only issued in relation to an Australian driver licence (in this Part referred to as the primary licence).
- (2) The regulations about –
 - (a) the issue of driver licences; and
 - (b) the conditions of driver licences; and
 - (c) the expiry of driver licences; and
 - (d) the renewal of driver licences; and
 - (e) the variation, suspension or cancellation of driver licences; and
 - (f) the recording of information, or details, in the driver licence register about driver licences and the holders of driver licences; and
 - (g) the surrender of driver licences; and
 - (h) the notification of changes of circumstances, or details, by the holder of a driver licence –

apply to, and in relation to, an ancillary certificate, subject to the provisions of this Part, as if it were a driver licence.

Part 3 – Ancillary Certificates

51. Form, term, &c., of ancillary certificate

- (1) An ancillary certificate is to be –
 - (a) in an approved form; and
 - (b) issued for a term determined by the Registrar to be appropriate to the type of certificate.
- (2) If the Registrar issues an ancillary certificate to a person, the Registrar may place a code, determined by the Registrar, on the driver licence of the person to show that the person holds an ancillary certificate.

52. Issue of identification card

- (1) If the Registrar issues an ancillary certificate –
 - (a) the Registrar must also issue an identification card, in an approved form, if the ancillary certificate authorises the holder to provide driving instruction; and
 - (b) in any other case, the Registrar may issue an identification card in an approved form.
- (2) If an identification card has been issued under subregulation (1) to the holder of an ancillary certificate, the holder must, while driving or using a motor vehicle under the authority of the ancillary certificate, keep the identification card displayed in the vehicle so that it is clearly visible to the driver and any person sitting in the same general transverse plane as the driver.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

53. Suspension or cancellation of primary licence or ancillary certificate

- (1) If a primary licence is suspended or cancelled, each related ancillary certificate is also suspended or cancelled.
- (2) Despite subregulation (1), an ancillary certificate may be suspended or cancelled independently of the primary licence.
- (3) In addition to any other grounds on which an ancillary certificate may be suspended or cancelled, an ancillary certificate may be suspended or cancelled on the ground that –
 - (a) the holder has failed to comply with the conditions of the certificate; or
 - (b) the holder is not, in some other respect, a suitable person to hold an ancillary certificate.

54. Surrender of primary licence or ancillary certificate

- (1) If a primary licence is surrendered by the holder of an ancillary certificate, each related ancillary certificate is cancelled.

Part 3 – Ancillary Certificates

- (2) An ancillary certificate may be surrendered, by the holder of the certificate, independently of the primary licence.

Division 2 – Ancillary certificates in driving instruction

55. Eligibility to hold ancillary certificate in driving instruction

- (1) A person is eligible to hold an ancillary certificate authorising the holder to provide driving instruction in the driving of a particular class of motor vehicle if the person –
- (a) has held an Australian driver licence, other than a learner licence or a provisional licence, authorising the person to drive motor vehicles –
 - (i) for an aggregate period of at least 3 years; and
 - (ii) for at least 12 months in the previous period of 3 years; and
 - (b) holds a current Australian driver licence to drive motor vehicles; and
 - (c) has attained the age of 21 years; and
 - (d) has the knowledge and experience necessary to provide instruction in the driving of motor vehicles of the relevant class; and

- (e) is in all other respects a suitable person to provide instruction in the driving of motor vehicles of the relevant class.
- (2) In calculating the period for which a person has held an Australian driver licence –
- (a) the Registrar must exclude any period for which –
 - (i) the person has been disqualified from driving by an Australian court or by the operation of an automatic statutory penalty; or
 - (ii) the licence has been suspended; and
 - (b) if the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in an external territory or foreign country, the Registrar may take into account the period, or some of the period, for which the person held such a licence as if the licence had been an Australian driver licence.
- (3) The Registrar may require an applicant for an ancillary certificate in driving instruction to do either or both of the following:
- (a) to undergo a test or assessment, or provide other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, of the applicant's competence and suitability to provide instruction in driving motor vehicles of the class for which the certificate is sought;

- (b) to successfully complete all or part of a training course specified by the Registrar.
- (4) If the Registrar requires an applicant for an ancillary certificate in driving instruction to successfully complete part of a training course, the conditions of the certificate, if issued, may provide that the holder must successfully complete the remainder of the course within a specified time.
- (5) The conditions of an ancillary certificate in driving instruction may provide that the holder must periodically satisfy the Registrar, through the successful completion of specified training courses or other means, of the holder's continuing competence and suitability to provide instruction in driving motor vehicles of the class for which the certificate has been issued.

56. Requirements for motor vehicles used in driving instruction

- (1) In this regulation –

dual controls, in relation to a motor vehicle, means duplicate pedals for –

- (a) the footbrake; and

- (b) if the vehicle has a manual transmission, the clutch – fitted so that an instructor seated in the same general transverse plane as the driver may operate the footbrake readily and effectively and disengage the transmission of the vehicle.

- (2) For the purposes of section 14(4) of the Act, a vehicle complies with the requirements of these regulations for motor vehicles used to provide driving instruction if the vehicle is fitted with dual controls in such a way that the controls are not likely to be operated accidentally by a person seated in the same general transverse plane as the driver of the vehicle.
- (3) Subregulation (2) does not apply if –
 - (a) the vehicle is provided by the person under instruction; or
 - (b) the GVM of the vehicle exceeds 4.5 tonnes; or
 - (c) the vehicle has seating for more than 12 adults including the driver.

 - (2) In calculating the period for which a person has held an Australian driver licence –
 - (a) the Registrar must exclude any period for which –
 - (i) the person has been disqualified from driving by an Australian court or by the operation of an automatic statutory penalty; or
 - (ii) the licence has been suspended; and
 - (b) if the person has held a licence to drive a motor vehicle in an external territory or foreign country, the Registrar may take into account the period, or some of the period, for which the person held such a licence as if the licence had been an Australian driver licence.
 - (3) The Registrar may require the applicant to comply with either or both of the following requirements:
 - (a) to undergo a test or assessment, or provide other evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction, showing that the applicant is a suitable person to drive public passenger vehicles of the class or classes for which the certificate is sought;

together with any related ancillary certificate, to the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (5) A person is not in breach of a requirement to return a driver licence or an ancillary certificate under this regulation –
 - (a) if within the period for compliance with the requirement the person produces evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the licence or ancillary certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed; or
 - (b) if the Registrar waives compliance with the requirement.
- (6) The Registrar is to only return a driver licence or an ancillary certificate returned to the Registrar under this regulation if –
 - (a) the licence or ancillary certificate was suspended; and
 - (b) the period of suspension has come to an end.

59. Return of driver licence or ancillary certificate on variation

- (1) The holder of a driver licence or an ancillary certificate must, in accordance with subregulation (2), return the licence or ancillary certificate to the Registrar for endorsement or replacement if –

 - (b) any information included in the licence or ancillary certificate needs, in the Registrar's opinion, to be corrected or changed.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) The driver licence or ancillary certificate must be returned within 21 days after the service of –
 - (a) a notice of variation of the licence or ancillary certificate; or
 - (b) the Registrar's written request for return of the licence or ancillary certificate for endorsement or replacement.
- (3) A person is not in breach of a requirement to return a driver licence or an ancillary certificate under this regulation –
 - (a) if within the period for compliance with the requirement the person produces evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the licence or ancillary certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed; or
 - (b) if the Registrar waives compliance with the requirement.

- (d) that the motor vehicle that is being installed with an interlock is a motor vehicle nominated under regulation 61(1)(a) by the person referred to in paragraph (b).

65. Approval to install interlock for multiple users

- (1) This regulation applies to a person who is applying for, or is the holder of, an interlock licence, if –
 - (a) the person shares a primary residence with another person who is applying for, or holds, an interlock licence; and
 - (b) each person intends to nominate and drive the same motor vehicle while both hold an interlock licence.
- (2) A person to whom this regulation applies may apply to the Registrar for approval to install an interlock that identifies and differentiates between multiple users, if such a device or system has been approved by the Registrar as an interlock.
- (3) An application under subregulation (2) –

66. Service of interlock

- (1) For the purposes of regulation 61(2)(a)(ii), an interlock is correctly serviced if each holder of the interlock licence who nominated the motor vehicle that has been installed with the interlock –
 - (a) takes the motor vehicle, in which the interlock is installed, to a service centre of the approved provider who installed the interlock; and
 - (b) is present at the service centre while the interlock is serviced; and
 - (c) performs any necessary action for the service to be completed, including providing a breath sample to validate that the interlock is working correctly; and
 - (d) complies with these regulations and any additional requirements of the MAIP in respect of the service, including intervals between services, and the payment of any fee payable at the service; and
 - (e) at the end of the service, signs a copy of the performance report provided, in respect of the service, to the holder of the interlock licence.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, if an interlock that identifies multiple users is installed in accordance with an approval under regulation 65, each holder of an interlock licence that nominated the motor vehicle –

- (a) must arrange and attend a service of the interlock in accordance with this Part and the MAIP; and
 - (b) may arrange for the service to be held at the same time as, or at a different time from, another holder of an interlock licence that nominated the vehicle.
- (3) Subregulation (1)(b) does not apply to the holder of an interlock licence if another person –
 - (a) presents the vehicle, in which the interlock is installed, for service; and
 - (b) at that time, provides a valid medical certificate in respect of the holder of the interlock licence that specifies that the holder of the interlock licence is unfit to drive or to attend the service.
- (4) Despite subregulation (3), the holder of an interlock licence must not fail to attend 2 or more consecutive services, whether or not the holder of the interlock licence has a valid medical certificate for each service.
- (5) If the holder of an interlock licence is not present for the service of an interlock in her or her nominated vehicle in accordance with subregulation (3), the holder of the interlock licence complies with the requirement under subregulation (1)(e) to sign the performance

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), monitoring data that has been downloaded from an interlock is taken to be the monitoring data that relates to the operation of the interlock by the holder of an interlock licence whose unique identifier was provided at the time the interlock was installed.
- (2) If an interlock is installed in accordance with an approval under regulation 65 and monitoring data has been downloaded and identified as being the monitoring data in respect of a specific holder of an interlock licence, that monitoring data so identified is taken to be the monitoring data that relates to the operation of the interlock by that licence holder.

68. Eligibility for revocation of I condition

- (1) In this regulation –

full exemption means an exemption under regulation 73(3)(a) or (b).
- (2) Despite regulation 33(9) and subject to regulation 69, the Registrar is only to revoke an I condition from an interlock licence if the Registrar is satisfied that –
 - (a) the holder of the interlock licence has, while holding the interlock licence, complied with this Part and the MAIP, as applicable; and

- (b) if the holder of the interlock licence does not hold a full exemption –
 - (i) monitoring data for a minimum period of 450 days has been provided to the Registrar in respect of the holder of the interlock licence; and
 - (ii) in the last 180 consecutive days of the period specified in subparagraph (i), there have not been any lockouts recorded in the monitoring data provided in respect of those 180 days; and
 - (c) if the holder of the interlock licence holds a full exemption, he or she has, while holding the interlock licence, completed 730 days without committing an offence under the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970 relating to alcohol.
- (3) The Registrar may be satisfied that the holder of an interlock licence has complied with subregulation (2)(b)(ii) if the Registrar is satisfied that there have been no lockouts recorded in the last 180 consecutive days of monitoring data that the Registrar has received in respect of the holder of the interlock licence.

69. Restarting of time periods

- (1) The holder of an interlock licence must restart the period specified in regulation 68(2)(b)(i) or regulation 68(2)(c) if –
 - (a) the interlock licence is suspended or cancelled as a consequence of –
 - (i) an offence under the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970 relating to alcohol; or
 - (ii) an offence in another jurisdiction that substantially corresponds to an offence referred to in subparagraph (i); or
 - (iii) failing to comply with the I condition on the licence; or
 - (b) if an interlock is installed in the nominated vehicle of the holder of the interlock licence, the Registrar is satisfied that the interlock installed in the nominated vehicle has been tampered with; or
 - (c) the Registrar is satisfied that the holder of the interlock licence has committed an offence, or performed an action, that is serious enough for the holder of the interlock licence to restart the relevant period.

 - (k) the Registrar is satisfied that the holder of the interlock licence has committed an offence, or performed an action, that is serious enough to require the holder of the interlock licence to restart the period specified in regulation 68(2)(b)(ii).
- (3) If the holder of an interlock licence is required under this regulation to restart a period of monitoring data, the period is taken to restart –
 - (a) if the holder of the interlock licence does not hold an exemption under regulation 73, from the first service after the Registrar is notified of the conviction for the offence, or the commission of the act, that results in the restart of the period; and serious enough that a period of monitoring data should not count towards the relevant period.
 - (b) if the holder of the interlock licence holds an exemption under regulation 73, from the date specified by the Registrar in writing to the holder of the interlock licence.

- (2) The Registrar may determine that a period of monitoring data does not count towards the period specified in regulation 68(2)(c) in respect of the holder of an interlock licence if –
 - (a) the interlock licence is suspended or cancelled for a reason other than a reason specified in regulation 69(1)(a); or
 - (b) the interlock licence expires and is not renewed within 14 days after the date of expiry.

71. Revocation of I condition

- (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that a holder of an interlock licence has successfully completed the period specified in regulation 68(2)(b)(i) or regulation 68(2)(c), the Registrar is to notify the holder of the interlock licence that he or she is eligible to apply under regulation 33(9) for the I condition to be revoked.
- (2) Nothing in subregulation (1) prevents the Registrar from taking into account –
 - (a) a lockout recorded in monitoring data received in respect of a holder of an interlock licence after the Registrar has notified the licence holder under

- subregulation (1) but before the I condition is revoked; or
- (b) an offence under the Road Safety (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1970 relating to alcohol that was committed by, or a conviction was recorded in respect of, a licence holder after the Registrar has notified the licence holder under subregulation (1) but before the I condition is revoked.
- (3) An application for the revocation of an I condition from an interlock licence is to be –
- (a) in a form approved by the Registrar; and
- (b) accompanied by each relevant applicable scheduled fee for the application.
- (4) If the Registrar is not satisfied of the matters referred to in regulation 68, the Registrar is to refuse the application and refund each applicable schedule fee paid with the application.
- (5) If an application is refused under subregulation (4) due to the Registrar not being satisfied of all the matters referred to in regulation 68, the Registrar is to notify the applicant under subregulation (1) when the applicant is next eligible under regulation 68 to have the condition revoked.
- (6) Nothing in this regulation, or in regulation 68, prevents the Registrar from –

- (a) requiring further evidence of the matters specified in regulation 68, or any other matter that the Registrar considers relevant in the circumstances, before deciding whether or not to remove the I condition from an interlock licence; or
 - (b) refusing to remove an I condition from an interlock licence, even if the Registrar is satisfied of the matters specified in regulation 68, if the Registrar believes it appropriate in the circumstances that the person should continue to hold an interlock licence.
- (7) A decision of the Registrar to refuse an application under this regulation is not an administrative decision for the purposes of the Vehicle and Traffic (Review of Decisions) Regulations 2021.

72. Removal of interlock

- (1) The Registrar may require the holder of an interlock licence to arrange for the removal of an interlock installed in the nominated vehicle of the holder of the interlock licence –
 - (a) if the person who installed the interlock was not an approved provider; or
 - (b) if the approved provider who installed the interlock is no longer an approved provider; or

- (3) Notification under subregulation (2) –
 - (a) is to be in an approved form; and
 - (b) must be made before the interlock is removed.
- (4) The removal of an interlock in accordance with this regulation does not –
 - (a) remove any obligation that the holder of an interlock licence may have in respect of an I condition, or any other condition, on his or her licence; or
 - (b) remove the requirement for the holder of an interlock licence to comply with this Part or the MAIP, as required.

73. Exemptions from this Part

- (1) The holder of an interlock licence may apply for an exemption from the application of regulation 61(2)(a).
- (2) An application under subregulation (1) is –
 - (a) to be in an approved form; and
 - (b) to be accompanied by each relevant applicable scheduled fee for the application; and
 - (c) if the exemption is sought under subregulation (3)(a), to include –
 - (i) written evidence, to the satisfaction of the Registrar, from a registered medical practitioner that the person seeking the exemption is unable to operate an interlock due to a physical or medical condition suffered by the person; and
 - (ii) written evidence from an approved provider that it is not possible to modify an interlock to enable the person seeking the exemption to be able to operate the interlock successfully.
- (3) After receiving an application under subregulation (1), the Registrar may issue an

 - (ii) it is not reasonable or practicable for an interlock, or another device that measures alcohol consumption, to be modified to enable the applicant to be able to operate the interlock or device successfully; or
- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that –
 - (i) the applicant's principal place of residence is on an island that does not have –
 - (A) a road connection to the main island of Tasmania; and
 - (B) a ferry service that makes regular trips on a weekly, or more frequent, basis; and
 - (ii) it is not reasonable or practicable for an interlock, or another device that measures alcohol

 - (B) the type, class or quality of the other vehicle to be driven by the applicant under the exemption; or
- (e) the Registrar is satisfied that –
 - (i) a refusal to grant an exemption to an applicant would cause severe hardship to the applicant or another person; and
 - (ii) it is appropriate in the circumstances to grant the exemption; or

 - (ii) met the conditions for revoking the I condition; and
 - (iii) had the interlock removed by an authorised provider.
 - (4) An exemption issued under subregulation (3) –
 - (a) is to be in an approved form; and
 - (b) may be subject to any conditions that the Registrar thinks fit.
 - (5) An exemption issued under subregulation (3)(a), (b), (e) or (f) exempts the holder of the exemption from the requirements of regulation 61 and the MAIP, other than regulation 61(2)(b), while the holder of the exemption is operating a motor vehicle in accordance with the exemption.
 - (6) An exemption issued under subregulation (3)(c) exempts the holder of the exemption from the requirements of regulation 61 and the MAIP, other than regulation 61(2)(b), only while the holder of the exemption is operating a vehicle, in accordance with the exemption, on the island to which the exemption relates.
 - (7) An exemption issued under subregulation (3)(d) exempts the holder of the exemption from the requirements of regulation 61 and the MAIP, other than regulation 61(2)(b), only while the holder of the exemption is operating a vehicle, or class or type of vehicle, in accordance with the exemption.

- (8) The Registrar may cancel an exemption at any time if the Registrar reasonably believes that the holder of the interlock licence is no longer eligible for the exemption due to a change in the holder of the interlock licence's circumstances since the exemption was granted.
- (9) The holder of an exemption must comply with each condition of the exemption.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (10) An exemption issued under subregulation (3) ceases to have effect on whichever of the following occurs first:
 - (a) the removal of the I condition from the driver licence to which the exemption relates;
 - (b) the cancellation, or surrender, of the interlock licence to which the exemption relates;
 - (c) the cancellation of the exemption by the Registrar;
 - (d) 750 days after the day on which it was issued;

74. Interstate licences and interlocks

- (1) In this regulation –

interstate interlock means a system or device that is installed in accordance with a corresponding law and, once installed, only allows the engine of the motor vehicle in which it is installed to be started after the device or system –

- (a) analyses a breath sample provided by the intended driver of the motor vehicle; and
- (b) detects that the breath sample analysed contains a level of alcohol concentration below the limit set internally within the device or system; interstate interlock licence means a licence issued under a corresponding law that only authorises the holder of the licence to operate, under that corresponding law, a motor vehicle installed with an interstate interlock; relevant interstate monitoring data means data that has been recorded by an interstate interlock in accordance with a corresponding law.

Part 5 – Mandatory Alcohol Interlock Program

- (2) If the holder of an interstate interlock licence is issued an interlock licence under this Act and has an interstate interlock installed in his or her nominated vehicle, the Registrar may determine that –
 - (a) the installation of the interstate interlock substantially complies with the installation requirements under regulation 64; and
 - (b) as a result of that substantial compliance, the installation of the interstate interlock is taken to be in accordance with regulation 64.
- (3) Subregulation (2) does not apply to a device or system that is installed in a motor vehicle under a corresponding law if that device or system is not an interlock for the purposes of these regulations.
- (4) If –
 - (a) the holder of an interstate interlock licence is issued an interlock licence under this Act; and
 - (b) that holder of an interstate interlock licence provides the Registrar with relevant interstate monitoring data in respect of the holder of the interstate interlock licence's use of an interstate interlock taken under subregulation (2) to be installed in accordance with regulation 64; and an amount of that relevant interstate monitoring data, that does not exceed 6 months of relevant interstate monitoring data, is taken to be monitoring data in respect of the period specified in regulation 68(2)(b)(i) or regulation 68(2)(c) for the holder of the interstate interlock licence that provided the data.

75. Offences

- (1) A person must not interfere, or cause or permit another person to interfere, with an interlock installed in a motor vehicle.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a first offence, a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units; or
- (b) a subsequent offence, a fine not exceeding 40 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months, or both.
- (2) A person must not drive a motor vehicle in which an interlock is installed unless he or she is the person who provided a breath sample, or other means of testing alcohol concentration, to the interlock to enable the motor vehicle to be driven.

- (2) A vehicle that would be eligible for registration under subregulation (1) but for non-compliance with a relevant vehicle standard may be eligible for registration that is subject to conditions, if the Registrar is satisfied that the non-compliance can be adequately dealt with by registering the vehicle on appropriate conditions.

78. Discretionary registration

Notwithstanding regulation 77, the Registrar may determine that a vehicle that does not meet the relevant vehicle standards or dimensions is eligible for registration.

79. Compliance with relevant vehicle standards

- (1) The Registrar may accept as evidence that a vehicle complies with the relevant vehicle standards –
- (a) that the vehicle is entered on the RAV via an entry pathway under section 15(2) of the RVSA; or
 - (ab) an identification plate relating to the vehicle; or
 - (b) a certificate, issued by the manufacturer of the vehicle or a person that the Registrar is satisfied is qualified to issue such a certificate, that the vehicle

- (3) If a reference number issued in respect of a vehicle is altered or defaced without the Registrar's written approval, the registered operator of the vehicle must, within 14 days after the alteration or defacement, give the Registrar written notice of the alteration or defacement.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Division 2 – Application for registration

81. Application for registration

- (1) An application for registration of a vehicle must –
 - (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form by or on behalf of the proposed registered operator; and
 - (b) state the proposed registered operator's name and residential address; and
 - (c) if there is no postal service to the proposed registered operator's residential

- address, state a postal address for the service of notices on the proposed registered operator; and
- (d) state the proposed garage address for the vehicle; and
 - (e) state the period for which registration is sought; and
 - (f) if the registration payment payable under paragraph (h) is affected by the configuration in which the vehicle is operated, nominate the configuration in which the vehicle is to be operated; and
 - (g) contain the other information required in the approved form and be accompanied by any documents or other materials required in the form; and
 - (h) be accompanied by the appropriate registration payment.
- (2) The Registrar may require the applicant –
- (a) to provide further information to assist in the determination of the application; or
 - (b) to provide to the Registrar's satisfaction –
 - (i) evidence that the vehicle is eligible for registration; and

- (ii) evidence verifying information provided in, or in relation to, the application.
- (3) An applicant must, if the Registrar so requires, produce the vehicle for inspection at a time and place nominated by the Registrar.

82. Registration of vehicles

- (1) In this regulation –

interstate written-off vehicles register means a register kept under a law of another State or a Territory that corresponds to the written-off vehicles register.

- (2) The Registrar must register a vehicle if satisfied, on an application for registration, that the vehicle is eligible for registration and the proposed registered operator is eligible to become the registered operator of the vehicle.
- (3) Despite subregulation (2), the Registrar may refuse to register a vehicle if the Registrar reasonably believes that –
 - (a) the vehicle has been registered in another State or a Territory, the registration in that State or Territory has been cancelled or suspended and the reasons for the cancellation or suspension still exist; or
 - (b) the vehicle or a part of the vehicle may have been stolen; or

Part 6 – Registration of Motor Vehicles and Trailers

- (c) subject to subregulation (4), the identification number or vehicle identifier of the vehicle is the same as the identification number or vehicle identifier of a vehicle that –
 - (i) has been entered in the written-off vehicles register; or
 - (ii) has been entered in an interstate written-off vehicles register as a statutory write-off; or
 - (d) information given in, or in relation to, the application for registration is false or misleading; or
 - (e) a default has occurred in payment of a fine or other pecuniary penalty (or an instalment of a fine or other pecuniary penalty) arising out of the use of the vehicle in Australia; or
 - (f) the applicant has outstanding monetary liabilities to the Registrar or the Crown relating to the vehicle; or
 - (g) the applicant has failed to comply with a requirement imposed by or under the Act or these regulations in relation to registration of the vehicle.
- (4) Subregulation (3)(c)(i) is not a ground for refusal to register a vehicle –

 - (B) the vehicle to be registered is the recovered stolen vehicle; and
 - (C) the vehicle is not otherwise a statutory write-off or a repairable write-off; or
- (b) if –
- (i) the identification number or vehicle identifier of the vehicle was entered in the written-off vehicles register because the vehicle to which the identification number or vehicle identifier belonged was a repairable write-off; and
 - (ii) the Registrar is satisfied that the vehicle to be registered –

 - (B) has been repaired so that it is roadworthy and complies with the relevant vehicle standards.
- (5) The Registrar must refuse to register a vehicle if the Registrar is satisfied that there is an offensive advertising notice in force in relation to the vehicle.
- (6) The registration, or renewal of the registration, of a vehicle takes effect on a date recorded in the register of motor vehicles and trailers being a date that –
- (a) may be earlier than the date on which the application for registration or renewal of registration is decided; but
 - (b) is not earlier than the date on which the registration payment is received by the Registrar.

83. Registration period

- (1) The registration of a vehicle is to remain in force, subject to suspension, surrender or cancellation under these regulations, for a period fixed by the Registrar when granting or renewing the registration.

- (2) As a general rule, the registration period for a motor vehicle is to be 3 months, 6 months or 12 months.
 - (3) The Registrar may make an exception from the general rule –
 - (a) to allow for seasonal registration (for 3 months or 6 months) of a vehicle of a class for which the Registrar has determined that seasonal registration is appropriate; or
 - (b) to allow for a common expiry date for all vehicles comprising a fleet of 2 or more vehicles registered in the name of the same registered operator; or
 - (c) if there is some other special reason for departing from the general rule.
 - (4) Nothing in this regulation requires the Registrar to make an exception to the general rule unless the Registrar considers the exception appropriate and, conversely, nothing in this regulation prevents the Registrar from making an exception to the general rule if the Registrar considers the exception appropriate.

84. Conditional registration

- (1) The Registrar may register a vehicle on conditions regulating the operation or use of the vehicle, and on other conditions that the Registrar considers appropriate.

- (2) Conditions may be imposed –
 - (a) because the vehicle does not comply with the relevant vehicle standards; or
 - (b) for any other reason that justifies, in the Registrar's opinion, the imposition of conditions.
- (3) In determining if conditions are to be imposed on the registration of a vehicle that does not comply with the relevant vehicle standards, the Registrar must take into account the nature and extent of any failure to meet those standards.
- (4) The Registrar may, by written notice given to the registered operator, vary or revoke a condition of registration.
- (5) The Registrar may, by written notice to the registered operator of a vehicle that is conditionally registered, require the registered operator to comply with one or more of the following requirements:
 - (a) to install and keep installed on the vehicle a plate (an operations plate) indicating –
 - (i) the deficiencies in the vehicle's operating characteristics; and
 - (ii) the conditions imposed by the Registrar on the vehicle's registration, if any;

 - (6) The registered operator must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a requirement imposed by the Registrar under subregulation (5).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 15 penalty units.

85. Conditional registration guidelines

- (1) The Registrar may approve guidelines in respect of one or more of the following:
 - (a) conditional registration;
 - (b) vehicles, or classes of vehicles, that may be conditionally registered.
- (2) The Registrar is to ensure that guidelines approved under subregulation (1) are published on the website maintained by, or on behalf of, the Department while those guidelines are in force.

 - (k) the expiry date of the registration period or, in the case of seasonal registration, the commencement date and the expiry date of the registration period; and
 - (l) in the case of a motor vehicle that is a heavy vehicle, the nominated configuration in which the vehicle is to be operated; and
 - (m) in the case of a heavy vehicle, the heavy vehicle charging category.
- (2) The Registrar may record other information in the register of motor vehicles and trailers –
- (a) for the purposes of the Act or any other Act; or
 - (b) for any other purposes the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (3) The Registrar must record in the register of motor vehicles and trailers –

- (4) The Registrar must ensure that the register of motor vehicles and trailers contains details of all vehicles that are currently registered or have been registered within the previous 2 years.

87. Issue of certificate of registration

The Registrar must issue to the registered operator of a vehicle, for each registration period, a certificate of registration for the vehicle containing the following information:

- (a) the registered operator's name;
- (b) the registered operator's residential address;
- (c) if there is no postal service to the registered operator's residential address – a postal address for the service of notices on the registered operator;

Part 6 – Registration of Motor Vehicles and Trailers

- (2) The Registrar may, on renewing the registration of a vehicle, or at any other time, by written notice to the registered operator, withdraw the distinguishing number assigned to the vehicle and assign a new distinguishing registration number.
- (3) The Registrar may enter into an agreement with a person who operates, or proposes to operate, a particular vehicle or vehicles that provides that –
 - (a) for a specified consideration, the Registrar is to assign a registration number or numbers, in a specified form, to the vehicle or vehicles; and
 - (b) on payment of such specified consideration, the person is not required to pay, as specified in the agreement, the applicable specified fees for the issuing of a number plate.
- (4) For each registered vehicle, the Registrar must issue one or more number plates (as may be appropriate to the vehicle) bearing the registration number assigned to the vehicle.
- (5) The Registrar may, on receipt of an application by the registered operator of a motor vehicle (other than a motor cycle) or a trailer, accompanied by the applicable scheduled fee, issue an accessory number plate bearing the registration number assigned to the relevant vehicle.

- (a) the number plate is issued in respect of a heavy vehicle; and
 - (b) that heavy vehicle is registered in another jurisdiction.
- (7) A number plate issued in another jurisdiction is the property of the Registrar –
- (a) if the number plate was issued in respect of a heavy vehicle; and
 - (b) while that heavy vehicle is registered in Tasmania.

89. Obligation to display number plate

- (1) The registered operator of a registered vehicle must ensure that, within 7 days after the Registrar issues a number plate or number plates for the vehicle, the number plate or plates are permanently affixed to the vehicle so that (assuming the vehicle to be on level ground) the following requirements are complied with as far as practicable given the design and construction of the vehicle:
- (a) the number plate (or each of the number plates) must be at all times –

- (b) the other requirements of this regulation with regard to number plates are complied with – but an accessory number plate need not be affixed and displayed unless the bicycle rack, or other equipment or object, to which the number plate is to be affixed is attached to the vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (5) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence under subregulation (4), if the defendant proves that –
 - (a) the non-compliance with this regulation was a result of an accident; and
 - (b) it was not reasonable, in the circumstances, to have remedied the non-compliance by the time of the alleged offence.
- (6) A person may be charged with, found guilty and convicted of an offence under subregulation (4) whether or not the relevant vehicle was registered at the time of the offence.
- (7) If the Registrar issues an accessory number plate, a person must not display the number plate on a vehicle unless it is affixed to a bicycle rack or some other removable equipment or object in

90. Registrar may require return of number plates

- (1) This regulation applies if the Registrar –
 - (a) is of the opinion that the registration number on a number plate –
 - (i) may be mistaken for another registration number; or
 - (ii) is offensive; or
 - (iii) is otherwise inappropriate for display; or
 - (iv) is prohibited under any Act; or
 - (b) changes the specifications to which a number plate for a vehicle is manufactured; or
 - (c) believes that a number plate –
 - (i) has been issued in error; or
 - (ii) has not been lawfully acquired, including being acquired by fraud, misrepresentation or other dishonest means.
- (2) The Registrar, by written notice to the holder of a number plate, may require the holder of the

 - (b) the Registrar’s reason for requiring the number plate to be returned; and
 - (c) the day on which the number plate ceases to be a valid number plate; and
 - (d) the period during which the number plate must be returned; and
 - (e) whether the Registrar intends –
 - (i) to exchange the number plate for another number plate; or
 - (ii) to refund any fee paid for the issue of the number plate to the holder of the number plate rather than replacing the number plate in any way; or
 - (iii) to negotiate an agreement with the holder of the number plate as to whether the number plate is to be exchanged, or the fee refunded, or such other compensation as may be agreed by the parties.

Division 3 – Issue of specific registration numbers

91. Specific registration numbers

- (1) A person may apply to the Registrar to be assigned the rights to a specific registration number.
- (2) An application for assigning the rights to a specific registration number must –
- (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the documents or other materials required in the form; and

 - (c) issue to the holder of the personalised number plate a certificate stating –
 - (i) each condition on which the plate is issued, if any; and
 - (ii) any other information that the Registrar considers appropriate.
- (5) If a personalised number plate is required to be returned under regulation 90(2), the rights to the specific registration number on the number plate are terminated –
- (a) on the date specified in the notice under regulation 90(2); or
 - (b) if no date is specified in the notice under regulation 90(2), on the return of the number plate.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, a personalised number plate is a number plate and remains the property of the Registrar in accordance with regulation 88(6).

The Registrar may refuse to assign the rights to a specific registration number if –

- (a) in the opinion of the Registrar, the registration number is identical, or appears to be identical, to a number that has already been issued as a number plate or a personalised number plate; or
- (b) the Registrar determines to withhold that specific registration number from sale; or
- (c) the specific registration number –
 - (i) in the opinion of the Registrar, may be mistaken for another registration number; or
 - (ii) in the opinion of the Registrar, is offensive or is otherwise inappropriate for display; or
 - (iii) is prohibited under any Act.

93. Use of personalised number plates

- (1) A personalised number plate may be –
 - (a) attached to a vehicle; or
 - (b) otherwise displayed.
- (2) A person must not use, or permit the use of, a personalised number plate except in accordance

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (3) If a person has not nominated a vehicle in respect of a personalised number plate, the person must not attach the personalised number plate to a vehicle unless –
- (a) he or she has applied to the Registrar, in an approved form, to nominate a vehicle and paid the applicable fee set by the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar has approved the application.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (4) For subregulation (3), a person has nominated a vehicle in respect of a personalised number plate if the person has nominated a vehicle in the application under regulation 91(1) for the rights to the specific registration number on the personalised number plate.

94. Transfer of personalised number plates

- (1) A personalised number plate, including the right to the specific registration number on the plate, is transferable.

Division 4 – Renewal of registration

98. Notice of renewal

- (1) The Registrar may send a notice of renewal to the registered operator of a vehicle.
- (2) A notice of renewal is to –
 - (a) be addressed to the registered operator of the vehicle; and
 - (b) remind the registered operator of the registration expiry date; and
 - (c) warn the registered operator that, if the registration is not renewed on or before the registration expiry date, the registration will expire.
- (3) The Registrar's failure to send a notice of renewal, or the non-receipt of the notice, does not postpone the expiry of the registration or affect the obligation of the registered operator to ensure that the registration is renewed if the registered operator wishes to continue to use the vehicle on public streets.

Part 6 – Registration of Motor Vehicles and Trailers

100. Renewal of registration

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), the Registrar must renew, for a further period, the registration of a vehicle that is eligible for registration if –
 - (a) an application for the renewal of the registration has been made to the Registrar; and
 - (b) the application is accompanied by the appropriate registration payment and any other relevant fee; and
 - (c) the applicant has complied with any requirements made by the Registrar in respect of the application.
- (2) The Registrar may refuse an application for the renewal of the registration –
 - (a) on any ground on which the application, assuming it were an application for registration, could be refused under regulation 82; or
 - (b) on the ground that the registered operator has failed to comply with an obligation to produce the vehicle for inspection, or to pay a fee related to inspection of the vehicle.
- (3) If the registration of a vehicle (other than seasonal registration) is renewed on an application for the renewal made after the expiry of the previous registration period, the period for

Division 6 – Surrender of registration

103. Surrender of registration

- (1) On application by the registered operator of a registered vehicle, the Registrar must accept the surrender of the registration of the vehicle unless –
 - (a) the applicant fails to comply with a requirement under subregulation (2); or
 - (b) the Registrar has suspended or cancelled the registration or commenced action for suspension or cancellation of the registration.
- (2) If the Register accepts an application for the surrender of the registration of a registered vehicle, the applicant for the surrender of registration must –
 - (a) return to the Registrar the number plates issued for the vehicle, including any accessory number plate issued in respect of the vehicle, or produce evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the number plates have been lost, stolen or destroyed; and
 - (b) if the Registrar so requires, return the certificate of registration for the vehicle or produce evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the certificate of registration has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

- (3) The Registrar may waive compliance with a requirement of subregulation (2)(a).
- (4) On acceptance of the surrender, the registration is cancelled.

Division 7 – Suspension or cancellation of registration

104. Suspension or cancellation of registration

- (1) Subject to this Division, the Registrar may suspend or cancel the registration of a registered vehicle if –
 - (a) the vehicle was registered in error; or
 - (b) the vehicle is no longer eligible for registration; or
 - (c) the responsibility for the vehicle or the description of the vehicle as recorded in the register of motor vehicles and trailers is uncertain; or
 - (d) a vehicle defect notice has been issued in respect of the vehicle, the time for compliance with the notice has passed, and the notice has not been complied with; or
 - (e) the vehicle is used contrary to –

- (3) If a cheque or order for a registration payment is not honoured on first presentation, the registration is liable to suspension or cancellation under subregulation (1) on the ground that the registered operator has outstanding monetary liabilities to the Registrar relating to the vehicle.
- (4) Despite the suspension of registration, the registration period continues to run.

105. Notice of suspension

- (1) If the Registrar decides to suspend the registration of a vehicle, the Registrar must give the registered operator written notice –
 - (a) stating –
 - (i) the reasons for the suspension; and
 - (ii) the date on which the suspension is to take effect; and
 - (b) if the proposed suspension is based on a non-compliance that is capable of remedy –

 - (ii) specifying each action that must be taken, to the Registrar's satisfaction, for the suspension to be avoided.
- (2) If a notice under subregulation (1) specifies an action that may be taken to avoid a suspension of registration and the registered operator takes the specified action before the date on which the suspension is to take effect, the Registrar must withdraw the notice of suspension.
- (3) In any other case, the suspension takes effect in accordance with the notice.
- (4) If the registration of a vehicle is suspended under this Division, the suspension terminates if –
 - (a) the period of suspension stated in the notice comes to an end; or
 - (b) the Registrar terminates the suspension.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, if the registration of a vehicle is suspended under this Division, the period of suspension does not terminate if the registration of the vehicle is cancelled, or expires, while so suspended.

 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that, in the circumstances of the case, it would be inappropriate to first suspend the registration.
- (2) If the Registrar decides to cancel the registration of a vehicle, or is required under regulation 104(2) to cancel the registration of a vehicle, the Registrar must give the registered operator written notice –
 - (a) stating –
 - (i) the reasons for the cancellation; and
 - (ii) the date on which the cancellation is to take effect; and
 - (b) if the proposed cancellation is based on a non-compliance that is capable of remedy –

the Act, each of the following persons is a prescribed person:

- (a) an insurer;
- (b) a loss assessor;
- (c) a dealer;
- (d) an auto-parts dismantler;
- (e) an auction house.

109. Notifying Registrar of written-off vehicle

- (1) If an insurer, loss assessor, dealer, auto-parts dismantler or auction house assesses, in the course of business, an affected vehicle as a total loss, that person must notify the Registrar of that assessment –

- (a) within 7 days after making the assessment; or
- (b) if the vehicle or any part of the vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of before the end of that 7-day period, before selling or otherwise disposing of the vehicle or that part.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a first offence, a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units; and

 - (h) the name and address of the insurer, loss assessor, dealer, auto-parts dismantler or auction house making the notification;
 - (i) whether the vehicle is a statutory write-off or a repairable write-off;
 - (j) the date on which the written-off vehicle label was affixed to the vehicle;
 - (k) such other information as the Registrar requires.
- (4) An insurer, loss assessor, dealer, auto-parts dismantler or auction house is not required to provide a notification under subregulation (1) in respect of the assessment of an affected vehicle as a total loss if such a notification has already been provided by another of those persons.

110. Written-off vehicle labels

- (1) The Registrar may issue a written-off vehicle label that is to be affixed to a written-off vehicle.
- (2) A written-off vehicle label is to –
 - (a) be in an approved form; and
 - (b) state whether the vehicle is a repairable write-off or a statutory write-off.

- (a) on the label; or
- (b) on a separate document that is to be issued with the label.

111. Duties and offences relating to written-off vehicle label

(1) If an insurer, loss assessor, dealer, auto-parts dismantler or auction house assesses a vehicle as a total loss, that person must affix an appropriate written-off vehicle label to that vehicle –

- (a) in the manner determined by the Registrar under regulation 110(3); and
- (b) before notifying the Registrar of that assessment as required by regulation 109; and
- (c) before that vehicle or any part of that vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a first offence, a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units; and

- (2) The registration of a vehicle is suspended on the making of an entry in the written-off vehicles register to the effect that the vehicle is a repairable write-off and that vehicle is not eligible for registration until that entry is removed from that register or it is noted in that register that the vehicle is no longer a repairable write-off.

113. Clearance of written-off vehicle label

- (1) The following persons are authorised to clear a written-off vehicle label in respect of a repairable write-off:
 - (a) an authorised officer;
 - (b) a person authorised by the Registrar to do so.
- (2) A registered operator or other person in charge of a repairable write-off who applies to a person authorised to clear the written-off vehicle label must provide that person with such evidence of his or her name and address as the authorised person requires.
- (3) A person authorised to clear a written-off vehicle label –
 - (a) may require the registered operator or other person in charge of the vehicle to

- (b) may require the vehicle to be inspected for the purpose of ascertaining whether the vehicle should no longer be considered to be a repairable write-off.
- (4) The registered operator or other person in charge of the vehicle must pay the applicable scheduled fee for the inspection.
- (5) If a person authorised to clear a written-off vehicle label is satisfied –
 - (a) with the evidence of the name and address of the registered operator or other person in charge of the vehicle; and
 - (b) that the vehicle should no longer be considered a repairable write-off – that authorised person may clear the written-off vehicle label.

- (6) A person authorised to clear a written-off vehicle label clears that label by –
 - (a) issuing a certificate of clearance to the registered operator or other person in charge of the vehicle; and
 - (b) removing the written-off vehicle label from the vehicle.

- (7) The decision of a person authorised to clear a written-off vehicle label to clear that label or refuse to clear that label is taken to be a decision of the Registrar for the purposes of the Vehicle and Traffic (Review of Decisions) Regulations 2021.

114. Removal of mistakenly affixed written-off vehicle label

- (1) If a written-off vehicle label has been affixed to a vehicle in error, an authorised officer or a person approved by the Registrar to do so may remove the label from the vehicle.
- (2) If the Registrar has been notified under regulation 109(1) that a vehicle has been assessed as a total loss and the written-off vehicle label is later removed from a vehicle under subregulation (1), the person removing the label is to notify the Registrar of that removal as soon as practicable.

115. Record to be made in written-off vehicles register

The Registrar is to –

- (a) make a record in the written-off vehicles register of a vehicle that becomes a written-off vehicle as soon as practicable after the Registrar becomes aware that the vehicle has become a written-off vehicle; and

- (2) On receipt of an application under subregulation (1), the Registrar may –
- (a) issue the applicant with a trade plate; and
 - (b) authorise the applicant to use a vehicle, to which the trade plate is affixed, on public streets in the course of business without registration.
- (3) A person is authorised under subregulation (2)(b) to use the trade plate issued to the person –
- (a) for a period determined by the Registrar; and
 - (b) on such conditions as determined by the Registrar.
- (4) A person to whom a trade plate is issued under subregulation (2)(a) may apply for a renewal of the authorisation under subregulation (2)(b) to use the trade plate.
- (5) An application under subregulation (1) or (4) must –
- (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the documents or other materials required in the approved form; and

- (8) Subject to this Division, the provisions of these regulations relating to number plates apply to a trade plate as if –
- (a) a reference to a number plate were a reference to a trade plate; and
 - (b) a reference to the registered operator of a vehicle were a reference to the holder of a trade plate.

124. Use of trade plates

- (1) The holder of a trade plate must ensure that the trade plate is only used for one or more of the following purposes:
- (a) to enable an unregistered vehicle to be taken from a place of manufacture or storage to a place of sale;
 - (b) to enable the test driving of an unregistered vehicle on public streets;
 - (c) to enable the demonstration of an unregistered vehicle to prospective purchasers;
 - (d) to enable delivery of an unregistered vehicle to a purchaser or prospective purchaser;
 - (e) to enable the use of an unregistered vehicle on public streets for some other purpose connected with its manufacture, repair, modification or sale;

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) A person must not use, or permit the use of, a trade plate for a purpose other than one authorised under subregulation (1).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not use, or permit the use of, an unregistered vehicle on a public street under the authority of a trade plate unless the trade plate is –

- (a) temporarily fixed to the rear of the vehicle in the position appropriate for a permanent number plate; or
- (b) displayed on the vehicle in some other way acceptable to the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

125. Suspension or cancellation of trade plates

- (1) The Registrar may, by written notice given to the holder of a trade plate, suspend the plate if a fee payable for the issue or renewal of the plate is not paid.
- (2) The Registrar may, by written notice given to the holder of a trade plate, cancel the plate if –

 - (b) the holder of the trade plate or a person who drives a vehicle to which the trade plate is affixed contravenes a provision of this regulation or a condition on which the trade plate was issued.
 - (3) The Registrar may, on return of a trade plate, accept the surrender of the plate.
 - (4) The holder of a trade plate must keep records containing details of the use of vehicles under the authority of the trade plate –
 - (a) in a manner and form acceptable to the Registrar; and
 - (b) for a period required by the Registrar.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 15 penalty units.

126. Short term unregistered vehicle permits

- (1) The Registrar may issue a short term unregistered vehicle permit authorising the use of an unregistered vehicle on public streets generally or on specified public streets for a period specified in the permit.
- (2) The Registrar may only issue a short term unregistered vehicle permit if satisfied that it would be unreasonable or impracticable in the circumstances to require the registration of the vehicle for the period of the permit.

- (3) An application for the issue of a short term unregistered vehicle permit must –
 - (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by the documents or other materials required in the approved form; and
 - (d) be accompanied by –
 - (i) the applicable scheduled fee; and
 - (ii) the applicable third-party insurance premium.
- (4) A short term unregistered vehicle permit may be issued on conditions determined by the Registrar.
- (5) The holder of a short term unregistered vehicle permit must ensure that –
 - (a) if the vehicle for which the permit is issued is a motor vehicle fitted with a windscreen (and is not a motor cycle) –
 - (i) the permit is affixed to the inside left portion of the windscreen so as to be legible from outside the

- (ii) the permit is removed from the windscreen as soon as it expires; and
- (b) in any other case, the permit is carried on the vehicle or, if the vehicle is a trailer, on the vehicle by which it is towed, at all times when the vehicle is being used on a public street under the authority of the permit.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (6) A person must not use, or permit the use of, a vehicle under a short term unregistered vehicle permit unless the permit is affixed or carried as required under subregulation (5).

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (7) The Registrar may, by written notice to the holder of a short term unregistered vehicle permit, cancel the permit if satisfied that –
 - (a) the vehicle has been used contrary to the conditions of the permit; or
 - (b) the vehicle has been otherwise used contrary to the provisions of the Act or these regulations.

- (1) If the Registrar issues a trade plate, the Registrar must record in the register of motor vehicles and trailers details of –
 - (a) the trade plate; and
 - (b) the person to whom it is issued; and
 - (c) each condition on which the trade plate is issued, if any.
- (2) If the Registrar issues a short term unregistered vehicle permit, the Registrar must record in the register of motor vehicles and trailers details of –
 - (a) the permit, including its number; and
 - (b) the person to whom it is issued; and
 - (c) each condition on which the permit is issued, if any.

Division 11 – Exemptions from registration

128. Driving vehicle to and from place of registration &c.

most direct or convenient route to –

(i) another such place; or

(ii) a place where the vehicle could be conveniently garaged or kept;
or

(iii) a convenient place of repair after failing to pass inspection.

(2) In proceedings for an offence against the Act or these regulations, the onus of proving that the defendant had the benefit of an exemption under this regulation at the time of the alleged offence lies on the defendant.

129. Statutory exemption for interstate and foreign vehicles

(1) In this regulation –

statutory exemption means an exemption from registration under section 28 or 29 of the Act.

(2) A statutory exemption is subject to the following conditions:

Vehicle and Traffic (Driver Licensing and Vehicle Registration)
Regulations 2021
Statutory Rules 2021, No. 26

r. 129

Part 6 – Registration of Motor Vehicles and Trailers

- (a) the exemption lapses when the period since the vehicle last entered Tasmania exceeds 3 months or a longer period approved by the Registrar in the particular case;
 - (b) all number plates, documents and labels that must be carried or displayed on the vehicle under the law of the State, Territory or foreign country under which the vehicle is registered, or its use on roads is authorised, must be carried on the vehicle and, if applicable, conspicuously displayed as required under the requirements of that law;
 - (c) the vehicle does not have the benefit of the relevant statutory exemption if –
 - (i) the registration of the vehicle is suspended or its use is prohibited under a corresponding law; or
 - (ii) the vehicle is not covered by a current third-party insurance policy under the Motor Accidents (Liabilities and Compensation) Act 1973 or the corresponding law of another Australian jurisdiction.
- (3) The condition specified in subregulation (2)(a) does not apply in the case of a vehicle –
- (a) that is not being used for a commercial purpose; and

132. Exemption for agricultural implements &c.

(1) In this regulation –

beach means any land (whether above or below high-water mark) which forms, or forms part of, the beach or shore of the sea or any tidal waters;

road construction plant means a vehicle –

(a) consisting of –

(i) an earthmoving machine;
or

(ii) a machine for compacting earth or road construction materials; or

(iii) a machine for laying or profiling road construction materials;
and

(b) used for the construction, maintenance or repair of roads.

(2) The following vehicles are exempt from registration:

(a) an agricultural implement towed by another vehicle;

(b) a trailer towed by an agricultural machine operating as an agricultural machine;

 - (3) If a public street (other than a beach) is closed to traffic under section 56A of the Act for the purposes of a motor vehicle race or reliability trial, a motor vehicle participating in the race or reliability trial is, while travelling on that street, exempt from registration.

133. Registrar's power to exempt

- (1) The Registrar may, by notice in the Gazette –
 - (a) exempt a vehicle of a specified class from registration; or
 - (b) exempt a vehicle of a specified class, or a vehicle that is being used in specified circumstances or in a specified location, from the application of specified provisions of these regulations; or
 - (c) vary or revoke an exemption previously granted under this regulation.
- (2) An exemption may be granted under this regulation on conditions specified in the notice.
- (3) An exemption under this regulation does not operate in favour of a person who would, but for this subregulation, have the benefit of the

134. Exemption for driving vehicle between properties intersected by public street

An unregistered vehicle may be driven directly across a public street from property on one side of the public street to property on the other side of the public street.

135. Exemption from registration does not affect obligation to have appropriate third-party insurance cover

An exemption from registration does not imply an exemption from the requirement to pay any applicable third-party insurance premium.

Division 12 – Miscellaneous

136. Vehicle inspection program for certain vehicles

(1) In this regulation –

public passenger vehicle means a motor vehicle that is used to operate a passenger transport service within the meaning of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011.

(2) Vehicles of the following classes are liable to inspection under a vehicle inspection program:

requirements specified by the Registrar for the modification and the vehicle so modified.

139. Modification plate

- (1) If a vehicle, other than a heavy vehicle, is modified –
 - (a) in the case of a registered vehicle, the registered operator of the vehicle; or
 - (b) in any other case, a person responsible for the vehicle – must ensure that the vehicle is inspected by a person, determined by the Registrar to be a person suitable to inspect the modifications, before the vehicle is used on a public street.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (2) If a person inspecting a vehicle under subregulation (1) is satisfied that the modification, and the vehicle as modified, meet the relevant vehicle standards or the modification specifications, the person may –
 - (a) issue a modification plate in respect of the modification and fit, or affix, the modification plate to the vehicle; and
 - (b) on issuing a modification plate in respect of the modification, give a certificate to the registered operator of the vehicle, or a person responsible for the vehicle if the vehicle is unregistered, certifying that the person is satisfied that the modification and the vehicle as modified –

- (i) meet the relevant vehicle standards; or
 - (ii) meet the modification specifications.
- (3) A person must not, without the Registrar's approval –
- (a) alter, or deface, a modification plate fitted or affixed to a vehicle other than a heavy vehicle; or
 - (b) remove a modification plate fitted or affixed to a vehicle other than a heavy vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

140. Surrogate vehicle identifiers and vehicle plates

- (1) In this regulation –

surrogate vehicle identifier means a number allocated to a vehicle under this regulation, or a corresponding law, in place of the VIN, engine number or chassis number for the vehicle.

vehicle plate means a plate, that is capable of being fitted or affixed to a vehicle, that is –

- (a) issued in relation to a vehicle under this regulation; or
 - (b) issued or approved, in relation to a vehicle, in accordance with a corresponding law.
 - (2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the vehicle identifier of a vehicle is no longer a suitable means of identifying the vehicle, the Registrar may –
 - (a) allocate a surrogate vehicle identifier in respect of the vehicle; and
 - (b) issue a vehicle plate in respect of the vehicle, that bears the surrogate vehicle identifier so issued.
 - (3) If the Registrar issues a vehicle plate in respect of a vehicle under subregulation (2)(b), the owner, or registered operator, of the vehicle must ensure that the vehicle plate is affixed to the vehicle as specified by the Registrar.
 - (4) A person must not, without the Registrar's approval –
 - (a) alter, or deface, a vehicle plate fitted or affixed to a vehicle; or
 - (b) remove a vehicle plate fitted or affixed to a vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

141. Notification of change of circumstances

- (1) If a change of circumstance occurs affecting information recorded in the register of motor vehicles and trailers about a registered vehicle or its registered operator, the registered operator must, within 14 days after the change, notify the Registrar of the change.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

- (2) Without limiting subregulation (1), a change of circumstance occurs if –
- (a) a vehicle that is not an affected vehicle is wrecked, demolished or dismantled; or
 - (b) an alteration is made to a vehicle, or its configuration or use (as recorded in the register).

- (3) If a change of circumstance occurs affecting information recorded in the register of motor vehicles and trailers about a vehicle for which a short term unregistered vehicle permit is in force, or about the holder of the permit, the holder of the permit must, within 14 days after the change, notify the Registrar of the change.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units.

- (4) If a change of circumstance occurs affecting information recorded in the register of motor vehicles and trailers about the holder of a trade plate or the business carried on by the holder of a trade plate, the holder of the trade plate must,

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (5) Unless the Registrar requires written notification, a notification under this regulation need not be in writing.
- (6) The Registrar may require evidence in a form acceptable to the Registrar –
 - (a) verifying the correctness of information notified under this regulation; or
 - (b) if the information relates to a modification of a vehicle, verifying that the modification was lawfully made.
- (7) Where an alteration is made to a registered vehicle, or its configuration or use, that affects its liability to motor tax, this regulation does not affect the need to obtain an upgrade of registration (or a temporary upgrade permit) before the vehicle is again used on a public street.

142. Return of number plates or trade plate after cancellation or expiry, &c.

- (1) Subject to any agreement with the Registrar to the contrary, the registered operator of a vehicle must, if the registration is cancelled or expires without renewal, return the number plates issued for the vehicle, including any accessory number

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (2) Unless the Registrar allows a longer time for the return of the number plates –
- (a) the number plates are, subject to paragraph (b), to be returned within 3 months after the cancellation or expiry of the registration; and
 - (b) where seasonal registration expires, the number plates are to be returned within 14 days after the end of the period for renewal of the seasonal registration.
- (3) Subject to any agreement with the Registrar to the contrary, a person to whom a trade plate has been issued must, if the trade plate is cancelled or expires without renewal, return it to the Registrar within 3 months (or a longer period specified by the Registrar) after the date of its cancellation or expiry.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (4) A person to whom a number plate or a trade plate is issued must, if so required by the terms on which the Registrar issues the plate, return the plate to the Registrar at the end of a particular period or on the occurrence of a particular event.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (6) A person is not in breach of a requirement to return a number plate or a trade plate under this regulation –
- (a) if within the period for compliance with the requirement the person produces evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the plate has been lost, stolen or destroyed; or
 - (b) if the Registrar waives compliance with the requirement.

143. Return of certificate of registration after cancellation or expiry of registration, &c.

If the registration of a vehicle is cancelled or expires without renewal, the registered operator must, if the Registrar so requires, return the certificate of registration for the vehicle or produce evidence to the Registrar's satisfaction that the certificate of registration has been lost, stolen or destroyed.

(1) In this regulation –

air cushion vehicle means a vehicle that is designed to be supported when in motion wholly or partly by air expelled from the vehicle to form a cushion of which the boundaries include the water or other surface beneath the vehicle.

(2) Air cushion vehicles are excluded from the ambit of the definition of motor vehicle under paragraph (g) of that definition in section 3 of the Act.

PART 7 – MOTOR TAX

Division 1 – Calculation of motor tax

145. Calculation of motor tax on application for registration

- (1) If a vehicle is to be registered for a registration period of 12 months, the applicable motor tax is calculated in accordance with the Act.
- (2) If the period for which a vehicle is to be registered is more or less than 12 months, the motor tax payable on an application for the registration (or the renewal of the registration) of the vehicle is calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = \frac{B}{C} \times D$$

where –

A is the amount of the tax;

B is the number of days in the period for which the vehicle is to be registered;

C is the number of days in the 12-month period that commences on the day on which the registration, or renewal of registration, is to take effect;

D is the amount of the motor tax payable for the registration of the vehicle for 12 months.

Part 7 – Motor Tax

- (3) If the registration of a vehicle is to be renewed on an application for the renewal made after the expiry of the previous registration period, the period for which the vehicle is to be registered, on the application, is to be calculated as if it commenced at the end of the previous registration period.

146. Upgrade of registration or issue of temporary upgrade permit

- (1) If there is an alteration to a registered vehicle, or its configuration or use, that increases its liability to motor tax, the Registrar may, on application under this regulation, upgrade the registration of the vehicle or issue a temporary upgrade permit for the vehicle for a period stated in the permit.
- (2) An application to upgrade the registration of a vehicle or for a temporary upgrade permit must –
 - (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form; and
 - (c) be accompanied by –
 - (i) the appropriate amount of additional motor tax calculated in accordance with subregulation (3); and

- (ii) the applicable scheduled fee, if any.
- (3) If an application under this regulation is to upgrade the registration of a vehicle, the amount of the additional motor tax required for the application under this regulation is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = (B - C) \times \frac{E}{D}$$

where –

A is the amount of the additional motor tax;

B is the amount of the motor tax that would have been payable for the last period of registration of the vehicle if the alteration had been effected before that period commenced;

C is the amount of the motor tax actually paid for the last period of registration of the vehicle;

D is the number of days in the period of registration for which motor tax was paid;

E is the number of days remaining in the period of registration when the alteration that increased liability to motor tax occurred.

r. 146

Part 7 – Motor Tax

- (4) If an application under this regulation is for a temporary upgrade permit, the amount of the additional motor tax required, for the application under this regulation, is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = (B - C) \times D$$

where –

A is the amount of the additional motor tax;

B is the amount of the motor tax that would have been payable for the last period of registration of the vehicle if the alteration had been effected before that period commenced, calculated as a daily rate;

C is the amount of the motor tax actually paid for the last period of registration of the vehicle, calculated as a daily rate;

D is the number of days for which the permit is to be issued.

- (5) The Registrar may require the applicant –
- (a) to provide further information or evidence to assist with the determination of the application; or
 - (b) to produce the vehicle for inspection at a nominated time and place.
- (6) A temporary upgrade permit –
- (a) is to be in an approved form; and

(b) is to be subject to the following conditions:

- (i) the permit must be carried in the vehicle to which it relates;
- (ii) any other conditions that the Registrar determines and specifies in the permit.

- (7) A person who uses, or permits the use of, a vehicle on a public street under the authority of a temporary upgrade permit must comply with the conditions of the permit.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

- (8) A person who uses, or permits the use of, a vehicle on a public street under the authority of a temporary upgrade permit must ensure that the permit is carried in the vehicle.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (9) The holder of a temporary upgrade permit may surrender the permit to the Registrar and, on the surrender, is entitled to a proportion of the motor tax paid on the application for the permit equivalent to the proportion that the number of days in the remainder of the term of the permit bears to the number of days in the whole of the term of the permit.

Part 7 – Motor Tax

147. Downgrade of registration and refund of motor tax

- (1) If there is an alteration to a registered vehicle, or its configuration or use, that reduces its liability to motor tax, the Registrar may, on application under this regulation, downgrade the registration of the vehicle and refund an appropriate proportion of the motor tax last paid on the application for the grant or the renewal of the registration.
- (2) An application to downgrade the registration of a vehicle and refund an appropriate proportion of motor tax must –
 - (a) be made to the Registrar in an approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required in the approved form.
- (3) The amount of the refund payable under this regulation is to be calculated as follows:

$$A = (B - C) \times \frac{E}{D}$$

where –

A is the amount of the refund;

B is the amount of the motor tax actually paid for the last period of registration of the vehicle;

- (4) The Registrar may require the applicant –
- (a) to provide further information or evidence to assist with the determination of the application; or
 - (b) to produce the vehicle for inspection at a nominated time and place.

148. Refund of motor tax on surrender of registration

On acceptance of an application for the surrender of the registration, the Registrar must make a refund of motor tax to the former registered operator calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = \frac{B}{C} \times D$$

where –

A is the amount of the refund;

C is the number of days in the registration period for vehicle;

D is the amount of the motor tax paid in respect of the relevant registration period.

149. Reassessment of motor tax

- (1) If it appears to the Registrar that an assessment of the motor tax payable for a particular vehicle is incorrect, the Registrar may reassess motor tax for the vehicle.
- (2) For the purposes of this regulation, the following is taken to be an assessment of motor tax where the amount of motor tax payable is zero:
 - (a) an assessment that no motor tax is payable for a particular vehicle is taken to be a nil assessment;
 - (b) an exemption from motor tax.
- (3) If the reassessment increases the amount of motor tax payable, the Registrar may, by written notice given to the registered operator of the vehicle, require the registered operator to pay the additional amount within the period (which must be at least 14 days from the date of the notice) specified in the notice.

- (4) The registered operator is not liable to pay additional motor tax under subregulation (3) if –
- (a) the reassessment relates to an assessment made more than 3 years before the date of the reassessment; and
 - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the registered operator did not intend to avoid the payment of motor tax.
- (5) If the reassessment reduces the amount of motor tax previously assessed, the Registrar must, within 14 days after the date of the reassessment, refund the amount of any overpayment of motor tax to the registered operator.

Division 2 – Exemptions, rebates and refunds

150. General exemptions

The following are exempt from motor tax:

- (a) a light vehicle in respect of which the registered operator is –
 - (i) the Crown; or

 - (b) if a rebate has previously been granted, whether the bus was in fact used for low-distance transportation during the period for which the rebate was granted.
- (4) The rebate is not to be granted except on the registration or the renewal of the registration of the bus.
- (5) The amount of the rebate is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = B - C$$

where –

A is the amount of the rebate;

B is the amount of the motor tax that would, but for this subregulation, be payable in respect of the bus;

C is the amount of the motor tax that would have been payable if the bus had been a 2-axle bus with a GVM exceeding 12 tonnes.

- (b) 9.68 fee units, if the person is an eligible pensioner or eligible asylum seeker.
- (4) If a person applies to register, or renew the registration of, a vehicle for a period of more or less than 12 months, the road safety levy is an amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = \frac{B}{C} \times D$$

where –

A is the amount of the road safety levy;

B is the number of days in the period for which the vehicle is to be registered;

C is the number of days in the 12-month period that commences on the day on which the registration, or renewal of registration, is to take effect;

D is the amount of the road safety levy payable for the registration of the vehicle for 12 months.

158. Exempted vehicles

- (1) The Registrar, by notice in the Gazette, may exempt a vehicle, or a class of vehicles, from this Part.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subregulation (1), the Registrar may exempt any

Part 10 – Fees and Charges

r. 163

PART 10 – FEES AND CHARGES

163. Fees generally

- (1) Subject to these regulations, the applicable scheduled fee is payable to the Registrar –
 - (a) on an application for a matter described in Schedule 1; or
 - (b) for an administrative act described in Schedule 1; or
 - (c) for an examination, test or assessment, other than a medical examination, described in Schedule 1; or
 - (d) for a vehicle inspection described in Schedule 1 that is carried out by a police officer or an authorised officer; or
 - (e) for materials or services described in Schedule 1.
- (2) The applicable scheduled fee is payable irrespective of whether the person liable for the fee asked for, or wanted, the administrative act, examination, test, assessment, vehicle inspection, materials or services to which the fee relates.
- (3) Nothing in these regulations prevents a fee from being charged in respect of an administrative act, examination, test, assessment, vehicle inspection, material or service, provided under the Act or these regulations, for which no such specific provision exists.

- (4) If a registration period is to be more or less than a period for which a registration fee is fixed in Schedule 1, the registration fee payable for the period is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$A = \frac{B}{C} \times D$$

where –

A is the registration fee;

B is the number of days in the period for which the vehicle is to be registered;

C is the number of days in the 12-month period that commences on the day on which the registration, or renewal of registration, is to take effect;

D is the fee payable for the registration of the vehicle for 12 months.

- (4A) If a registration period is to be more or less than a period for which an applicable scheduled fee, that is a registration fee, is fixed in Schedule 1, the fire levy component of that fee payable on registration or renewal of registration of a motor vehicle (other than a motor cycle) is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

where –

A is the fire levy component payable for the period for which the vehicle is to be registered;

B is the rounded indexed amount (as defined in section 77L of the Fire Service Act 1979 for the relevant financial year;

C is the number of days in the period for which the vehicle is to be registered;

D is the number of days in the 12-month period that commences on the day on which the registration, or renewal of registration, to which the fire levy component relates, is to take effect.

- (5) If the period for which a driver licence is issued or renewed is not an exact multiple of one year, the remainder is, for the purpose of determining the licence fee, to be treated as a whole year.

164. Licence fee exemption

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a person who has attained the age of 65 years is exempt from the licence fee payable on an application for the issue or renewal of a driver licence.

165. Waiver of licence fee

The Registrar may waive a fee payable in respect of the application for, or the issue or renewal of, a driver licence if the Registrar is satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so.

166. Licence fee waived in certain circumstances

- (1) If a person applies for a full licence, the Registrar may waive the fee payable in respect of a full licence of the relevant class in accordance with subregulation (2), if the Registrar is satisfied that the person –
- (a) completed the P1 stage and the P2 stage without committing an offence that –
 - (i) resulted in the recording of demerit points against the person; or
 - (ii) led to a period of disqualification, licence cancellation or suspension, or a period of ineligibility; and
 - (b) is being issued with the full licence within the 5-year period immediately after completion of the P2 stage.

- (3) The Registrar may only waive a fee under subregulation (1) in respect of a person if the Registrar is satisfied –
- (a) of the matters referred to in subregulation (1); and
 - (b) that the person has not previously received –
 - (i) a refund of his or her provisional licence fees under the regulations in relation to any class of licence; or
 - (ii) a waiver of a fee under this regulation in relation to any class of licence.
- (4) If, after waiving a fee in respect of a licence under this regulation, the Registrar becomes aware that a person does not meet the requirements of subregulation (3), the Registrar may recover from the holder of the licence the amount of the fee waived under this regulation in respect of the licence.
